DYSPEPSIA CAST OUT BY PAW PAW

Richmond Woman Relieved of Headaches, Sleeplessness and Nervous Depression

"I want to say for the benefit of my friends and others that Munyon's Paw Paw Tonic positively cures dyspepsia." This is the statement of Mrs. W. E. Moore, of Richmond, Va. Read her letter:

"I was so afflicted with that dire complaint," she writes, "that whatever I ate seemed to rest, as though in a lump, upon my breast for hours. It caused headaches, insomnia and nervous depression beyond description. I could obtain no relief. I tried a bottle of Paw Paw Tonic and from the very first I felt a change for the better. My food began to digest and I almost instantly began to feel like another person. I have used but one bottle and I really and conscientiously feel that I am cured."

If you are a sufferer from indigestion, dyspepsia, any stomach trouble, if you are continually upset from nervousness, buy a bottle of Munyon's Paw Paw Tonic at once—and just FEEL yourself improving! It costs $1 a bottle and can be bought from the Paw Paw Man, who is at the American Medicine Company store, at 643 Hamilton St. He is ready and willing at any time to explain Paw Paw's merits to you and will let you try Paw Paw Tonic free of cost. Stop in and hear his interesting talk. Munyon's Homeopathic Home Remedy Co., Scranton, Pa.

I had three children before I had any experience with the 'Favorite Prescription' and therefore was in a position to know whether or not it was a benefit to me. I know that it was, for I was so much stronger than at previous times. Also Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets have proved to be of great benefit in relieving and preventing constipation."—Mrs. W. A. The man with the HOE says—

Stable manure is growing scarcer and scarcer, and more and more expensive. Save your leaves and vegetable refuse for a compost heap this spring. This compost with commercial fertilizers has to take the place of stable manure. Bone meal is good fertilizer for everything. Always have some of it handy.

Buy enough seeds the first time so you won't need to wait when you are ready to plant. Get staples by the ounce and half ounce.

Did you know that tomatoes have two kinds of leaves? One is fine cut. The other is "potato" leaved. The potato leaved kind is harder than the other kind, and stands dry weather better.

Celery cabbage, or Pe Tsai, doesn't smell like cabbage when it is cooked. The reason is easy: it isn't cabbage, but a mustard. If you haven't grown Pe Tsai or Wang Tok, you have missed something. Nothing better for a fall salad, as delicate as lettuce and better flavored, and it always heads, if you try. It is best eaten raw, but very good when cooked.

The government has come to the rescue of asparagus growers with a rustproof "grass." If you are starting an asparagus patch try the new Washington variety. It has the government O. K. for flavor, size and growth.

Soak your best seeds over night if it is a dry spring. Save celery tops and dry them for soup and stew flavor. They give more flavor dry than they do fresh when cooked.

Put this in your note book: If mature heads of cabbage start to split this summer pull them enough to loosen the roots in the soil without breaking them.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Tark Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

OLD TIMER IS BACK
 "My friends had all given up and never expected to see me around again. I had given up hoping myself. No medicine touched my case. The doctors had tried everything. My food did not digest and filled me with gas. My brother in Philadelphia wrote me to try May's Wonderful Remedy. The first dose gave me wonderful relief and I am now as well as I ever was and feel thirty years younger." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the entrained mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Gibson Drug Store and druggists everywhere.

HENRY FORD'S CANDIDACY IMPRESSES CAPITAL CITY

Story Says Hearst Will Back Ford If Mr. Harding Gets His Court Through.

Washington, April 18.—Washington is taking seriously the candidacy of Henry Ford for the Presidency in 1924. In the first place there is the almost daily lauding of Ford in the Hearst newspapers. Together with this is a story going the rounds that Mr. Hearst sitting at a public dinner alongside of Robert Cecil said that if President Harding succeeded in having the International court of justice accepted by the Senate he would put all his money and all his organs of publicity behind Ford for the Presidency.

Then, too, an unusual number of politicians from sections of the west have brought in reports of Ford's strength in their states. The shrewdest Democratic politician from Nebraska was in town a few days ago and was asked whom he favored for the Democratic nomination for President.

"There are a lot of good men," he replied, "but what's the use of talking. Somebody will enter Henry Ford in the primary in Nebraska and he'll win the delegation in a walk." Similarly a supporter of President Harding in Ohio said:

"Harding ought to win the renomination without a contest and he undoubtedly would if it were not for the Presidential primaries. Suppose for example, that Ford is entered as a candidate in the Republican primary in Ohio. He would attract all the dissatisfied elements regardless of party and he might raise the devil."

Ford's shadow lies across both the regular parties and as for a third party it depends upon what Ford means to do. One of the progressives who is favorable to the nomination of Senator LaFollette discussing the possibility of a third party movement said:

"What is Henry Ford going to do? Everything depends on the answer to that question. If he runs as an independent candidate, LaFollette and all the others may as well give up. He would get enough of the independent vote to spoil the chance for any one else."

As for Ford's intentions Mr. Hearst may know that they are. But the chances are that he does not and is merely displaying the name of the automobile maker prominently for the purpose of frictioning President Harding out of the supporting the league court. Many politicians have talked to Ford about 1924. Ford listens in silence to all each visitor has to say and then remarks "It's in the laps of the gods." That is his stock reply. A dozen persons have heard exactly those words from him.

Just as when he ran for Senator from Michigan against Truman Newberry he will probably be a candidate in the Presidential primaries of both parties. If he has any political leanings it is toward the Republican party but they are not strong enough to keep him from standing for President as a Democrat. And it is in the Democratic convention that he will cut the largest figure. However, he is not likely to obtain the Democratic nomination.

Call For Mr. Dioghees—an Honest Man is Found.
 Salisbury, April 18.—W. L. Ray, a local magistrate, has received a dollar from a man at Hot Springs, N. C. in payment of a debt made 40 years ago while Mr. Ray was conducting a store near Hot Springs. When Mr. Ray went out of business the man denied the debt, but now, at the age of 83, he says he could not stand the idea of dying without paying the debt, and so he sends the dollar with the statement that at the time he denied the debt he knew he owed the money.
