Music by the Kannapolis Orchestra throughout the entire program. There is a growing interest among our people in the coming of Dr. Whitsett to make the literary address at County Commencement. He has not only been closely allied with the educational growth of our State for several decades, but he has for years been numbered among the gifted writers and speakers of our country. He is a member of the Poetry Society of America, and the Poetry Society of London, England. His book of poems "Saber and Song," that came from the press a few years ago is highly endorsed by the leading literary writers and critics of the country, among many others are Dr. Henry Van Dyke, Dr. Wm. Lyon Phelps, Edwin Markham, Hillebrand Hawthorne, and Ella Wheeler Wilcox. Dr. Whitsett will be entertained while in the city by Mrs. Chas. F. Ritchie, a lifelong friend of his.

MRS. JOHN PRESSLEY, 102 YEARS OLD, DEAD
Buncombe County Women Survived by 83-Year-Old Son—Tennessee Native.
Asheville, April 26.—Mrs. John Pressley, of Arden, age 102 years and four months, possibly one of the oldest residents of Buncombe county, who is survived by a son 83 years of age, died at her home yesterday morning at 11:25 o'clock after an illness of several days. Mrs. Pressley was born in Cocke county, Tennessee, and had resided in Buncombe county for 75 years. On her 101st anniversary she was tendered a dinner and a number of her direct descendants, of which there are 228 living, were present for the occasion. She is survived by four sons, Howard, 83; Joseph, 65; Sam, 58, and Robert, 56 and two daughters, Mrs. Mary E. Jones, 69, and Mrs. Laura Lambert, 62. Funeral services will be held from the Calvary Baptist church, at Fletcher Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. The Preakness stakes of $50,000 added, for three-year-olds at a mile and furlong, will be run at Pimlico May 12.
