

Not a Ku Klux Candidate.
Charlotte Observer.
Mr. J. W. Bailey has never yet said he will be a candidate for Governor—and, for that matter, he has not said that he will not be a candidate. Rumor, however, sticks, and the papers handle him as a taken-for-granted candidate. If such is the case, he has made one fact clear—he is not going to be a Ku Klux candidate. Mr. Bailey has spoken unequivocally on that issue, having been brought out, perhaps, in consideration of the Robeson County case in which two women were brutally maltreated by a hooded mob, that one incident has thrown the first embarrassment upon the Klan organization in this State. In North Carolina the judiciary is well-established, and has gained the respect of the people to such an extent as to discount any disposition on their part to take the law into their own hands.

Mr. Bailey takes the only correct view and that is, that enforcement of the law is a matter that is entirely within the hands of the officers and if any officer fails, he should be turned out. It is unsporting on part of the public to undertake discharging a duty appointed for the officers. Some recent occurrences in this State were anything but 100 per cent American. They were exactly the contrary. Bailey does not only give defiance to threats of any invisible power; he holds that all other candidates must do the same. It is a fact that every public officer is a minister of the law and that he cannot properly function as such if he stands in fear and compromise.

SMILING GLADYS SHOLT tells how she was Cured of Rheumatism and Restored to Health and Strength.

To look at my rosy cheeks and see how active and energetic I am, no one would think I was once a broken-down Rheumatic cripple.

I am so happy that I just want to tell the whole world how NEUTRONE PRESCRIPTION "99" has cured my Rheumatism.

Last Winter, my work and social engagements overtaxed my strength and Rheumatism set in. My neck became so stiff, I could hardly move my head and my shoulders and arms swelled up and ached like a boil. No one knows how I suffered. Rest, medicine and doctors did not help me, and I was almost desperate, when I read how Neutrone Prescription "99" was curing so many others of their Rheumatism.

I got a bottle of "99" in Redout, N. Y., and got relief at once. I could feel the Rheumatic pains leaving me, and the swellings began to go down by the time I had finished the first bottle. Six bottles completely cured me. Now I am the picture of health and full of life and vigor. I never felt so good in my life.

I am absolutely positive that any Rheumatic sufferer will get immediate relief by using Neutrone Prescription "99".

I cannot say too much in praise of Neutrone Prescription "99". I am sure that anybody who is suffering from Rheumatism can get relief if they will but try this wonderful remedy.

Neutrone Prescription "99" now comes in Tablet Form, as well as Liquid Form, whichever is preferred. Leading Druggists everywhere.

BUSINESS AND THE OUTLOOK.

Philadelphia Record.

Retail trade responded well to the favorable weather of last week. That is a general statement, applicable to practically all sections of the country, but in the agricultural districts with reports from various points in the South that there is a movement among the negroes Northward, brought about by the lure of high wages.

Total bank clearings in the week of mid-April, according to Bradstreet's, showed an increase of 8.4 per cent. over the same period last year and 25 per cent. of an increase in the country outside of New York. Pittsburgh was well above the average, and it is estimated that the Smoky City's showing for the whole month will be over 30 per cent. Due to the automobile expansion, Detroit led with an increase of nearly 45 per cent.

According to Dun's review, "various measures of business activity show that the best previous records have been surpassed in different instances, yet there is more evidence now of a slackening of the industrial expansion. The change has not appeared in any halting of work at leading manufacturing establishments, but rather in the abatement of new buying and in the check to the rise of prices. With declines outnumbering advances during the recent weeks, Dun's list has reflected a decisive reversal of the general price trend, and the easier conditions in some markets also are indicated by the diminished efforts to secure special advantages on shipments."

Pittsburgh's iron and steel production continues toward the peak, with prices stationary and a shading of premiums. In the textile markets, both primary and secondary, the movement has been slow, with prices firm. The raw cotton market was erratic, statements that several Fall River mills had adopted a short time schedule, with resultant production curtailment, more than offsetting the bearish weather reports from the South. The raw wool markets of the East have continued slow, in contrast with the strength shown in the Western and London markets.

Liquidation continued in the Chicago grain markets on reports of excellent weather conditions in the West and Southwest, with good prospects in the Canadian Northwest. The closing prices for May were: Wheat, $1.23 1-2; corn, 79 cents.

Call money in New York ranged from 4 1-2 to 6 per cent., compared with 4 to 6 per cent. the previous week.

"WORSE THAN PAIN"

Louisiana Lady Says She Has "Never Found Anything Better Than Cardui for a Run-Down Condition."

Morgan City, La.—"It would be hard for me to tell how much benefit I have derived from the use of Cardui," said Mrs. I. Q. Bowman, of 1319 Front Street, this city.

"I was so run-down in health I could hardly go. I was thin. I had no appetite. Could not rest or sleep well. I was so weak, and so very nervous, I was no pleasure to myself.

"I suffered some pain, but the worst of my trouble was from being so weak and easy to get tired and out of heart.

"This nervous condition was worse than pain.

"Some one told me of Cardui, and I decided to use it.

"After using a few bottles, I regained my strength. I wasn't so nervous, and began to eat and sleep, and grew stronger and was soon well.

"I have never found anything better for a run-down condition."

If you suffer as this Louisiana lady did, you, too, should find Cardui helpful for your troubles.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre At Once

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of mess.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

An instance of "STANDARD" service—not a definition

Gasoline prices reduced

At the opening of a new motoring season, which, from all trade indications, will eclipse all previous years in the amount of gasoline consumed, the tank wagon price of "Standard" Motor Gasoline has been reduced one cent a gallon, effective April 27.

This lower price is made possible by a reduction in the cost of our crude oil supply. There is, just now, an unusually large surplus of petroleum over current requirements of the trade, which has brought about lower prices at the wells.

"Standard" Motor Gasoline is at once the most essential and least expensive item in the operation of an automobile, whether you have a truck or a passenger car. "Standard" Motor Gasoline is always and uniformly good.

There is a "Standard" pump or filling station near you.
