KIWANIS MEETING

Interesting Features at Friday Night's Meeting at the "Y."

The proper marking of the names of streets at their intersections and the numbering of houses in the city of Concord, steps to get all trains to stop at Concord; arrangements for a joint meeting with the Concord Rotary Club on next Friday evening; and an interesting program arranged by team No. 4, Brevard Harris captain, were features of the meeting last evening of the Kiwanis Club of Concord at the local Y. M. C. A.

Albert Palmer called the attention of the club to the fact that there is at present only one street that is marked so a stranger in the city could know its name, and that is a sample marker that is in front of the City Hall, marking Barbrick Street. In the discussion of this matter, it was pointed out that the houses in the city are not properly numbered, and a motion was made that the matter of marking the names of the street and properly numbering the houses be presented to the new board of Aldermen after it has gone into office. President Tracy Spencer named the following committee to present the matter to the Aldermen: Albert Palmer, chairman, Jacob Moose and Lee Crowell, Jr.

A motion was made by Albert Palmer that the Mayor and the new Board of Aldermen be invited to attend the joint meeting of the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs next Friday evening, as the guest of the Kiwanis Club. The motion passed unanimously.

Tracy Spencer stated to the club that the Rotary Club had agreed to a joint meeting of the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs be held next Friday evening at 7 o'clock. The proposal was put in the form of a motion which was carried without a dissenting vote.

John B. Sherrill asked that the club take some action toward having the Southern Railway Company make Concord a regular stop for all its trains passing here. At present, trains No. 37 and the new train No. 54 do not stop at Concord. There is no city on the Southern Railway's line of the importance of Concord, and which gives the Southern as much freight and passenger traffic, at which these trains do not stop, continued the speaker, pointing out that even towns as small as Seneca, South Carolina are on the time table as regular stops for train No. 37. The Southern would make these changes, in the opinion of Mr. Sherrill, if they were approached by the citizens of Concord in the right manner, and he made a motion that the Secretary of the club write this request to the proper officials of the road, and also ask the Rotary Club to take similar action.

Mrs. H. G. Gibson, who has recently come back to Concord to make her home here, was then introduced by Brevard Harris, program chairman. Mrs. Gibson rendered several vocal selections, her accompaniment being played by Miss Nell Harling at the piano. The pleasure of her hearers as voiced in the hearty encores after each number. Mrs. Gibson then asked that the entire company join her in singing "An Old Fashioned Garden."

Rev. T. R. Lewis, D. D., Rotarian, President of Scotia Womans College, and Mr. S. A. Ackly, of Atlanta, were present as guests at the meeting, and delivered talks. Dr. Lewis spoke on some of his observations during his stay in Concord for the past eight months, touching on the church, education in North Carolina, and expressing his pleasure at the most cordial reception that had been accorded to him and Mrs. Lewis since coming to this city.

Mr. Ackly, who is here to conduct the campaign for finances for the Concord Y. M. C. A., made a few remarks on cooperation, and the results that can be accomplished by civic organizations such as the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs. Both talks were heard with much pleasure by the members of the club.

The attendance prize, given by Team No. 4 was drawn by Julius Fisher. The silent boost was given by Team No. 4.

Team No. 6, Clarence H. Barrier, captain, will be in charge of the meeting on next Friday evening.

Benny Reed's "Follies of the Day," by The Press Agent.

An array of talented principals, an azz band, and a fast stepping chorus will be presented in Ben Reed's "Follies of the Day," musical comedy company, which appears at the Leonard Vent Theatre the next week.

Mr. Reed's company has been enjoying an unusually successful season throughout the South. Everything offered is fresh, new music, novelty dancing specialties, brand new comedy, and an attractive wardrobe for the players. There is a large repertoire of musical plays, all of which are being presented exclusively by the Follies of the Day company.

Included in the cast are: Cain and Cain, in "Bits of Nonsense," Frankie Harris, blackface comedian; Lupo and Aldwell, musical duo; Alice Landis, dancing specialist; Ben Reed's Jazz Band, and Ben Reed himself, comedian de luxe. Two unusual features being presented are Master Ralph Reed, who at five years of age, is lashed as "America's youngest comedian." Ralph does the best cork and loses his bit in keeping the comedy going. Babe Legge is another precocious juvenile who entertains in popular song hits.

Finally, the chorus is composed of an attractive group of young ladies who know how to sing and dance, and provide a colorful background for altogether pleasing and well balanced programs.

The opening bill to be presented by the company will be "The New Chef."

Mt. Pleasant Wins Hard Fought Game From Concord Highs.

Mt. Pleasant, aided by three home runs by Smithfield, won a hard fought game from the Concord Highs in the wealth inning Friday at Mt. Pleasant. The score was four to three. Mt. Pleasant scored twice in the first inning, by the High School boys, scored the count in the second. Smithfield drove out another homer in the fifth and placed the collegians one run ahead. Sullivan, however, also parked one in the seventh that was the longest hit ball of the game, and evened the score again. Smithfield broke up the game in the twelfth when two men out he drove out his third home run of the game.

Sullivan was pitching at his best, and outside of Smithfield was able to handle any of the struggling collegians.

Misenheimer and Sullivan led in the hitting for the High School.

Closing of Harrisburg School.

The closing exercises of the public school at Harrisburg were held Friday afternoon and evening. A good crowd was present despite the measles epidemic which is now gripping the Harrisburg community.

During the afternoon those attending the exercises heard a very able address by Mr. M. H. Caldwell, of this city, and a debate by the school children. Supper at the school grounds followed, and during the evening a program of recitations and musical numbers was rendered by the pupils of the school.

During the evening 85 checks were given by Dr. Lubchenko to five students of the school who had perfect attendance records during the year. At the beginning of the school year the prizes were promised by Dr. Lubchenko and several other students had not missed a day until several days ago when they were stricken with measles.

The school year at Harrisburg was very successful, school officials of the county state.
