$10,000 Verdict in Sigmon Case.
A verdict of $10,000 for the plaintiff was rendered in Cabarrus Superior Court Friday in the case of Mrs. Ada Sigmon of Salisbury, against the Southern Railway Company and the Yorkin Railway Company. Attorneys for the railroads filed notice of appeal, and it is expected the case will go to the highest courts in the United States should the State Supreme Court rule with the plaintiff. This was indicated by statements made by the attorneys for the defendants.

The jury was out on the case about two hours, arguments by counsel having been concluded about 1:30 Friday afternoon and the verdict having been rendered shortly before 4 o'clock. With the completion of this case court adjourned. Judge James L. Webb, who presided, left Friday night for his home in Shelby.

The Countess of Westmoreland, whose husband died last year leaving her little besides the title, has become a professional concert singer. Labeled under the name of Cathleen Burnette.

Court Fines Trainer $10 for Being "Rough" to a Lion.

Pittsburgh, May 2.—Because he had been a bit rough with the gentle lion under his direction, Tearnie Jacobs, of Kokomo, Ind., a trainer with the Sells-Floto Circus, was fined $10 and costs this morning and received a lot of good advice on the kind treatment he should accord the jungle beast. Jacobs pleaded guilty of cruelty to animals before Alderman Harvey A. Lowry, author of "Treat 'Em With Kindness," who gave him the advice free after he had paid his fine.

Agents of the Western Pennsylvania Humane Society, who arrested Jacobs, testified that they saw him strike the lion in the face with a heavy blacksnake whip and shoot blank cartridges at it to force it to do "dangerous lion stunts," although the animal was so gentle and well-behaved that it would eat out of the hand of its trainer.
