

KEEP OUT THE SUN, RAIN AND HEAT

Let in the cool breezes. Add both beauty and comfort to your home. Awnings are better than shades, because they keep out both heat and rain, and cut the sun off a distance from the porch. Does not obstruct the view. Phone 347 for samples and prices. We are the Awning People.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Fair tonight and Friday; little change in temperature.

LOCAL MENTION

Cotton on the local market today is quoted at 25 1/2 cents per pound; cotton seed at 45 cents per bushel.

Rev. J. Frank Armstrong will preach at Center Methodist Church, South of Concord, Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

Ten new cases of measles were reported at the office of the county health department yesterday afternoon and last night, according to a report from the department this morning.

A special communication of Stokes Lodge No. 32 A. F. & A. M. will be held tonight at 8 o'clock. All Master Masons are requested to be present. Work on the third degree will be a feature of the meeting.

We have received from Mr. Thomas Stricker Eddleman an invitation to the commencement exercises of the Gazoo, Miss., High School, which takes place May 25th. Mr. Eddleman is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Eddleman.

Six defendants in recorder's court yesterday paid fines totaling $60, having been charged with violating city ordinances, intoxication and other minor offenses. One defendant charged with larceny, asked for a jury trial and his case was continued until Monday, May 21st.

Despite the heavy rains of Tuesday afternoon and night and Wednesday morning, the road to Charlotte yesterday was in good shape and there was no mud except for a short distance on the detour. The road was scraped early yesterday morning and by 11 o'clock it was in excellent shape.

The board of aldermen will hold its second meeting of the month at the city hall tonight at 8 o'clock. While discussion of paving petitions is expected to be the most important matter to be taken up by the board members, it is probable that several other questions will be brought up while the meeting is in progress.

The Gibson Mill baseball team will play a team from Salisbury here Saturday afternoon at the Gibson Park. The game will begin at 6:30 o'clock and the locals have secured a good line-up for the contest. Several stars will play with the Salisbury aggregation and the game promises to be an interesting one.

Junior Order Councils Nos. 25 and 49 will on Sunday afternoon, May 20, at 3 o'clock, present a Bible and flag to Grammar school No. 2. State Counsellor P. S. Carlton, of Salisbury, will deliver the oration and other interesting exercises will be held. The public is invited to attend the exercises, which will be held in the auditorium at No. 2 school.

Members of the County Cotton Marketing Association will hold an important meeting at the court house Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. In addition to transaction of some regular business the members at the meeting Saturday will choose a delegate to represent them at the district meeting to be held in Charlotte next Tuesday, May 22nd.

Several of the tax listers of the county declare there is a mistaken impression abroad in the country as to the time limit for making tax returns. The returns have to be made in May, these listers point out, and they cannot be made to the listers during June, though the impression seems to be general that the limit has been extended through June.

The work on the addition being erected to the White-Parks Mill is expected to be rushed now. The work was started several weeks ago but had been halted until yesterday on account of shortage of material. The plant of the mill will be doubled when the addition is completed, and the management has purchased sufficient machinery to double the mill's output.

The contempt of court proceedings against Mutt Lawing were sentenced to be heard in Rowan Superior Court today, and a number of Concord people, including attorney R. S. Williams, went to Salisbury for the hearing. The case grew out of an alleged threat. Lawing made against one of the defense's witnesses in the O. G. Thomas case, which was tried in Salisbury in February.

Members of the county health department will continue the typhoid fever clinic at Kannapolis tonight, the meeting tonight to be the second of the year in Kannapolis. Dr. Buchanan, head of the health department, plans to start the county typhoid fever clinic about the last of June, or the first of July, after the farm people have caught up with their work.

Julia Ann Bost, colored, widow of the late Frank Bost, died last Tuesday at her home in No. 9 township. She was a good old colored woman, of the true ante-bellum type. At the time of her death she was living at the home of Mr. J. L. Barnhardt, but for 27 years she was a faithful employee at the home of Mr. D. G. Bost. She was honest and true, and all the white people in the neighborhood were her friends. Two of her daughters have been servants in the home of Dr. J. W. Pike, of Concord.

MASONIC NOTICE.

Special Communication of Stokes Lodge No. 32 A. F. & A. M. Thursday night, May 17th, 1923, at 8 o'clock sharp. Work on third degree. All Master Masons requested to be present. Degree team meets at 7:30. By order of W. M. G. W. CREECH, Act. Sec.

It's as much a question of what you do with your money as how you get it.
