

NEW BUSTS FOR HALL OF FAME IN NEW YORK

One of the Busts to Be Unveiled is That of General Robert E. Lee.

New York, May 21.—When the ceremony of unveiling the seven new busts in the colonnade of the American Hall of Fame at New York University is held tomorrow afternoon the guests will observe that at last fame is to be accorded without regard to sex. Once there were two Halls of Fame—one for men and another for women. Now the memorial tablets have been rearranged so that there is no distinction.

Since 1900 fifty-six men and seven women have been elected to the Hall of Fame. When it was voted to move the busts of the women, it was found that they could not be moved without great damage, so new busts were cast.

The busts to be unveiled tomorrow are those of Abraham Lincoln, Alexander Hamilton, Gen. U. S. Grant, Gen. Robert E. Lee, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Henry Ward Beecher and Frances Willard. The Lincoln bust is the work of Saint-Gaudens and is a gift from the Union League Club. It will be unveiled by Mrs. Mary Lincoln Isham, granddaughter of Lincoln.

The French Ambassador Jules J. Jusserand, will deliver a tribute to Lincoln. Miss Mary Schuyler Hamilton will unveil the Hamilton bust, which is a gift from the Alexander Hamilton Institute. It is the work of the Italian sculptor Giuseppe Geracchi. Dr. Talcott Williams of the School of Journalism will deliver the address.

The bust of General Grant is by James Earle Fraser and Thomas Hudson Jones and is to replace the one by the late Henry M. Shady, which was unveiled in the Hall of Fame a year ago by Marshall Joffre. The work of Mr. Shady was a small sketch bust from which he intended to model a larger bust for the hall, but this work was prevented by his death. The new bust is the gift of a group of citizens who will be represented at the unveiling by Herbert L. Satterlee.

Major-Gen. J. G. Harbord will unveil the bust and speak of Grant as a soldier. Dr. George Bolling Lee, a grandson of the great Confederate chieftain, will unveil the bust of General Lee, which is the gift of the New York division of the Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. R. W. Jones, late president of the New York division, will make the presentation, the address to be by Martin W. Littleton, president of the Southern Society of New York.

Daniel Chester French is the sculptor of the Emerson bust, which will be unveiled by Dr. Edward W. Emerson, son of the poet and sage. The Authors Club of Boston, donors, will be represented by its president, Miss Alice Brown, and other members. Dr. Henry Van Dyke will speak.

Col. William C. Beecher, son of Henry Ward Beecher, will unveil the bust of the famous pulpit orator, which is the work of Mussey Rhind, and will be presented by Warren B. Nash, son of the late William A. Nash, donor of the bust. The address will be by the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, Beecher's successor in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union is the donor of the Frances Willard bust, which is the work of Lorado Taft. The unveiling will be by O. H. Willard, a kinsman of Miss Willard. Mrs. Ella A. Poole, vice president of the National W. C. T. U., will make the presentation, the address being by Miss Anna A. Gordon, national president of the organization.

Col. William C. Beecher, son of Henry Ward Beecher, will unveil the bust of the famous pulpit orator, which is the work of Mussey Rhind, and will be presented by Warren B. Nash, son of the late William A. Nash, donor of the bust. The address will be by the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, Beecher's successor in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union is the donor of the Frances Willard bust, which is the work of Lorado Taft. The unveiling will be by O. H. Willard, a kinsman of Miss Willard. Mrs. Ella A. Poole, vice president of the National W. C. T. U., will make the presentation, the address being by Miss Anna A. Gordon, national president of the organization.

Col. William C. Beecher, son of Henry Ward Beecher, will unveil the bust of the famous pulpit orator, which is the work of Mussey Rhind, and will be presented by Warren B. Nash, son of the late William A. Nash, donor of the bust. The address will be by the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, Beecher's successor in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union is the donor of the Frances Willard bust, which is the work of Lorado Taft. The unveiling will be by O. H. Willard, a kinsman of Miss Willard. Mrs. Ella A. Poole, vice president of the National W. C. T. U., will make the presentation, the address being by Miss Anna A. Gordon, national president of the organization.

Col. William C. Beecher, son of Henry Ward Beecher, will unveil the bust of the famous pulpit orator, which is the work of Mussey Rhind, and will be presented by Warren B. Nash, son of the late William A. Nash, donor of the bust. The address will be by the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, Beecher's successor in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union is the donor of the Frances Willard bust, which is the work of Lorado Taft. The unveiling will be by O. H. Willard, a kinsman of Miss Willard. Mrs. Ella A. Poole, vice president of the National W. C. T. U., will make the presentation, the address being by Miss Anna A. Gordon, national president of the organization.

Col. William C. Beecher, son of Henry Ward Beecher, will unveil the bust of the famous pulpit orator, which is the work of Mussey Rhind, and will be presented by Warren B. Nash, son of the late William A. Nash, donor of the bust. The address will be by the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, Beecher's successor in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union is the donor of the Frances Willard bust, which is the work of Lorado Taft. The unveiling will be by O. H. Willard, a kinsman of Miss Willard. Mrs. Ella A. Poole, vice president of the National W. C. T. U., will make the presentation, the address being by Miss Anna A. Gordon, national president of the organization.

Col. William C. Beecher, son of Henry Ward Beecher, will unveil the bust of the famous pulpit orator, which is the work of Mussey Rhind, and will be presented by Warren B. Nash, son of the late William A. Nash, donor of the bust. The address will be by the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, Beecher's successor in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union is the donor of the Frances Willard bust, which is the work of Lorado Taft. The unveiling will be by O. H. Willard, a kinsman of Miss Willard. Mrs. Ella A. Poole, vice president of the National W. C. T. U., will make the presentation, the address being by Miss Anna A. Gordon, national president of the organization.

Col. William C. Beecher, son of Henry Ward Beecher, will unveil the bust of the famous pulpit orator, which is the work of Mussey Rhind, and will be presented by Warren B. Nash, son of the late William A. Nash, donor of the bust. The address will be by the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, Beecher's successor in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union is the donor of the Frances Willard bust, which is the work of Lorado Taft. The unveiling will be by O. H. Willard, a kinsman of Miss Willard. Mrs. Ella A. Poole, vice president of the National W. C. T. U., will make the presentation, the address being by Miss Anna A. Gordon, national president of the organization.

Col. William C. Beecher, son of Henry Ward Beecher, will unveil the bust of the famous pulpit orator, which is the work of Mussey Rhind, and will be presented by Warren B. Nash, son of the late William A. Nash, donor of the bust. The address will be by the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, Beecher's successor in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union is the donor of the Frances Willard bust, which is the work of Lorado Taft. The unveiling will be by O. H. Willard, a kinsman of Miss Willard. Mrs. Ella A. Poole, vice president of the National W. C. T. U., will make the presentation, the address being by Miss Anna A. Gordon, national president of the organization.

Col. William C. Beecher, son of Henry Ward Beecher, will unveil the bust of the famous pulpit orator, which is the work of Mussey Rhind, and will be presented by Warren B. Nash, son of the late William A. Nash, donor of the bust. The address will be by the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, Beecher's successor in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union is the donor of the Frances Willard bust, which is the work of Lorado Taft. The unveiling will be by O. H. Willard, a kinsman of Miss Willard. Mrs. Ella A. Poole, vice president of the National W. C. T. U., will make the presentation, the address being by Miss Anna A. Gordon, national president of the organization.

Col. William C. Beecher, son of Henry Ward Beecher, will unveil the bust of the famous pulpit orator, which is the work of Mussey Rhind, and will be presented by Warren B. Nash, son of the late William A. Nash, donor of the bust. The address will be by the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, Beecher's successor in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union is the donor of the Frances Willard bust, which is the work of Lorado Taft. The unveiling will be by O. H. Willard, a kinsman of Miss Willard. Mrs. Ella A. Poole, vice president of the National W. C. T. U., will make the presentation, the address being by Miss Anna A. Gordon, national president of the organization.

Col. William C. Beecher, son of Henry Ward Beecher, will unveil the bust of the famous pulpit orator, which is the work of Mussey Rhind, and will be presented by Warren B. Nash, son of the late William A. Nash, donor of the bust. The address will be by the Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, Beecher's successor in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union is the donor of the Frances Willard bust, which is the work of Lorado Taft. The unveiling will be by O. H. Willard, a kinsman of Miss Willard. Mrs. Ella A. Poole, vice president of the National W. C. T. U., will make the presentation, the address being by Miss Anna A. Gordon, national president of the organization.

Each Dollar Cash Means A Chance

--on a Free--

for Economical Transportation

Good Year and Seiberling Tires and Tubes All Auto Accessories and Necessities Vulcanizing--Radiator Repairs--Car Laundry--Prest-O-Lite Batteries AND BATTERY REPAIRS

Best Mechanics in the Section

Pay Your Accounts and get a coupon for each dollar.

CABARRUS COUNTY

19 TO 25 E. CORBON STREET

CONCORD, N. C.

Phone: 298

ROWAN COUNTY

122 E. LIBERTY STREET

SALISBURY, N. C.

Phone 1429

MOTOR & TIRE SERVICE CO.