WEATHER REPORT.

Cloudy tonight and Friday; probably local rains in west; little change in temperature.

LOCAL MENTION

Cotton on the local market is quoted today at 25 cents per pound; cotton seed at 65 cents per bushel.

Marriage license was issued yesterday by Register of Deeds Elliott to Chester Misenheimer, of this county, and Miss Lala Riley, of Kannapolis.

Just two more important college baseball games are to be played in this state. The first is scheduled to be played today between Wake Forest and Carolina and the second on June 5th at Durham between Carolina and Trinity.

Only two new cases of measles were reported to the county health department yesterday afternoon and last night. No other cases of diseases of any kind have been reported to the department during the past several days.

Six cases were called for trial in recorder's court yesterday and five of them were tried. The five defendants paid fines totalling $80, the largest being $20 paid by a man charged with operating a car while intoxicated. The other case was continued until Friday.

Chief Talbirt and Patrolman Rensch, who spent Tuesday and yesterday in Statesville at Federal Court, have to go back Friday. They were wanted in a case charging a Concord man with stealing an auto, but the case has not been called and will not be called until Friday.

Mr. Frank Mills and family moved back to their home on North Spring street yesterday afternoon. The former home of Mr. Mills was badly damaged by fire several weeks ago and when the house was repaired many important changes were made to it, each adding to the convenience and attractiveness of the structure.

Lee Meadows, who began his professional baseball career here, has been traded to Pittsburgh for Charles Glazner. The Phillies also sent John Rawlings to Pittsburgh for Tierney. The trade is expected to strengthen both teams. Meadows is considered one of the best pitchers in the majors, but so far this season has not struck his winning stride.

Reports from various parts of the county today state that creeks and rivers are running high as a result of this week's rains. Persons coming to Concord Monday brought reports of high waters in the creeks and rivers and the rains of yesterday and today have carried the waters still higher. A majority of the streams are carrying their water off, however, and little damage has been done.

A number of Concord Shriners went to Gastonia today to attend the big ceremonial of Oasis Temple. Fully 5,000 Shriners were expected in Gastonia today for the event, and the day promised to be a very interesting one for those in attendance. Among the Concord Shriners who went to Gastonia were J. F. Dayvault, J. W. Pike, Charlie Foil, Archie Pounds, Joe Green, Charles Davis and R. M. McKimmie.

Final examinations have started in the public schools of Concord, preparatory to the closing of the schools next week. Students of the high school who averaged 90 or more on a subject do not have to take the examination on the subject, but in the other schools everyone is required to take the final tests. Actual recitation work has been completed, and the exams are the only things that stand between the students and the close of the schools.

Officers of the county health department are now perfecting plans for the typhoid fever campaign which will be conducted in this county this summer. The campaign has already been started in Kannapolis, but it will not be undertaken throughout the county until the last of June or the first of July, the health officials being anxious for the firm people to catch up with their work before starting the campaign. The serum will be given free of charge this year as it has in the past several years.

Union street, between Means street and Corbin street, was washed with a large hose this morning and much of the mud that collected there yesterday and Tuesday was washed off. The dirt was deposited on the streets by wagons which are carrying it to various parts of the city, and the rains of yesterday and last night turned the dirt into mud. The mud could be moved only with a strong water supply, and for this reason one of the hose from the fire department was used in washing the street.

PRESBYTERIANS GAVE $100,000 TO RELIEF

Southern Church Aids Largely in Supporting Near East Orphans—110,000 Protected. Montreal, May 23.—One hundred and ten thousand Christian children in the duckless small countries of the near east, now being reared and bided into the new Armenia nation by the near east relief, are absolutely safe from any present or future Turkish massacres, John R. Voris, of New York, director of the bureau of church relations of that great humanitarian organization, said members of the special near east relief advisory board appointed by the general assembly of the southern Presbyterian church here today.

"These children are not being rattened up for the Turks to kill, as has been said," Dr. Voris declared. "The Turks have always feared and respected the American flag, they have never yet violated an orphanage or institution flying the American flag. As an added precaution we have removed all children from the so-called danger zones where unofficial Mohammedan mobs are likely to break loose on a rampage of murder and torture."

Dr. W. McC. White, of Raleigh, was elected synodical representative from the North Carolina Synod of this special committee which is charged with giving the utmost cooperation of the Presbyterian church during the coming year with the state offices of the near east relief. Dr. R. E. Magill, of Richmond, was elected chairman and Dr. G. Albert Glass secretary.

Mr. Magill reported that approximately $100,000 had been contributed by Presbyterian churches in the south to the near east relief this year. He called attention to the fact that during the past year the areas of fanaticism and hatred had faded afresh and that the pitiful remnant of a persecuted Christian nation was again driven from the land where they were trying to re-establish their broken homes.

Captives Alive But Are Losing Morale. Washington, May 23.—An official dispatch received from Peking by the state department tonight said the morale of the prisoners held by the Chinese bandits was "becoming lower." The message indicated that none of the captives had been put to death, despite the threat of the brigands' leaders to kill two of them if their terms were not complied with by the Chinese government by yesterday. The cablegram, sent by Jacob Gould Schurman, the American minister, stated that the bandits were "showing indications of a desire to negotiate." Sanitary conditions in their stronghold were reported as "very bad" and Mr. Schurman said every effort was being made to supply the Americans and other foreigners, still held prisoners, with food and other supplies.

HEAVY FINE IMPOSED FOR HIRING NEGROES

Greensboro Judge Takes Step to Stop Migration of Labor. Greensboro, May 23.—The first determined effort in North Carolina to halt the migration of negroes to industrial points in the north, was taken Wednesday when Judge D. H. Collins in municipal court fined Charlie Hampton, a negro, who said he was in the employ of a steel mill at Harrisburg, Pa., $500 on a charge of soliciting labor without a state license. Hampton was arrested late last night, just as he was about to board a train upon which he had put a dozen negroes, with tickets for Harrisburg. Police had been watching the man, who, they said, hid in a corner of the station until the train was pulling out and then made a dash for it. Hampton stated that, as he was an employe of the steel company, he did not think it necessary for him to secure a license to solicit labor. He wired officials of the company of his plight and was expecting them to take the next step, which, it is believed here, will be an appeal from the ruling of the court.
