Double Wedding. A wedding of much interest and surprise to friends in Cabarrus and elsewhere took place at Mt. Olivet Church at sunrise this morning.

Just before the bridal party entered Miss Ida Maie Green, of Roaring River, gowned in brown canton crepe with corsage of snapdragons, sweetly sang "O Promise Me," accompanied by Miss Vitus Leo Nicholson, of Burlington, N. C., wearing a midnight blue coat suit with black accessories, also wearing a corsage of snapdragons.

As the first strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March were pealed forth from the stately organ into the early morning breeze, a bride and groom entered each door, and took their places at the altar.

Rev. T. W. Smith and Rev. W. A. Rollins performed the ceremony, using the impressive ring ceremony.

The brides wore blue traveling suits with a corsage of white roses. Mrs. Welborn used bisque accessories, while Mrs. Hough wore blue and black accessories.

Immediately after the ceremony the couples left by auto for short trips. Mr. and Mrs. Welborn expect to spend some time in Western North Carolina, while Mr. and Mrs. Hough will spend their honeymoon in southern cities before going to Lumpkin, Ga., for their future home.

MOB FAILS TO LYNCH A NEGRO AT WILLIAMSTON. Fifty of them rode into town but the Negro is gone; charged with Criminal Assault.

Williamston, June 20.—Fifty masked men made an unsuccessful attempt at lynching a negro here early Tuesday when they rode into town and demanded that Sheriff Robertson deliver to them Earl Bascomb, charged with an attack on a white girl and with cruelly beating a white youth who went to her rescue yesterday.

"The negro has been taken away," the sheriff told them, "but if he were here I would not turn him over to you knucklers."

"We are not knucklers, but we want that negro," said the leader. The sheriff invited them into the jail to see for themselves that the negro was not there.

MISSING LINK TO HEALTH. John Robertson Says He'll Never Be Without Paw Paw.

"I had a severe attack of the grip ... had no appetite ... felt all worn out ... was so weak an emphy cuffed heavy in my hand."

"Then just before the birth of my second child I got in the same condition as at first and was afraid I would never survive the awful experience a second time."

"My husband brought me a bottle of Stella Vitae and one of Dr. Thacher's Liver & Blood Syrup. Soon after starting on them I began to get better and was soon feeling like a new person."

Among the many remarkable statements about Stella Vitae, the treatment that is now accomplishing such gratifying results in all the leading cities throughout the country, none is more interesting than the one recently made by Mrs. Silas Sellers, a well-known resident of Clis, Ala., who says:

"Before my first child was born I was dreadfully run down and felt tired and worn out. Baby came at seven months and I had convulsions and my life was despaired of."

"My husband brought me a bottle of Stella Vitae and one of Dr. Thacher's Liver & Blood Syrup. Soon after starting on them I began to get better and was soon feeling like a new person."

"Note—Stella Vitae is sold upon the positive guarantee that the purchase price will be refunded if it fails to bring relief. Stella Vitae is sold in Concord by the Pearl Drug Company."
