WEATHER FORECAST. Partly cloudy tonight and Friday; probably showers near the coast.

LOCAL MENTION

The condition of Mr. Frank Barrier, who has been confined to his home on South Union street for the past two weeks is reported today as being unchanged.

Mr. James Culeasure has resigned his position at the Piggly Wiggly store and accepted work with the American Cotton Growers Association. He will be located at Statesville for the present.

Six new cases of measles, one case of diphtheria and one case of typhoid fever were reported yesterday to the office of the county health officer. The typhoid fever case is near the Franklin Mill.

A number of cases were disposed of in police court yesterday, the fines and costs aggregating $117.65. The cases included two defendants for an affray, two for intoxication, one for speeding, and three for assaults on females.

Messrs. J. P. Thomas, Mangum Ross, Homer Connell, J. A. Duffie, and Misses Elsie Crisco and Jennie Motley, and Mrs. Bertha Brantley, of the West Concord Baptist Church, spent yesterday in High Point attending the meeting of the State B. Y. P. U.

Mr. W. C. DeJarnette will celebrate his 65th birthday on the 7th of July at the home of Mr. R. D. Joyner near Bost Mills, known as the old Tucker place. He invites all his friends to his occasion, and asks them to bring baskets of dinner.

Centerfield Irby, of the High Point team of the Piedmont League is ill with ptomaine poison, his condition being reported improved today. Irby's home is in Kannapolis, and he has been a member of the High Point team for several seasons.

Mrs. W. D. Pemberton underwent an examination under a throat specialist in Charlotte Tuesday and next week will return to that city to have her tonsils removed. Mrs. Pemberton was confined to her home yesterday and part of today by illness, but is reported as resting more comfortably this afternoon.

All of Church street is open to traffic again now. The street has been widened in several places during the past several weeks, and asphalt has been laid on all of the new stretches now, and the entire street is again open to traffic. The widening of the street has added much to its appearance and usefulness.

The Weather Bureau in Washington holds out no prospect for a break in the heat wave. While there was a drop in the temperature here during the night, it has been excessively hot here again today, and all reports indicate that tonight and tomorrow will be equally as hot. The hot weather has been general throughout the United States.

Marriage licenses were issued by Register of Deeds Elliott yesterday to the following couples: Mr. William Sewell Wilborn, of Wilkesboro, and Miss Lura Scott, of Concord; Mr. Thomas H. Hough, of Lumberton, Ga., and Miss Blanche Scott, of Concord; Mr. Reuben T. Daniels and Miss Mabel Virginia Barts, both of Kannapolis.

Mr. J. E. Davis and Mrs. Beulah Tyson are representing the Concord Merchants' Association at the State meeting in Statesville. Yesterday the following members of the Concord association attended the State convention: A. H. Jarrett, W. L. Bell, C. M. Ivey, E. H. Brown, A. J. Dayvault and W. A. Overcash. Mr. Jarrett is president of the Concord association and Mrs. Tyson is secretary.

The license number on the Ford car stolen some time ago from the local police force was located this morning on a car which had been driven to Concord. The discovery was made by Officer George Sloop. The driver of the car stated that the number had been procured by his son last Saturday to be used on a car they had just purchased, and officers are now busy in an endeavor to trace the number back far enough to get a trace of the missing car.

Mr. D. Frank Barrier is seriously ill at his home on South Union Street. The State convention of the Building & Loan associations of North Carolina, which has been meeting at Albemarle, came to a close today. The largest number of delegates in the history of the organization was present at the meeting, which was a great event for the association. The delegates today made a trip to Badin to see the great aluminum works there.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Linker, on June 20th, a daughter, Fay Louise.

Mrs. R. H. Nelson, formerly Mrs. R. H. Boet, of this county, has written friends here advising of the safe return of herself and husband from a trip to China for the past two and one-half years. She writes that she and Mr. Nelson were on the train just ahead of the one held up by the Suchow train bandits when they captured and kidnapped a number of Americans. Her letter also states that she and her husband expect to soon make a visit to Concord and Cabarrus county.

At the Theatre. 'When Love Comes' a feature attraction, is on the program today at the Star Theatre.

The Piedmont Theatre today is offering 'Alias Phil Phil Kennedy,' and also the fourth round of 'Fighting Blood.' Harry Carey in 'The Drifter,' and Gladys Walton in 'The Town Scandal,' are on the program today at the Pastime.
