Finishing and Packing Plant of Hickory Chair Company and Three Freight Cars Burned. (By the Associated Press.) Hickory, June 26,—Fire which de-stroyed the finishing and packing room of the Hickory Chair Manufacturing Company and three freight cars-last, night caused a total loss of around $125,000, it was estimated today. R. C. Buchanan, a fireman, was cut in the arm by glass. George Bailey, manager of the com-pany, is in Detroit, but other officers said arrangements would be made to finish and store chairs and to resume operations soon, and that a larger and better building would replace the burned structure. It was said that about sixty per cent. of the loss was covered by insurance.

Father Convicted For Whipping Girl. Monroe, June 24.—Oscar Gardner, white man of North Marshville town-ship, aged about forty years, was con-victed in recorder's court last week on a charge of assault and battery upon his fifteen year old doughter and is held under a $500.00 bond until judgment is measured fifteen year old daughter and is held under a $500.00 bond until judgment is passed. The evidence of the daughter was that she and her father were plowing in a field together at that as they drove to the end of the rows the father made improper proposals to her, which she resented. Gardner then, according to the girl's testimony gave her the flogging because she talked back to hfm. Gardner fielied the "accountion" of his daughter and testified that he whip-ped the girl because she was not doing the harrowing as it should be done. The defendant was arrested a few days ago and committed to the Union county jail without bond until the hear-ing. According to Constable Griffin, the girl went to a neighbor's house and told what had taken place between her and her father, whereupon the constable was notified and the arrest made.

Co-op Signers Begin Suit to Break There Contracts. Raleigh, June 25.—Sixty-Seven suits against the tobacco co-operatives were started here tonight by Pitt county farmers who seek to break their con-tracts with the growers association. The summons, signed by Skinner and Whedbee, E. F. Harding and James and James, did not indicate the method of procedure or the cause of action. BAXTER SHEMWELL GOES TO CHAIN GANG Will Serve Thirty Months.—Getting Oid Now and Wants Friends. (Special to Greensboro News.) Lexington, June 25.—Baxter Shem-well went to the chain gang this af-ternoon. Twenty-four hours after he had been arrested in Salisbury Sunday afternoon he was taken to Davidson county road camp No. 1, in Reedy Creek township, about 14 miles north of Lex-ington, and was placed under the care of Fred Everhart, in charge of the camp. The Lexington man, who has kept out of the way of officers of the law for many months, was in a contrile mood. News of his arrival Sunday afternoon spread rapidly over the city and many persons who knew Shemwell called at the jail to see him. A constant stream was pouring in all Sunday afternoon and many more saw him this morning. The merel insisted that he was plan-ning to give himself up. He had a little buisness to attend to, he said, and he thought this would take about a week. Then he planned to come back to Lex-ington and surrender to officers of the law and serve the 30-months' sentence that has been hanging over him since he was convicted of assault with a deady wenpon on J. C. Bower and Wade H. Philips, local lawyers. Shenwell told persons here that he made come to realize he hann made ene-mies enough. He was getting older now and he wanted friends. He intimated havand to do everything he could to make up for it. He seemed to think more of friendship now than of hostility. To no one, Shemwell said, did he bear, and consideration of Sheriff S.
