WEATHER REPORT. Local thundershowers tonight and Wednesday; no change in temperature.

LOCAL MENTION

Come in and get one of our Almanacs. We will be glad to give one free to every reader of The Times and Tribune.

Two new cases of whooping cough were the only diseases of any kind reported to the county health department Monday afternoon and night.

Mr. J. C. McEachern is confined to his home on Vance street on account of illness. His condition today is reported as unchanged.

Miss Bessie Holmes has returned to her home in Graham, after spending several days here the guest of Miss Ethel Blackwelder at her home on Kerr street.

There will be a dance at the Elks' Home this evening from 9 to 2 o'clock. Music will be furnished by the famous Mark Groff orchestra, of Charlotte.

In a good, clean, snappy game of ball last Saturday the Cabarrus "Y" of Kannapolis defeated the Mooresville team, the score being 7 to 2. A large crowd was present and enjoyed the game.

At a recent meeting of the members of the Library Association decided to spend $100 for children's books. The money is available now, and the books will be purchased at once.

The weekly meeting of the Concord Rotary Club will be held at the Y tomorrow at 12:30. Members of the club who attended the International convention in St. Louis probably will make a report at the meeting.

Mr. E. C. Widenhouse, youngest son of Mr. J. W. Widenhouse, of this county, graduated at the Theological University of Boston, Mass., last week, and is now serving a pastorate at Shelburne, Falls, Mass.

Mr. Sanford Neal, assistant librarian, is now undergoing treatment for his eyes in a Charlotte hospital, and during his illness Miss Gladys Swink is assisting Mrs. Richmond Reed, the librarian.

The Woman's Missionary Society of Calvary Lutheran Church will meet at the church this evening at 7:30 instead of with Mrs. M. L. Kester as was formerly announced. A full attendance is urged.

The Cabarrus Y baseball team of Kannapolis will play the Swift Refining Co. team of Charlotte Thursday at the Kannapolis park. The game will begin at 3:30. Both teams have been playing good ball and the game should be a good one.

The Bible School of St. Andrew's Lutheran Church opened Monday morning with forty-six pupils present. The children and young people are very much interested. It is expected that the enrollment will increase and that much good will be accomplished. This school is open to the public.

Columbia has given up her franchise in the South Atlantic League. Baseball in Columbia has been uncertain all year and with attendance getting worse and worse all of the time the club owners gave up. President Walsh has not yet placed the franchise, which may go to Gastonia or Savannah.

Persons desiring to get the typhoid serum or the diphtheria antitoxin free of charge should call at the office of the county health department any Saturday. The campaign has been running for two weeks now and more than 400 persons have taken the treatment so far. At present, the treatment is being given on Saturday only.

Quite a number of defendants were tried in recorder's court Monday and they paid fines totalling $125. One man was fined $250 for having liquor for sale and another $250 for transporting liquor. He gave notice of appeal in both cases and his bond in each case was fixed at $300. Court was in session several hours.

We have been asked to state that the union services, which were announced in Monday's paper, will include only the First Baptist, First Presbyterian and Central Methodist Churches. The first service will be held next Sunday night, in Central Church. The union services, it is said, will be held for one month only.

With the opening of the paved road to its entrance, the Cabarrus County Country Club is becoming more popular each day. In addition to the golfers who are using the course at the club, a number of people drive out each afternoon to enjoy the cool breeze that blows through the lovely grove near the club house. The road to the club property is paved all of the way now.

Major W. A. Foll asks that all Rotarians, Kiwanians and others who expect to attend the meeting with Albemarle citizens in Albemarle Thursday night, June 28th, notify him at once. Mr. Foll promised the Lions Club that he would get up the party of Concord citizens for the meeting, and he wants to know how many expect to be present so that he can notify the Albemarle club. Road matters will be discussed at the meeting.

Many communities in this and adjoining counties have enjoyed fine rains recently, but Concord has had only two meager showers in two weeks. Sunday the Poplar Tent neighborhood was visited by a fine rain, which also struck parts of Townships Nos. 1 and 2, Mecklenburg, Rowan, and Iredell counties, also had a fine rain Sunday. Monday afternoon other sections of this county had a rain, but Concord had only a very small shower.

Roman Soldiers Food Hard-tack, similar to the variety which was supplied to modern armies, is an article of food for the Roman soldiers during the Second and Third centuries, A. D.

No Crooked Entrance. "When a man gets so crooked that he can't drag these through a straight hole," said Charcoal Eph, ruminatively, "dats de time he stahst figurin' who fum he kin steal a pass into heaven." —Richmond Times-Dispatch.

W. O. W. NOTICE.
