WEATHER FORECAST
Mostly cloudy tonight and Wednesday; probably local thundershowers.

LOCAL MENTION
Helen, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Gibson, is ill at the home of her parents on North Church Street.
The weekly meeting of the Concord Rotary Club will be held tomorrow—Wednesday—at 12:30 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A.
Mrs. D. B. Morrison will entertain the Floral Club at her home on West Depot street tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

One case of diphtheria was the only new disease of any kind reported to the county health department Monday afternoon and night.
The condition of Mrs. Clyde Corzine, who underwent a very serious operation in the Concord Hospital several days ago, is reported today as improved. She is now considered out of danger.

Mrs. Maude Gasele Miller, who has been superintendent of the Concord Hospital for about a year, has resigned, and will leave for Tennessee tomorrow morning.

Sheriff Mabry is busy now issuing privilege license taxes for 1924. Sheriff Mabry started issuing the licenses some time ago, and many business houses of the city which are required to secure the licenses already have done so.

Groups No. 1, 2 and 3 of Trinity Reformed Church will meet at the church Wednesday afternoon at 3:30. All members of these groups are asked to be present, as this is to be a very important meeting.

The new home Mr. and Mrs. Richmond Reed are erecting on North Union street, is rapidly nearing completion. Carpenters have completed most of their work, and painters are ready to begin their work.

Persons desiring to get the typhoid or diphtheria serums tomorrow can get them at the offices of the county health department. On each Wednesday afternoon and each Saturday, officials of the department remain in their offices to give the serums to those persons who desire to take them on those days.

Bill Harris started his first game for Cincinnati Monday and defeated Philadelphia 5 to 4. Except for two innings, when Philadelphia scored all of her runs, Harris pitched masterful ball, and he held his opponents to seven hits. Harris had pitched part of several games for Cincinnati, but the game Monday was the first he had started.

Mr. C. W. Jenkins has bought Mr. J. H. Williams' interest in the Piggy Wiggy store in this city, according to an announcement made by Mr. Williams from his home in Gastonia. The transfer of property was made on July 17th, according to Mr. Williams' announcement. No change has been made in the personnel of the clerical staff in the store here.

The Cabarrus Y baseball team of Kannapolis has several games scheduled for this week. Today and tomorrow the Albemarle team will be in Kannapolis, and as the two teams have been about evenly matched all year, these games should be unusually good. Several games were arranged for Kannapolis this week because the textile plants there are standing this week.

Eight defendants were tried in recorder's court Monday, and they were assessed with fines totaling $105. Of this amount all but $25 was paid, the defendant being given until tomorrow to raise the money. He will be sent to the chain gang if he fails to raise the money. Several cases which were originally docketed for trial Monday were continued at the request of the defendants.

Such fine progress has been made with construction of buildings at the fair grounds that fair officials are very optimistic now. "We are about 30 days ahead of our original program," one fair official stated this morning, "and we are certain everything will be in readiness in October." This official also stated that persons who visit the fair will be surprised at the completeness and variety of the program that will be offered during the fair week.

Willeford Meeting at Kannapolis.
Blacksmith preacher Willeford has his tent pitched on the Keller lot in North Kannapolis back of No. 2 graded school, and is having a good meeting. He is to preach on "The Twelve Highways to Hell" Thursday night. Services each afternoon at 3 o'clock, and at night at 7:45. Everybody is invited to attend these services. The meeting is to go on for at least ten days yet.

WILLEFORD, Blacksmith Preacher.
At The Theaters.
Franklyn Farum is being shown again today at the Piedmont in a western drama. A big comedy is also on the program.
At the Star today two pictures with several stars are being offered.
Jackie Coogan and Jack Hoxie are the two stars being offered today at the Pastime.

BIDS.
Are hereby invited for the construction of an addition to the auditorium of the school building of the Jackson Training School. Plans and specifications may be seen at the office of the superintendent. All bids are to be filed with the committee on or before August 8, 1923. The building committee reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

To Tighten the Skin.
VENETIAN SPECIAL AS-TRINGENT. A clever compound of astringent essences, extracted from rare imported herbs. Its use is to firm and tighten the skin and add to its elasticity. It tones and lifts flaccid muscles, wonderfully improving the contour. It will firm a relaxed condition of the throat, smooth out lines and wrinkles and reduce puffiness under the eyes. To ageing faces, where the flesh is loose, relaxed or sunken, this excellent astringent gives new life and should be used twice a day. Pat well into the skin at night after cleansing. Use a pad of cotton or the skillful Ardena Patter. Then always apply Orange Skin Food, which will be found particularly beneficial. Two sizes, $2.25, $4.00.
