LONG NAME, ONCE POPULAR, IS NO LONGER IN STYLE. Jake Newell Runs Across Two Persons With Multiplicity of Given Names. Charlotte Observer.

"For plurality of given names, two persons I recently ran across surely take the cake," Jake Newell, Charlotte attorney, remarked Saturday afternoon as he loafed in an office at the court house. "Fuller Name was reared in Union county and is now living in Baltimore. His friends know him as Fuller, but his parents had bestowed upon him the handle of James Hobart Jerome George Washington Fuller Devotion."

"I saw a little negro girl in Cabarrus county a few days ago with a handful of names. She was Lucy Matilda Love Divine Seymore Troy Belle Caroline Jones. They call her 'Chloe.'"

"I know one as bad as either of those," a man sitting near remarked. "Her name is Jennie Luttitia Devy Divine Sycamore Carrie Odella Caroline Price, called Lucy for short."

Multiple names were once very popular but are no longer the style. Some persons even drop one of the names conferred upon them at birth, as, for example, Woodrow Wilson, who was once known as Thomas Woodrow Wilson. Royalty usually tries to place upon a defenseless infant all the high sounding names that have come down from ancestors through the gathering generations, adding a few more for good measure.

Big Days at Charlotte Exposition. "North Carolina Home-Day" Tuesday, October 2nd, and "South Carolina Day" Wednesday, September 28th, will be featured days at the Made-in-Carolinas Exposition in Charlotte September 24th to October 6th, according to a tentative arrangement of the program for the exposition adopted at a meeting of the board of directors of the Made-in-Carolinas Exposition Company in Charlotte. The North Carolina and South Carolina days will be the biggest days of the exposition period, on which will be centered most of the great attractions that are being engaged for this period. Invitations to Governor Cameron Morrison of North Carolina, to be at the exposition on North Carolina day, October 2nd, and to Governor Thomas B. McLeod, of South Carolina, to attend the exposition on South Carolina day, Wednesday, September 26th, have been extended by the exposition board of directors. Senator Simmons and Senator Overman, of North Carolina, and a number of other distinguished North Carolinians have also been invited to attend the exposition with Governor Morrison, and invitations to the two South Carolina senators and to other distinguished Palmetto state citizens have gone forward for South Carolina day. Civic clubs in the larger cities of the two sister states have been asked to send out invitations to friends and relatives of the members to "come home" to Charlotte on the two big days of the exposition. The North Carolina day especially will be in the nature of a great home-coming of the sons of the state to view what has been accomplished commercially and in manufacturing industries of North Carolina, as exhibited at the exposition. The board of directors of the Made-in-Carolinas Exposition Company has been advised by a number of cities in the Carolinas that delegations from these towns are being formed to come to Charlotte on September 26th and on October 2nd, and many of these delegations will be accompanied by bands of music and other boosting paraphernalia to advertise these communities. At the meeting of the board of directors of the Made-in-Carolinas Exposition recently J. C. Patton was elected secretary and general manager of the exposition; J. C. Robinson was elected field manager for the exposition company, and arrangements made to carry on the preliminary work of the great exposition rapidly from now on until the opening of the show. The meeting was presided over by H. L. McLaren, president of the Made-in-Carolinas Exposition Company, of Charlotte. The exhibition space in the big building in Charlotte on Park Avenue has been rapidly sold, and preparations are being rapidly made to place the manufacturing and commercial exhibits in order. It was announced by the directors that a full schedule of the incident program incidental to the exposition will be announced in a few days. Some of the greatest artists of the country have been engaged for the week of the exposition, it is stated, and a full program for each day of the big show is being worked out by a committee appointed for that purpose.
