LOCAL MENTION

Julius Dinkins is administrator of the estate of the late Lucy Dinkins Shim-pock.

Mr. Jesse Johnson, of the clerical force at the Richmond-Flowe Company, is enjoying a vacation this week.

Marriage license was issued yesterday to Mr. Sam S. Davis and Miss Clara Orrell, both of Advance, N. C.

No new cases of contagious disease were reported yesterday to the office of County Health Officer Buchanan.

There will be preaching at the Primitive Baptist Church next Thursday at 7:30 o'clock by Rev. W. F. Hood.

The Smoot Missionary Society of Central Methodist Church will meet this evening at eight o'clock with Miss Virginia Batte.

There will be a special meeting of the American Legion at the club rooms tonight at 8 o'clock. It is very important that each member be present, as matters of interest are to be discussed.

The Board of County Commissioners at their regular session yesterday transacted only routine business, no matters of unusual importance having been presented for their consideration.

Spanish-American War veterans are today having their annual reunion of Edward Hill camp at Mooresville. Quite a number of the veterans from Concord are spending the day today in Mooresville.

Miss Mary F. Plyler, of Statesville, is now Superintendent of the Concord Hospital, having succeeded Mrs. Willer on August 1st. Miss Plyler received her training at the Long Sanatorium at Statesville.

All members of the choir of the Methodist Protestant Church choir are requested to be at the prayer-meeting service Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. After a short service a general choir practice will be had.

The members of Stokes Lodge of Masons enjoyed a watermelon feed after their meeting last night. The picnic was held on their recently acquired property at the corner of South Union and East Corbin Streets.

Chief of Police Boger, of Kannapolis, returned yesterday evening from High Point, having in his custody John Wil-son, colored, who is wanted in this county on a charge of criminal assault. The negro was brought here and placed in jail.

The steel work on the new Cabarrus Savings Bank building at the corner of South Union and Means streets continues to move rapidly forward. The workers are now sub placing the steel beams for the top story of the structure, and the riveters will soon be ready to begin their job.

Mrs. G. W. Gray died last Saturday at her home in No. 1 township, after an illness of several years with a complication of diseases. Besides her husband Mrs. Gray leaves seven children. Funeral services were conducted Sunday at 12 o'clock at Arlington Baptist Church by Rev. Mr. Craig, and interment was made in the church yard.

Dorothy, the four months' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Taylor, died at their home near the Franklin Mill on Sunday night. Funeral services were held at the home on Monday morning at 10 o'clock conducted by Rev. J. C. Umberger and the body was carried to Salisbury for interment in the Chestnut Hill cemetery.

The Woman's Missionary Society of Calvary Lutheran Church will meet at the church this evening at 7:30. Mrs. Jno. M. Cook, Field Secretary of the North Carolina Synodical Society, will be present to address the meeting. All members of the society are urged to attend this meeting and any others of the congregation are invited.

Jesse Kimbrough was placed in the local jail Monday night on a charge of larceny. Information of the theft was sent here by officers at Spartansburg, where the stealing occurred, and night officers here last night went to the home of the young man's uncle, where they made the arrest. Kimbrough is charged with having stolen a suit of clothes and a pistol.

There are several war mothers in the county who had four sons in the service and the chapter of Cabarrus county would like to ascertain if there were others. A free trip to the National Convention which meets in Kansas City in September will be given to all war mothers who had four sons in the service, and if anyone knows of a mother who had four sons they will please communicate with Mrs. Jno. K. Patterson at once.
