WEATHER FORECAST.
Mostly cloudy tonight and Saturday; no change in temperature.

LOCAL MENTION

The regular weekly meeting of the Concord Kiwanis club will be held at the Y. M. C. A. this evening at 7 o'clock.

The Y. W. A. of the First Baptist Church will meet this evening at eight o'clock with Miss Louise Medlin, on East Corbin street.

The executive committee of the auxiliaries of McKinnon Presbyterian church, will meet tonight at eight o'clock in the lecture room of the church.

Two new cases of measles and one of smallpox were reported yesterday to the office of the County Health Officer. The smallpox case was in No. 6 township.

The State Lecturer of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan will deliver a public lecture at the Court House this evening at 8 o'clock. The public is invited to hear the address.

There will be an ice cream supper and box supper at Shinn schoolhouse Saturday night, August 11th, beginning at 3 o'clock. The proceeds are to go to Mt. Mitchell Church. The public is invited to attend.

A game of baseball is scheduled for Saturday afternoon at the Cabarrus park in Kannapolis, which will give baseball fans their last opportunity of seeing the fast team from Albemarle in action when it plays the Cabarrus Y. The game will begin at 3:30 o'clock.

Mr. Farrell White, who has been associated with the York-Wadsworth Hardware Co., here for several months, has accepted a position with the "Wiscassee" Manufacturing Co., of Albemarle. Mr. White left Concord several days ago for Albemarle and has already begun his new duties.

This city was visited by a most refreshing rain Thursday night. Rain began falling about 8 o'clock and continued to fall in torrents for more than two hours. The temperature Thursday was not as humid and depressing as it had been on the two previous days, and rain made it even cooler.

Mr. Shakespeare Harris is confined to his home in No. 2 township with injuries received last Sunday when he was severely bruised and shaken up when an auto in which he was riding crashed into a small ditch that could not be seen by the driver of the auto until too late to stop the car. Mr. Harris' back was painfully hurt, and a trained nurse is with him now.

Martha Washington Council, Daughters of Liberty, will have a picnic at Cox's Hill tomorrow afternoon. The members are asked to meet at the hall at 2:30, and not later than 3 o'clock where they will be conveyed to the picnic grounds in cars. The ladies are requested to bring well-filled baskets and the men watermelons for the dinner which will be spread on the grounds at six o'clock. Every member of this Council is asked to be present.

The Widenhouse family reunion was held Thursday at the old home church near Georgeville. A large crowd was present and the day proved one of unusual interests for all. The sumptuous picnic dinner, served under the giant oaks in the yard, was one of the features of the day. In the afternoon the chief event of the day, an address by Rev. L. D. Hayman, of Weldon, was enjoyed. Mr. Hayman is pastor of the First Methodist Church of Weldon.

All of the business houses of the city are closed this afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock as a tribute of respect to President Harding. Several of the cotton mills in this city and county closed at noon and observed a half-holiday on this, the day the late President was buried in his home city of Marion. Memorial services are to be held in the courthouse here this afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock, and hundreds of Concord and Cabarrus people are expected to attend.

Definite plans have about been completed for the girls' and boys' camp to be held next week at the M. P. C. I. I. dormitories in Mt. Pleasant under the direction of Miss Cathleen Wilson, home demonstration agent, and Mr. R. D. Goodman, farm agent. The camp will begin next Monday afternoon, and the program arranged for the event indicates that the camp this year will be the most interesting ever held in this county. Any children who want to attend camp and have not signed up are asked to notify Miss Wilson or Mr. Goodman.

New Styles of Bags.
New York Times.
Large flat leather bags resembling miniature briefcases are selling in large quantities with one novelty house. They are carried under the arm, and are made of pin seal, calf and morocco, retailing at from $5 to $15. They are silk-lined and contain various compartments for mirror, purse, etc. Some are flexible, while others have metal frames. Another novelty which this house is selling for the holiday trade is a child's handbag, filigree metal frames set with colored stones. It is made of real leather in brilliant colors, and is packed in a gaily lithographed Mother Goose box. It retails at from $1 to $1.50. The new pouch bags are popular with this concern and with other novelty houses. A "Boardwalk Bag" of celluloid and imitation shell is particularly strong. It is a combination purse and vanity case, in pouch form, and retails at from $1 to $5.

Millions Spent For Gum.
(By the Associated Press.)
New York, Aug. 10.—The people of the United States pay more than a million dollars a week for their chewing gum, according to statistics brought together by the National City Bank and given out by this institution. The habit of chewing gum evidently is growing, for the output has doubled since 1914. The export sales of gum are large, and increasing. The product goes to practically every country in the world.
