Mr. R. P. Heglar, of the clerical force of the Parks-Belk Company, is enjoying a vacation this week.

Miss Dorothy Fisher has resumed her work with the Parks-Belk Company after enjoying a vacation of a week.

Miss Katie Fisher is back at her desk in the office of the county health department after enjoying a week's vacation.

"Skin Deep," a drama to grip you; thrills that get a gasp—mystery, romance, remarkable portrayals—a plot amazing in conception. Pastime Wednesday and Thursday.

Marriage licenses have been issued by Register of Deeds Elliott to Boyce V. Kiser and Miss Hilda Howell, both of Cabarrus, and Lonnie Riggs and Miss Verna Ritchie, both of Kannapolis.

Two new cases of whooping cough and one new case of smallpox were reported to the county health department this morning, according to a department report. The smallpox patient lives in Kannapolis.

Mrs. A. B. Pounds returned yesterday from a Charlotte hospital, where several weeks ago she underwent an operation. She stood the trip home well, and her condition is regarded now as very favorable.

The Concord and Kannapolis Gas Co. will give a free demonstration every afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock of the Chambers Fireless Gas Ranges. These ranges cook with the gas turned off. See ad. for particulars.

Martin B., 2-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Morris, died Saturday night at the home of his parents here. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock and interment was made in Oakwood cemetery.

The Laura Harris Circle of the Woman's Missionary Society of Central Methodist Church will meet this evening at 8 o'clock with Mesdames L. L. Davis and Victor Means at the home of Mrs. Davis on North Union street.

The new home Mr. Lee Martin is erecting just north of Concord on the Dog Trot Road, is nearing completion. Mr. Martin expects all the work to be completed within ten days or two weeks, when he will move his family into the house.

Prof. S. A. Wolf, who has been teaching a class in sight-singing and Church music at Troutman during the past week, will continue this work until Saturday, August 18th. During his absence his piano pupils are being taught by Miss Dorothy Wolf.

Fifteen cases were docketed for trial in recorder's court this morning. Included among the charges were gambling, intoxication, speeding, transporting liquor and having liquor. The charge of gambling was lodged against most of the defendants.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Biggers and family have returned from a trip to the mountains of the State. They visited Blowing Rock and Boone, via North Wilkesboro. AM reported a fine time and declared there was more to see than they had ever dreamed of.

Other leaders in the campaign were little Miss Lucy Howard, little Miss Emma Lou Wadsworth and Master Phil Brown.

Dr. S. E. Buchanan, county health officer, stated this morning that the dental clinic for crowded children continues satisfactorily. "The dentist has examined and treated many more children than we hoped would report to him," Dr. Buchanan stated, "and interest in the clinic continues to be satisfactory."

A new culvert is being laid on South Spring Street just in the rear of the First Presbyterian Church. The old fill over the culvert gave way last week, and it has been necessary to keep the street blocked since that time. The culvert being built now will be a modern one and is expected to be strong enough to withstand the water that will rush against and through it.

More than 3,000 persons have been vaccinated against typhoid fever in this county so far this year, a county official stated this morning. "This is a fine record, when it is considered that thousands have been vaccinated during the past several years," the official stated. "We have vaccinated more negroes this year than any other year, and are very much encouraged over this."

Workmen today started erecting a fence around the race track at the fair grounds. The work of erecting a fence around the entire grounds is underway at present, too, and both will be rushed to completion. Officials of the fair are positive now that everything will be in readiness for the opening of the fair on October 10th. A large number of persons visited the grounds Sunday and expressed surprise at the work already accomplished.

Two girl students of the Minnesota normal school spent their vacation by hiking from Mankato to Winnepeg, a distance of several hundred miles.

VENETIAN FLOWER POWDER
is a rejuvenating and adhesive powder which never dries the skin or gives it that uncomfortable, drawn feeling. It is such a universal favorite that it is necessary to make it in six shades to suit the needs of all who use it.
It is formulated for every-day use. And after all it is the everyday things which must pass the severest tests.
The popularity of Flower Powder proves that it has passed the tests. Large box, any one of six shades, Blanche, Cream Color, Naturelle, Special Rachel (light brunette), Spanish Rachel (dark brunette), Rose. Per box, $1.75.
