SOME TEXTILE UNIONISTS IN CHARLOTTE VOTE TO STRIKE

Action Taken at Meeting of 142 of the 325 Workers in Highland Park Mill No. 3, Charlotte Observer.

Decision to go on strike in protest against what is termed by members of the union as "the autocratic and unfair treatment by L. E. Anderson, superintendent of workers in Highland Park mill No. 3," was reached in a vote taken last night at a meeting of North Charlotte local 1216, Textile Workers of America. The vote for the strike was 136 for to 6 against, as recorded by the secretary. It was asserted by the officials of the union that 85 per cent. of the approximately 325 workers in the Highland Park Mill No. 3 will be affected by the strike vote. Only three members of the North Charlotte local of the textile union who work in Highland Park Mill No. 3 were allowed to vote for or against the strike.

The time at which the Highland Park unionists will strike was left to a decision of the executive committee of the local, assisted by several members of the union appointed by the President, W. T. Young. The executive committee went into closed session immediately after last night's meeting, which was an open one, announcing that the decision as to the hour of the strike will be announced later.

Assurance of outside help in carrying on the strike was given to the unionists of Highland Park Mill No. 3 last night by James P. Barrett, editor of The Charlotte Herald, and an official of the International union; Henry Etouh, official organizer for the international, and Jas. T. Roberts, of Mooresville, who is the newly elected vice president of the State

Federation of Labor.
 The decision to strike came after Mr. Barrett and Mr. Etouh had addressed the meeting, giving as their opinions that the members of the union directly concerned in the controversy between the workers and superintendent Anderson should alone be responsible for whatever action might be taken. Mr. Barrett and Mr. Etouh told the unionists plainly what a strike meant, presenting facts for their consideration and pleading with them to seriously consider what they would do. At no time during their talks did Mr. Barrett or Mr. Etouh make any effort to influence the action of the unionists, further than to tell them that whatever their action resulted in, the Central Labor union and the International would concur.

In the vote to leave the hour of the strike and the method of its calling to the executive committee, almost unanimous opinion was to leave the matter with the committee, one unionist voting against this plan.

The controversy between the North Charlotte unionists and L. E. Anderson, superintendent of Highland Park Mill No. 3, dates back over a number of weeks, but has been brought to a head recently by the summary discharge of W. T. Young, Miss Parker, Miss Langley, Mrs. Langley, J. G. Gann and Mrs. Gann, Henry Kirby and Cleveland Myers, all of whom are members of the North Charlotte local of the textile union. Yesterday, it was reported at last night's meeting of the union, another worker was discharged because her father was active in the union.

Young, who was discharged about a week ago, is president of the North Charlotte local, and J. G. Gann is secretary and treasurer. Miss Parker and Miss Langley, and Cleveland Myers, it was stated at a meeting held Wednesday night, were members of a committee that sought conferences with Mr. Anderson, superintendent of the mill, endeavoring to bring about the reinstatement of workers who had been summarily discharged. Young's discharge came about, it is stated, because of the charge brought against him by Mr. Anderson that he was responsible for an article appearing recently in a Charlotte paper in which criticism was made of the mill officials for placing a welfare worker in North Charlotte.

Leake Spencer, secretary and treasurer of the Highland Park Manufacturing company, told a representative of The Observer yesterday afternoon that not over one per cent. of the employees of Highland Park Mill No. 3 were members of the North Charlotte local of the textile union, and that the great majority of the employees of the four Highland Park mills were fully satisfied with conditions under which they were working and living. Mr. Spencer further stated that articles appearing in The Observer recently in regard to events transpiring in North Charlotte, at Highland Park Mill No. 3 were laughed at by workers in all four mills as absurd and inconsequential. A strike at Highland Park Mill No. 3, Mr. Spencer stated, would not involve more than a few workers, five being the limit, he thought, who would go on strike under any circumstances.
