Miss Dorothy Fisher is unable to be at her work with the Parks-Belk Company today, being confined to her home by illness.

Prof. J. E. Norket will begin on next Monday, September 3rd, a ten days' singing school at Howell's Baptist Church in No. 10 township.

Little change is reported today in the condition of Mrs. T. J. Fisher, who has been confined to her home on East Depot Street for several days on account of illness.

There will be preaching at Howell's next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Braxton Craig, and at night, Sunday school at 2 o'clock. You are cordially invited.

Six new cases of whooping cough were reported to the county health department yesterday, a department report today states. All of the patients are negroes, the report further stated.

Marriage licenses have been issued to the following couples by Register of Deeds Elliott: Fred G. Goodman and Miss Margie Barringer, both of Cabarrus; Ernest R. Cochran, of Newells, and Miss Elma Reid, of Harrisburg.

Mr. Frank B. Misenheimer is now attending the Sweeney Automobile and Tractor School at Kansas City, Mo. He has enrolled for the complete automobile and tractor course and upon graduating will receive the degree of Certified Automobile Mechanic.

We have been requested to announce that there will be preaching at Center Methodist Church, in No. 11 township, Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock by Rev. B. F. Fincher, pastor of Kerr street church. Sunday school will be held at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Tabirt are spending the day in Charlotte with their daughter, Bernice, who this morning underwent an operation for the removal of her tonsils. A message to relatives here at noon stated the operation was thought to be successful.

Mrs. Curtis Mangum, of Wadesboro, is seriously ill in a hospital there, according to reports reaching relatives here. Mrs. Mangum became ill several days ago, and fear for her recovery is entertained. Before her marriage she was Miss Lena Biggers, of this city.

Circus day passed rather quietly, local police officers state. Reports circulated here last night stated that a shooting affair occurred at the snow grounds, but police officers denied the report. The crowd was well behaved and unusually orderly, police officers state.

This is the last week a half-holiday will be observed by the business houses of the city. All of the stores have not been closing on Thursday afternoon, but most of them have, along with the offices of most of the lawyers and all of the dentists. The half-holiday plan was effective until September first.

Ten defendants were docketed for trial in recorder's court yesterday. Two were fined $10 each for an affray; one paid a $25 fine for an assault on a female; one charged with assault with a deadly weapon was freed; two charged with trespass were found not guilty.

one was fined $15 for being intoxicated; probable cause was found against two charged with store breaking and entering, and judgment was suspended upon payment of the cost against the other.

The tax rate of Rowan county for next year was fixed at 85 cents on the $100 by the board of county commissioners at a special meeting held in the county courthouse Monday.

A bantam hen owned by Mrs. A. L. Goodman, on Valley street, died yesterday and Mrs. Goodman says that she has had the hen in her poultry yard for nine years.

Rev. L. A. Thomas, pastor of St. James Lutheran Church, is in Davidson county today to address the reunion of the Lutherans of that county. This occasion always brings out a large crowd.

"Hail the Woman," to be shown at the Pastime again today, is one of the best pictures that has been shown here in a long time. A large crowd was present last night at the first showing. By the way, the music at the Pastime now is alone worth the price of admission.

The young son of Mr. Hope Bonds, of near Poplar Tent, had the misfortune to fall in the front yard at his home several days ago and dislocate his collar bone. He was taken to the Concord Hospital, where he was given attention and he is reported this morning as getting on very satisfactorily.

Local citizens who have had occasion to use the Piedmont Limited train of the Southern Railway, running from New Orleans to New York, have been delighted with the service afforded by that train. It gives a most desirable connection, and the heavy travel on it shows the new service is duly appreciated.

The men in charge of driving the rivets in the Cabarrus Saving Bank Building completed their work Tuesday. During the past two days most of the workmen on the job have been engaged in erecting temporary scaffolds and carrying material from the ground to the various floors where it will be needed.

An interesting service was enjoyed at the First Presbyterian Church last night when the mid-week prayer service was held. Rev. J. C. Rowan, pastor of the church, conducted the opening exercises, after which the address was delivered by Rev. Albert Gillon. The closing prayer was delivered by Rev. W. C. Alexander.

Dr. D. R. Perry, former county physician for Davidson County, has succeeded Dr. J. L. Spruill with the North Carolina Tuberculosis Association, and hereafter he will conduct the tuberculosis clinics in the State. Dr. Spruill on Saturday will take charge of the Guilford County Tuberculosis Hospital, which was recently constructed.

The Spartanburg team is now leading in the South Atlantic League. By winning the third straight game from Macon, the South Carolina team took the lead, with Charlotte still in third place. In the National League both Cincinnati and Pittsburgh lost while the Giants were idle, and the champions gained half a game on each team.

Mr. Grover Creech, manager of the Sanitary Grocery company, is suffering with an infected eye. Tuesday afternoon a piece of grain of some kind lodged in Mr. Creech's eye and so irritated his eye that he had to have a physician remove it yesterday. In the meantime the grain had lodged so securely that it required about half an hour's work for the physician to remove it.

A Host of Adorable New Ideas In Millinery

So colorful and lovely they are—proclaiming the Mode for Fall, that one just cannot help but enthuse—every incoming shipment brings new and more delightful surprises.

Their soft, flattering lines—their surprising unexpectedness of adornment—their lovely new Autumnal tones that rival the glories of the woodland, all conspire to hold one so completely enthralled that one hardly knows how to decide what chapeau is loveliest of all.

Words paint a poor picture of this Pre-Autumn Millinery—one must surely see them to fully appreciate.

And they are priced modestly too.
