

QUAKER HEAT IS QUICKER HEAT CLEANER HEAT CHEAPER HEAT BETTER HEAT AND HEALTHIER HEAT

BECAUSE IT'S MOIST HEAT.

QUAKERS ARE FUEL SAVERS

WITH THE FUEL YOU BURN IN ONE OPEN GRATE YOU CAN HEAT TWO TO THREE ROOMS

The Quaker Furnace is All Steel. No cemented joints to leak smoke and gas in your home. Easily installed in old or new homes. No cutting of walls. One Register heats two to ten rooms. Sold on a written guarantee. No heat, no pay. Try it before you buy it.

We have sold over fifty of these furnaces in Concord and Cabarrus county, and will gladly furnish the names of customers who have used these furnaces for several winters, and find them perfectly satisfactory. Phone 347 for Prices and Terms. The Quaker burns any kind of fuel.

LOCAL MENTION

There will be a box supper at Rimer on Saturday night, September 22nd. The proceeds will go to the church fund.

No new cases of contagious disease were reported yesterday to the office of the County Health Department.

The local High School team will leave tomorrow for Greensboro to meet the team of the Greensboro High School in the first football game of the season.

Horseback riding is coming into its own again in Concord. During the past several weeks a number of Concord people have purchased handsome riding horses, and the sport is rapidly increasing in interest in this city.

The State University and Trinity College opened this week for the 1923-24 term. The enrollment at each college was the largest on record, Trinity reporting an enrollment of more than 1,000 while Carolina has more than 1,500 registered. Concord and Cabarrus county are represented in both student bodies.

The Charlotte Hornets won the first game from Wilson in the series to determine the champion of the South Atlantic and Virginia Leagues. The score was 4 to 2, Charlotte winning through the excellent pitching of Bolt and the timely hitting of Paschal. The two teams will play three games in Charlotte beginning tomorrow.

Mrs. Alex Mays died at her home near the Brown Mill last Monday morning about 4 o'clock, after an illness of several months of cancer. Besides her husband she leaves two children. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. H. Shelton Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, and interment took place in Union cemetery.

The members of the Young Ladies' Class of St. James Lutheran Sunday school were guests of Mrs. H. G. Gibson at her home on West Depot street on Tuesday evening. Several business matters were also brought up at this meeting, among them being the election of a teacher for the class. Mrs. John M. Cook was the unanimous choice of the ladies for their teacher.

The regular annual Log Rolling of the Woodmen of the World of this district will be held in Concord with Elm Camp No. 16, on Friday of this week. The meetings will start in the afternoon about 2:30 o'clock, and there will also be an evening session. The program includes an automobile ride for the visitors to the Jackson Training School, and a banquet in the armory hall at 7 o'clock.

The Tuberculosis Society has a patient at Sanatorium for whom they are entirely responsible. She has no one to look to for assistance. She needs for the winter several suits of warm underwear, a pair of high shoes No. 6, a bath robe, black or white hose No. 9 1/2, felt bed room shoes, a warm sweater, and a rain coat. If any of the friends of the society can give any of the above mentioned articles which they have cast aside, they will be greatly appreciated. Telephone 185.

Concord was among the cities of the state in which no fire occurred during the month of August, according to a report just issued from the office of Insurance Commissioner Stacy Wade. Durham and Henderson made a clean score as to fires during both July and August. Other cities and towns reporting no fire in August are Salisbury, Goldsboro, Wilson, Greenville, Washington, Elizabeth City, Oxford, Clinton, Monroe, Gastonia, Lumberton, Mt. Airy, Lenoir, Lexington, and Statesville.

Beginning this evening, September 20, and continuing through tomorrow until sunset, the Day of Atonement, called in Hebrew, Yom Kippur, will be observed in Concord as well as all the world over by the Jewish people as the holiest of the Synagog. Everywhere on this day the Jews will assemble in their houses of worship. And there, forgetful of the bustling world outside, in meditation and in prayer, by fasting and abstaining from all worldly thoughts they will seek to cleanse their hearts of sin and by true repentance, become one with God that they may the better fulfill their duties and discharge their responsibilities toward humanity.

Lutheran Conference to Meet at China Grove.

The Western Conference of the North Carolina Lutheran Synod will convene in St. Mark's church, China Grove, the Rev. C. P. Fisher, pastor, Tuesday, September 25, and will run through Thursday 27. A large number of pastors and laymen are expected to be present. The principal address on the second day will be delivered by the Rev. J. L. Morgan, his subject to be "The Uniquity of Lutheranism."

The western conference embraces all Lutheran churches west of the main line of the Southern railway and is one of the two conferences of the state organization. It numbers among its enrollment quite a number of churches and pastors in Cabarrus county.

Mrs. Coolidge Not to Come to Chapel Hill.

Chapel Hill, Sept. 18.—Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, wife of the President, has written Mrs. Harry Comer that she cannot come here to attend the installation ceremonies of the Phi Beta Phi Society. When there was talk of President Coolidge coming to Durham the local members of the society, through Mrs. Comer, wrote Mrs. Coolidge urging her to attend the ceremonies. Hope that she would come was virtually abandoned, however, when it was learned that the president could not accept the Durham invitation.
