The concert for the War Mothers has been postponed till next Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Byrd plan to move into their new home on North Union Street on Saturday of this week.

Tickets for the coming War Mothers' Concert are being placed on sale by the members of the Junior Kings Daughters.

Marriage license has been issued by Register M. Deeds Elliott to John Sossamon of Concord, and Miss Blanche Barringer, of this county.

The condition of Mr. Hal Paryear, who has been ill for the past several days at his home here, is reported today as practically unchanged.

Master John Archibald Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fisher, underwent an operation for the removal of his appendix at the Concord Hospital Tuesday afternoon. The condition of the child is reported today as favorable.

Six cases were on docket in recorder's court this morning. Five of the cases charged speeding or intoxication and the sixth charged larceny. Court was in session only a short time, as the cases were tried rapidly.

A message to relatives here today stated that the condition of Mr. J. F. Dayvault, who is undergoing treatment in a Charlotte hospital, is improving nicely now. Mr. Dayvault will be unable to leave the hospital for several days, however.

A number of Concord people went to Charlotte Tuesday night to hear the address of Senator Oscar W. Underwood, who spoke at a dinner given by the Charlotte Chamber of Commerce. The Concord people were pleased with Senator Underwood's address.

The purchase of food, clothing, as well as other goods in demand at this time of year, is on at a rapid pace in Concord. Downtown shops were busy during yesterday and at the close of the day dealers reported a splendid business.

The Winecoff Community Club held an interesting meeting Tuesday night, at which time expressions were heard from the members relative to the county fair. The members of the club decided to enter a community exhibit at the fair and Mr. Wiley Unberger was made chairman of the committee to arrange for the exhibit.

Mrs. Maggie Wackwelder died Tuesday morning at 3:30 o'clock at her home in No. 4 township, death being caused by cancer. Mrs. Wackwelder was 66 years of age and is survived by several children. Miss Martin enjoys the reputation of being a speaker of unusual ability, and the general public is invited to hear her address this evening.

Governor Cameron Morrison has declined the application for parole of Carr Shook, of Catawba county, who is serving two years for violation of the prohibition laws. Shook was sentenced in Catawba county, but is working on the chain gang in this county, having been hired out by the Catawba commissioners.

Charlotte won the series with Wilson, the Hornets winning the game Tuesday 3 to 2. The two teams disbanded after the game, the Charlotte players returning to Charlotte. The Hornets won four of the six games played. In the National League the Giants practically clinched the pennant by defeating Cincinnati 3 to 2. Another victory will make the pennant certain for the Giants.

Little knots of people in drug stores, on street corners and even in homes about Concord now have shifted their topic of conversation from baseball, the boll weevil, the Dempsey-Firpo fight or the weather to football. What this or that team will do and how they will show up in the games next Saturday seems to be an all engrossing thing among the fans.

The tourist season, when the moneyed folk of the more frigid regions to the North and East speed by en route to the balmy shores of Florida to while away their workless winters, is under full swing almost, it seems from things seen here yesterday. Big cars, loaded with fine looking folk wearing smiles in anticipation of their seasonal fun down south sped through during the day and evening.

Junior Choir to Be Organized at First Presbyterian Church.

Every Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock all boys and girls of the First Presbyterian Church are asked to be at the church promptly at this hour, as a Junior choir is to be organized and trained to sing at the prayer meeting and Sunday school services. It is especially desired that a large number be present this evening. Mr. Alan D. Prindell will have charge of this choir and will direct and train the children.

Last year where hot lunches were served school children, a big difference was noted in their health, say home demonstration workers of the State College and department.
