

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Special Honor to Mrs. C. B. Wagoner, Charlotte Observer.

In the last afternoon concert that they are to give in Charlotte until next year Creators and his great band did special honor to a Cabarrus County composer, Mrs. Janie Patterson Wagoner, by opening and closing the program of the afternoon with her famous Mecklenburg march, Mr. Creator's gave the number the first place on the program, but as Mrs. Wagoner was not in the hall at the time, coming later, he repeated the composition, closing the program of the afternoon with it.

The march is quite famed in the Carolinas, and has been used by many, but it never has been played as it was yesterday. The band men, realizing that the composer was from the vicinity of Charlotte, threw heart and soul into the interpretation, the effect was great. The work is one of unusual musical merit—a bright spirited brilliant march, which is already known as one of the best of North Carolina compositions.

Dance Friday Evening.
The Silver Fox Club will entertain at a dance on Friday evening at the Merchants and Manufacturers Club, an orchestra from Charlotte having been obtained to furnish the music for the occasion. Invitations have been issued for the affair. The Silver Fox Club, which was organized a few weeks ago, is a social organization of young men, and they later hope to form a Cotillion Club from its members. Another dance is being planned for Halloween.

Y. C. P. U. Entertained.
Miss Lillian Graham was hostess to the members of the Young Peoples' Christian Union of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church at a wrenie and marshmallow roast Monday evening. Miss Graham entertained her guests at the Cabarrus County Fair grounds, and the occasion proved one of unusual interest and pleasure for all present.

A huge fire was built soon after Miss Graham and her guests reached the Fair grounds, and around this fire the evening was spent. About fifteen guests were present.

Laces, Baskets, Trays, Beads, Etc., for Sale.

On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week, from 2 to 6 p. m., the Evening Circle of the Women's Missionary Circle of St. James Episcopal Lutheran Church will put a lovely display of laces, baskets, trays, beads, etc., on sale at Cabarrus Drug Co. These beautiful hand made articles were made by the Christian women of India and the West Indies. The money derived from the sale of these goods is used for the support of these foreign Christian workers. In most cases it is their only means of support. People who have seen the goods declare them beautiful. A great sale is expected. Come early!

Missionary Society Meets.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church held a very interesting meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. K. L. Craven on West Dugout street. About thirty members were present. At the close of the meeting delicious sandwiches and coffee were served by the hostess. At the meeting and Mrs. J. F. Shaffer were elected as Mrs. T. D. Mauness, Mrs. J. A. Walker delegates to go to the Association meeting which meets in Kannapolis on the 18th of October.

Miss Willeford to Entertain.

Miss Bertie Louise Willeford will entertain Wednesday afternoon from four to five-thirty, honoring Mrs. J. Lee Crowell, and Misses Elizabeth Harris and Nell Harry.

COUNTY RED CROSS NURSE MAKES REPORT

Miss May Stockton Tells of Her Activities in Hanescomb During the Month of September.
Asheville Citizen.
Miss May Stockton, County Red Cross nurse, has completed a report of her activities last month. In this period of time she traveled 444 miles, visited 13 schools and instructed teachers in making physical examinations of 1,000 rural school children. Miss Stockton weighed and measured 640 school children, and spoke to the pupils in 25 grades on the importance of proper diet and the importance of nutritional correction.

Miss Stockton also introduced the Modern Health Crusade work to 523 pupils and spoke to them in regard to personal hygiene, especially the care of the teeth. She assisted the health officers in completing 65 vaccinations for typhoid fever and 28 vaccinations for small pox.

Dr. R. G. Wilson, the County Health Officer, has instituted proceedings before Magistrate T. F. Hunter against Clyde Leonard and John A. Baker, of Weaverville, charging them with maintaining an unsanitary nuisance. Leonard and Baker operate a slaughter house in connection with the farm but the officer says he has no complaint about this. Dr. Wilson says the hog pens must be cleaned up.

DALLAS WITHDRAWS APPEAL TO DO TIME

Wilmington Man Expected at the Penitentiary Today to Begin Sentence of 2 to 5 Years.

Raleigh, Oct. 8.—Herbert E. Dallas, who was convicted of manslaughter for killing H. J. Southwell, a locomotive engineer, as a result of animosity growing out of the shopmen's strike, has withdrawn his appeal from a sentence of from two to five years in the penitentiary and is expected here from Wilmington tomorrow to begin doing his time. Both were employees of the Coast Line; but Dallas, who thought more of his job than of the union, appears to have been run mighty near ragged by the engineer, who was a larger man. As an inspector, Dallas was made a special officer and given a pistol. He used it on Southwell after the latter had submitted him to strenuous verbal abuse and perhaps attacked him physically.

The defense had expected to do everything done at the trial, especially to Judge Kerr's efforts to secure a jury. An extended argument was in prospect before the Supreme Court this week; but if it suits Dallas to call it a day there will be no complaint from the State's chief tribunal.

Flora Catherine Corriher Sechler.
Flora Catherine Corriher Sechler was born December 16, 1847. She departed this life October 3, 1923, aged 75 years, nine months and seventeen days. She leaves to mourn her departure two step daughters, Mrs. Henry Deal and Mrs. Ernest Gobel; three daughters, Mrs. G. G. Blackwelder, Mrs. C. M. Liles and Mrs. E. A. Deal; one son, Chester G. Sechler, and two brothers, Silas and James Corriher.

She was married to G. A. J. Sechler on October 7, 1873, and to this union was born three daughters and two sons. Her husband, G. A. J. Sechler, one son Jackson Cecil, two step sons, Bennie and Robert, one step daughter, Bettie, preceded her to the spirit world. In early life she became a member of Mt. Zion Reformed Church where she remained a conscientious member, ever ready to do her duty in all departments of her church. She was a faithful member of the W. H. F. M. Society, and an active worker in the Sunday school. She was fond of the preached word and was found in her place each Sunday morning unless providentially hindered. She was loved by all who knew her, and was known to all around as "Grandma Sechler." Her devotion to her church was beautiful.

Burglars at Bear Poplar.
Salisbury, Oct. 8.—Pounding on the door of a safe until it sprung open at the Beaver store at Bear Poplar, in western Rowan, Saturday night robbers secured $50 or more and a number of checks. They used a sledge hammer which had been stolen from a railroad section house at Barber's several miles away. The robbery was not discovered until some member of the store force went into the building next day.

Rowan Man Succeeds the Late Dr. Lyster.
Rev. A. C. Peeler, a native of Rowan county, who has for some time been pastor of the Reformed church at Staunton, Va., has taken the pastorate of the Waughtown Reformed church, near Winston-Salem, succeeding the late Rev. Dr. J. M. L. Lyster, who was also a Rowan man, and who died while serving the Forsyth church.

Death of Miss Glover.
News has come that Miss Clara F. Glover, who taught in and near Concord some years ago, died in a hospital in her home town, Camden, Maine, on Friday, October 5th, and was buried on Sunday, October 7th. Many of her former pupils will learn of this with sorrow, as she was a much beloved teacher. She taught for several years at White Hall and also at Locust, and at Scotia Seminary in Concord.

At The Theaters.
"The Invisible Power," an unusual drama with several stars, is being offered at the Star today. At the Piedmont today the railroad drama, "Westbound Limited," is again being shown, and a western drama with several stars, are being offered today at the Pastime.

A Gentleman who has solved the "Shirt Problem" makes the following statement:
"I'VE MADE A DISCOVERY!"

"I used to find the shirt drawer empty. I have worn shirts without buttons—I had to do it. I've worn shirts that were soiled—and blamed it on the good wife or the laundry for not having clean ones for me in time. Sometimes when I wanted a white shirt, colored ones for all I had.
"Then I bought myself ENOUGH SHIRTS that was my discovery."
Fact is, most any can can use two or three extra shirts—and the time to get them is beginning Saturday. For, during Shirt Week we have an abundance of styles, colors, and fabrics in the size you year.
