

BUCK'S HOT BLAST Produces Maximum Heat With a Minimum Use of Fuel

In a Buck's Hot Blast you can burn any kind of fuel you wish—hard coal, soft coal or slack—and from this fuel you can get more heat than any other heater using the same quantity of fuel. WHY? Because of Buck's patented Hot Blast Ring, that supplies more heated air to the fuel surface than any other distributor known. It makes the heater begin to radiate. There are many other features about the Buck's that make it the best heater you can buy. Come in and let us tell you about the.

LOCAL MENTION

The War Mothers took in $342.00 on sales at the recent Fair, and $75.00 from the concert given at Central School a few weeks ago.

We have been requested to announce that there will be preaching at the Primitive Baptist Church on Friday night. The service will be conducted by J. M. Roal.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday by Register of Deeds Elliott to the following couples: J. D. Fagartz and Miss Gertrude E. Kirby, both of Cabarrus; and J. T. Hutcheson and Miss Bertha Bentfield, both of Charlotte.

A large piece of the glass in the front of the offices of the Southern Loan and Trust Company fell out yesterday. The glass has been cracked for several months, but none of it fell out until yesterday when a jar or shock of some kind dislodged a large piece.

Mary Eugenia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bromley, celebrated her eighth birthday Tuesday afternoon, October 23rd, from 2:30 to 5:30 by entertaining a number of her little friends. Many interesting games were played, after which refreshments were served.

One case only was definitely decided in Superior Court yesterday, that being the case of Walker vs. Starnes. The jury brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff. At the conclusion of this case court started on the case of Concord National Bank vs. J. F. Post and this case was being tried when court recessed for the day.

Mr. R. L. Dick was carried to a Charlotte Hospital last night for treatment. Mr. Dick became ill while working in Kannapolis yesterday and as his condition did not improve during the day he was rushed to Charlotte last night. Friends who accompanied Mr. Dick to Charlotte state that physicians there consider his condition as critical.

The Reformation Rally service will be held in St. Johns Church, in this county, Sunday, October 28th, at 3 p. m. A number of short talks will be made. Music will be furnished by the St. John's choir. The people of this community are most heartily invited to attend. These services have become a large factor in the life of this community.

Only one defendant was tried in recorder's court yesterday, the defendant being charged with abandonment. The defendant was sentenced to serve six months in the chain gang, but sentence was suspended upon condition that the defendant live with and support his family and appear in court for six months and show that he is carrying out his orders.

W. M. Sherrill yesterday defeated J. C. Walton in their match in the golf tournament of the Cabarrus County Club. Sherrill won 3 up, playing a consistent game. Walton straddled after the first round, displaying a good brand of golf. Other matches in the tournament probably will be played this week, and the second round of play will begin next week.

A new plate glass has been placed in the front of the Concord Public Library. The old glass in the building was damaged several weeks ago when a small piece of material was picked up from the street by an auto tire and whirled against the window when the car started. The new glass is one of the largest in the city and its installation was watched with interest by many people.

A number of prominent negroes of the county who are working for the colored people's fair stated this morning that they are getting everything in shape for the big event. A large number of persons have made plans to enter exhibits at the fair, and an amusement company has signed up to furnish shows for the midway. The fair will begin early next month and will continue for five days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Biles returned yesterday to their home in Jonesboro, Ill., after having spent a month here visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Biles, who is a brother of Mrs. M. J. Blackwelder and Mrs. H. M. Goodman, left here fifty-three years ago and this is his first visit to North Carolina since leaving. He was very much impressed with the progress of North Carolina.

Furman defeated Davidson 30 to 0 yesterday in their annual football game. The game was played in Columbia at the South Carolina State Fair. Nick Sappenfield, of this city, played part of the game for Davidson and his playing was given as one of the features of the Presbyterian's play. Davidson was unable to do anything with Furman's line while Furman gained almost at will against the Davidson line.

Cline's Pharmacy is now showing several pictures taken last week during the Cabarrus County Fair. The pictures have created much interest, several of them showing race horses in action and others showing the grandstand packed to capacity while the races were being run. The pictures are on display in one of the show windows of Cline's. Pictures of several babies in the Legion Baby Show also are shown in the window.

"It seems that people will not comply with the law about sprinkling the sidewalk before sweeping," a Concord man stated this morning while walking from the square to the postoffice in much dust created by persons cleaning off the sidewalks in front of their places of business. The city law, it was pointed out, states that sidewalks must be sprinkled before swept, and if this was done all the dust raised by the sweepers would be eliminated.

Death In Her 90th Year.

Albemarle Press. Mrs. Frances Adeline Blalock, relict of the late Z. D. Blalock, who died July 6, 1915, passed quietly away Sunday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Hinson, on East Main Street.

She had been gradually paying the toll of mature age, and death came as no surprise. She was in her 90th year, having passed the 80th milestone in June.

It is of interest to note that the deceased has 54 grandchildren and 71 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Blalock was a true daughter of Zion. She was a woman of gentle bearing, and all who knew her loved her. She was one of the best known women of the Stoney Hill Church section, and joined that church at the early age of 11 years.

1,000 Textile Operatives in Pawtucket Thrown Out of Job. Pawtucket, R. I., Oct. 24.—Approximately 1,000 textile operatives were thrown out of employment today by the announced decision of the Hope Webbing company and the Smith Webbing company to curtail production.

About 700 of the workers were laid off indefinitely by the Hope company and the remainder by the Smith company.

Notices posted today explained that the shortage of a market for narrow fabrics was responsible for the curtailment. The Hope company is the largest manufacturer of the narrow fabrics in Rhode Island, employing normally about 1,300 workers.
