Thirty or forty ducks, flying in battle formation, passed over Concord Tuesday. The ducks were flying in a southeasterly direction when seen from this city, and their message reminds one of the prophecy that winter is here. So far as can be learned these ducks are the only ones that have been seen in this county so far this season.

The Fall season finds hundreds of tourists passing through Concord on their way to Florida and other Southern States where they plan to remain through the winter months. During the past several weeks it is possible to see a tourist's car passing through the city at most any hour of the day and several parties are registered at local hotels each night.

Eight defendants were tried in recorder's court yesterday in nine cases. Six of them paid fines totalling $75 and another was sentenced to the chain gang on two counts. The meeting to be held at the Y this evening will begin at 6:30 o'clock, when dinner will be served by members of the Salem Alumnae Association. A small charge will be made for the supper. Every male member of the association is invited to attend.

The ghosts and other weird spirits seen on the streets here Tuesday night were but forerunners of the main body of Halloween army which arrived last night. The marchers were in full array, some wearing false faces, other chalking their faces while still others resorted to various blackening processes to make their identity unknown. The streets were full of those celebrating and old and young alike joined in the happy throng. "Old timers" declared the crowds on the streets were the largest in years and the spirit of the day seemed to carry to every quarter of the city, as rich and poor, white and black, made up the host of pleasure seekers.

(Unusual Athletic Star. (By the Associated Press.)

Raleigh, Nov. 1.—An unusual athletic star has been seen this season on the local gridiron and has starred in many games despite his physical handicap. The left tackle of the Methodist orphanage team, though a one-legged boy, is considered one of the best men on the team.

Armistice Proclamation Issued By the Governor.

Raleigh, Oct. 31.—Governor Morrison today issued an Armistice Day proclamation, as follows: "Under the provisions of chapter 287 of the public laws of 1919, it became the duty of the governor annually to proclaim and set aside November 11, Armistice Day, as a legal holiday. This year this date falls on Sunday. "Now, therefore, I, Cameron Morrison, Governor of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim and set aside Monday, November 12, 1923, as a legal holiday, commemorating the signing of the armistice, and I earnestly call upon the people of the state to observe it with appropriate exercises, not in a boastful spirit, but with gratitude to the God of nations who brought us through the conflict victorious, because the fight was a just one."

President Had Better Take a Hand If Treasury Is Doing the Best It Can. Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 31.—Governor Pinchot in a letter last night to Secretary Mellon, characterized as a "defense of things as they are," the Secretary's reply to the Governor's letter Sunday criticizing the Federal prohibition enforcement system. What is needed, he said, "is not a defense of present evils, but the determination to abate them, followed by effective action."

Great Britain Agrees to Searching of Run Runners Off Shores of America. London, Oct. 31.—The run-running issue between the American and British governments which Ambassador Harvey in his conferences with British officials repeatedly characterized as a dangerous menace to the existing good relation of the two countries virtually has been settled.

On the occasion of his formal farewell visit to the foreign office the retiring American envoy and Foreign Secretary Curzon gave final consideration to the terms of a draft treaty which it is believed will clear up the whole question. The treaty is understood to meet the American desire for the right to search suspected run running vessels beyond the three-mile limit but at the same time gives to Great Britain America's formal affirmation of the three-mile limit as governing British maritime rights generally. It would also allow British ships to carry liquor into American territorial waters under seal, thus enabling liners enroute to and after departing from American ports.
