LOCAL MENTION

An important meeting of Stokes Lodge No. 32 A. F. & A. M. will be held tonight at the club rooms at 7:30 o'clock.

The Bethel Community Club will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday night. Prof. Robertson will make an address on the special school tax.

One case of chicken pox was the only new case of disease of any kind reported to the county health department for over the week-end.

The King's Daughters will meet tonight at 7 o'clock at the home of Miss Jamie Klutze on Church street. Please note the change in the hour.

Stokes Lodge No. 32 A. F. & A. M. will hold its regular communication tonight (Monday) at 7:30 o'clock. All members requested to attend, and visitors are welcomed.

Mrs. Jennie Praetor is confined to her home on East Depot street on account of illness. Her condition during the past several days has not been so favorable, it is reported.

Leander, son of Mr. Berry Nash, accidentally wounded himself Friday while handling a pistol. The gun was discharged, the bullet lodging in one of Leander's feet. An X-ray picture was made to locate the bullet, which was later removed.

There will be a regular meeting of the Fred Y. McConnell Post of the American Legion in the club rooms tomorrow (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock. At the meeting officers for the ensuing year will be elected, and it is important that all members be present.

The public should keep in mind the fact that the proceeds from the sale of Forget-Me-Nots will be devoted to the relief of the wounded and afflicted soldiers at Oteen. The price is not limited and you can pay as much as you will, but nothing less than 10 cents is expected.

J. C. five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Taylor, of No. 11 township, died Saturday at 12 o'clock, noon, death being caused by pneumonia and other diseases. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Salisbury, and interment was made in the cemetery there.

Eleven cases were on docket for trial in recorder's court this morning. Three of the defendants were charged with intoxication or having liquor; and three others were charged with violating traffic laws. None of the cases were considered serious and court was not in session but a short time.

A charter has been issued by the Secretary of State to the Cash Feed Store of this city. The incorporators are Grover Creech, W. T. Wall and Clarence Bost, all of whom will be associated with the store which will be located on Church street in the building formerly occupied by the Dutch Lunch. The new store will sell feeds and seeds and will open about November 15th.

The county commissioners held a short meeting at the court house this morning. The regular meeting was postponed out of respect to Mr. W. D. Harry, member of the board, who died this morning. The board will meet again this week to transact regular business, that was expected to be transacted today. The board will also meet in the near future to choose a successor to Mr. Harry.

A Concord man who claims to have kept tract of weather conditions, stated this morning that the first all-day rain since April fell here yesterday. There have been heavy showers on a number of days, he pointed out, but until yesterday there had not been a day since last April that the rain fell without interruption. The rain was general throughout the State, judging from reports from all sections.

Football games affecting State teams followed the dope Saturday. North Carolina defeated South Carolina; State defeated Davidson and Trinity defeated Elon. In the South Washington and Lee won from Virginia; Georgia won from Auburn and Alabama and Georgia Tech played a scoreless tie. In the East Yale defeated the Army; Dartmouth was defeated by Cornell and Syracuse defeated Penn State.

Marriage licenses have been issued to the following couples by Register of Deeds Elliott: Lee Furr and Miss Essie Talbert, both of Concord; Ernest Taylor, of Charlotte, and Miss Dessie Warren, of Kannapolis; Bernice M. Hurlocker and Miss Ellen Shor, both of Mt. Pleasant; Clyde R. Mingers and Miss Ivan Clawson, both of Kannapolis; and Ben R. Ewing and Miss Georgia Russel, both of Kannapolis.

Miss Ella Summey died Saturday in Charlotte from injuries received several months ago when she is alleged to have been struck by an auto. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon and the body was sent to Asheville for interment. Miss Summey was a cousin of Mr. D. B. Morrison, Miss Lou Stuart and Mrs. H. I. Woodhouse, of this city, and Miss Stuart and Mr. Woodhouse attended the funeral in Charlotte.

Slippery roads caused a number of accidents on Cabarrus county roads Sunday, say reports reaching this city. One Concord man returning from Charlotte late yesterday afternoon stated that he passed six cars either in ditches or damaged by collision with other cars. On the Mt. Pleasant road two cars collided and both were damaged, although occupants escaped injury. One of the wrecks on the Charlotte road was on a bridge, it was stated, indicating that the cars were wrecked when each driver tried to get to the bridge first.

Tom Sims Says

Never steal an overcoat. A New York man did it and was caught. He won't need one for 60 days.

Our country is planning a foreign policy. We suggest honesty. Honesty is the best foreign policy.

News from Paris. Old race horse given new glands. They should have used liver glands.

Armistice Day is coming. Armistice begins at home. Why not sign an armistice with your wife?

New York detective caught six crooks at one time. Thick as they are he should have gotten a dozen.

Charming news for the little girls today. Modern surgery can make all boys grow six feet tall.

War for 30 years is predicted in Europe. It can't happen. Cigarettes would not last 30 years.

Divorce is increasing in Germany, showing they still have money.

Perhaps a man smiles when a girl puts aim on the head because that is his funny bone.

Nothing makes you see things in a different light like the harvest moon.

The nice thing about a farmer is you never have to leave home to go to the country.

The great handicap about being a grand opera singer is getting born in some foreign country.

When a man goes to the dogs many of his friends bark at him.

The trouble with a cut-rate barber shop is the rate is usually about two cents per minute.

A false alarm to a boy is when a house next to the school burns.

Berne has the reputation of being the most honest town in Switzerland. It is said that in many years not a single article of value has been lost within the city without being recovered.

Buy This $1.25 Weather House For Only 85c, Enter Our Guessing Contest and Win a $15.00 Cash Prize.

We have placed in our show window 125 of these Weather Houses, and with them a 50 lb. pumpkin. With each house sold we give you a free guess at the number of seeds this pumpkin contains.

When they are all sold the pumpkin will be cut and the seeds carefully counted and the person guessing the correct number of seeds will be given $15 in cash.

If two or more guess correctly the money will be divided equally.

If no one guesses correctly the one guessing nearest correct will be given the prize.

This house is size 6 1-2x 8 1-2 inches. When the weather is to be fine the woman will be out. When stormy weather is approaching the man with his umbrella will come out from 8 to 24 hours ahead of rain or snow. Hurry up if you want one.
