W. S. COBURN SHOT TO DEATH BY PHILIP FOX

Fox is Editor of the Klan Paper, Knight Hawk—Coburn a Simmonian Man.

Atlanta, Nov. 5.—Philip E. Fox, publicity man for the Ku Klux Klan, late today shot and killed W. S. Coburn, Atlanta attorney and counsel for the faction fighting Imperial Wizard W. H. Evans and other officials of the order. Fox is held at police headquarters without bond under a charge of murder.

Coburn, a former official of the Klan, and later legal representative of what is called the insurgent faction, was shot five times as he sat in his office on the ninth floor of the Atlanta Trust Company building. He toppled over dead.

Mrs. W. A. Holdbrook, stenographer for Coburn, said that Fox came in while Coburn was talking to a client and began firing when he was told to come back in about an hour. She said five shots were fired. Three of them were said to have taken effect.

When taken in custody Fox is quoted as saying: "I am sorry to have had to do it, but I am glad he is dead. He was planning to ruin me, and I had just as soon be hung as hurt. What I did has no connection with the Ku Klux Klan. Coburn had threatened to ruin me and to publish affidavits affecting my character that were untrue."

At police headquarters Fox denied any connection with the Ku Klux Klan, giving his occupation as a clerk. He was identified by newspapermen as the publicity agent for the Ku Klux Klan and police said he is the editor of the Knight Hawk, official organ of the imperial palace of the Ku Klux Klan.

Dr. Fred B. Johnson, of San Antonio, Texas, who is visiting at the home of W. J. Simmons, emperor of the Klan, told the police that Fox came to Simmons' home last night. Dr. Johnson said that Morris A. Moore, a member of the Texas rangers, also visiting Colonel Simmons, was present at the time. Col. Simmons being in Alabama. Johnson declared Fox told him that he had severed his connection with the faction of Imperial Wizard Evans and that he had come to Johnson for the purpose of revealing some information. Dr. Johnson said he noticed Fox kept his right hand in his overcoat pocket and he, Johnson, backed Fox into a corner and took a pistol away from him.

"He then told me," said Dr. Johnson, "he had been sent there to kill me, but he didn't say by whom. He said, however, I had talked him out of it. When he left me he told me he was going back to Texas on Monday night, and appeared to be disgusted with the whole situation."

W. P. Nelson Buried in Davie. Salisbury, Nov. 5.—William Prosser Nelson, aged 74, who died at the home of a daughter at Jackson, Tenn., was buried today at the old Hobson family burying grounds near Jerusalem, in Davie county. Mr. Nelson lived in Rowan as a boy and later went to Alabama where he became a big cotton planter. He married the widow of John M. Hobson. She died some years ago.

PASTORS PLACED BY METHODIST PROTESTANT CONFERENCE

Extension Budget $10,000 While the Superannate Fund is Increased to $5,000.

Thomasville, Nov. 5.—The 98th annual session North Carolina Methodist Protestant Conference, in session at the new community church since last Wednesday morning came to a close at 4:45 o'clock this afternoon following the reading of the stationing committee's report. Reidsville was this morning selected as the place for the next meeting.

The conference at the morning session voted to increase the church extension budget to $10,000, while the superannate fund was increased to $5,000.

The conference faculty in a report made this afternoon recommended that young men entering the ministry be required to study the conference theological course before being assigned to pastorate.

The new college enterprise of the denomination has been given considerable attention at this session of the annual conference. At a previous session of the conference last week Dr. Andrews presented his annual report as financial agent and director of the campaign to raise funds for the institution, which showed the progress made during the past year. The report indicated that a total of about $220,000 of the goal of $300,000 had been secured in pledges and cash payments. More than 7,000 people made subscriptions to the college building fund to the present time. Dr. Andrews will labor for the college again next year and he states that the program of the campaign calls for finishing the present campaign for $30,000 by Christmas of this year. The report of the financial agent showed that one-fourth of the pastoral charges in the conference had raised their quota in the campaign, and the remaining three-fourths of the charges will be canvassed, a house-to-house canvass being planned among those charges not attaining to their goals. It is expected that the various pastoral charges that have not raised their quotas will "go over the top" and thus assure the "conditional Wills gift of $100,000. When the goal in the campaign is reached, and the Wills gift secured, the college enterprise will have a total in assets of approximately $645,000, including the endowment fund.

The following are some of the appointments: Albemarle—J. L. Trolinger. Anderson—E. G. Lowdermilk. Charlotte—H. F. Surratt. Concord—To be supplied. Fairview—J. H. Bowman. In hands of president, B. M. Loy, J. B. Sisk, T. E. Martin, R. E. Andrews, G. C. Baker, M. L. Moore.

The International Typographical Union is to build an addition to the Union Printers' Home, at Colorado Springs, at a cost of $300,000.

STRICKEN LION OF S STREET IS STILL A POWER

Big Delegation to Call on Wilson at His Home Sunday, Armistice Day, Mostly of Women.

H. E. C. Bryant in Charlotte Observer. Washington, Nov. 5.—Keen interest is manifested here in the announcement that former President Wilson will broadcast some views next Saturday night, and will receive a delegation next Sunday, Armistice Day. A daughter of Bernard M. Baruch is engineering the radio program with Tuston Thompson, one of the leaders of the Wilson administration, and Mrs. H. E. C. Bryant, an ardent Wilson supporter, co-operating.

The Stricken Lion of S Street is still a power in the land. He has a great personal following, made up largely of people with true hearts, and enthusiastic democrats without any axes to grind. One has but to visit Keith's theater here on Saturday to realize that Mr. Wilson is very popular, and still dangerous to impostors. One of the greatest crowds ever assembled at a private residence will gather in the streets about the Wilson home Sunday. People are flocking into the city from out of town communities to be there on that occasion. Mrs. Wilson has promised a few remarks from her distinguished husband. The popularity of Mr. Wilson is still discouraging to republicans and a few democratic aspirants here and there. Senator Shields, of Tennessee, would be glad to use Mr. Wilson in his fight for re-election, but the ex-President has branded him in a way that he cannot do it. Others would like to boast of the political support of Mr. Wilson but dare not. Politicians have very little to do with Mr. Wilson. They could not use him while he was in the White House, and they would like for him to remain silent now. Therefore, the promise of an utterance this week is causing much concern and comment here.

The republicans are afraid of their foreign relations record. They have no definite policy, but have switched about from position to position, trying to keep clear of the path marked out by Mr. Wilson. They would rather he would keep his own counsel.
