TIRES! TIRES! TIRES!

Just Received New Shipment of Holyoke and Gotham Tires! We have absolutely got the best tire that we have ever sold. We are not merely taking a salesman's word for this statement. We have tested and proven to ourselves that the Holyoke and Gotham tires will stand a test with any tire on the market today. They are not Cheap Tires. They are hand made and every ounce of cotton in them is long staple cotton. The rubber and friction stock is the very best and it is properly cured. You will agree with us when you try a set of these tires. As a special inducement to you on these tires we are going to offer them for a limited time only at 10 per cent below our regular retail price which is astonishingly low for these high grade tires. Put a set on your car and test them with any tire on the market. They are guaranteed for 6,000 and 10,000 miles of good service. All we ask is that you try one set.

LOCAL MENTION

There will be preaching at Center Methodist Church, No. 11 township, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Part of the household effects of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Cannon and children, who leave soon for Charlotte, where they will make their home, were carried to Charlotte yesterday and today.

"Uncle Joe" White is confined to his room at the home of Mrs. L. P. Davis, where he boards, by illness. He has been suffering for the past two weeks with asthma and has been quite ill.

One case of diphtheria was the only new case of disease of any kind reported to the county health department yesterday, according to a statement made by the department this morning.

The fire department was called to a garage at Forest Hill this morning shortly after 8 o'clock but the blaze was out before the company could reach the garage. The blaze was only a small one and caused practically no damage.

Dr. P. R. MacFadyen left last night for Washington to attend the sessions of the Southern Medical Association. From Washington he will go to New York City to take postgraduate work for about ten days.

Rev. A. D. Shelton, who has been pastor of the First Methodist Protestant Church here for the past four years, is today moving with his family to Nile City, where he was assigned at the last conference as pastor of the church there.

Marriage licenses have been issued by Register of Deeds Elliott to the following couples: Carl Williams, of Concord, Route 6, and Miss Essie Linker, of Harrisburg Route 3; William S. Honeycutt and Miss Marjorie Dayvault, both of Kannapolis.

Relatives here have been advised that the condition of Mrs. R. E. Stewart, who underwent a very serious operation in a Charlotte hospital Tuesday, continues to show improvement. Mrs. Stewart was carried to Charlotte Sunday, and the message to relatives stated that she had a very good night.

The marriage license business has been good during the past year, according to figures announced by the Register of Deeds' office. So far 350 licenses have been issued since December 1st, 1922, the fiscal year in this business beginning December 1st. Less than 300 licenses were issued last year.

The Cabarrus County fair ground has been closed for the winter. With the staging of the colored fair early this month the last fair of the year was offered, and unless football games are staged at the ground by the high school team, it will not be used again this winter.

Mr. Franklin Cannon, son of Mrs. Mattie Lee Cannon, has been in an Asheville hospital for some time following an operation for appendicitis. He became ill while attending school at Hendersonville and was carried to the Asheville hospital. Mrs. Cannon spent several weeks in Asheville with him, and his condition is now very satisfactory.

The condition of Mr. W. A. Foll, who underwent an operation for appendicitis in a Charlotte hospital yesterday, continues to show improvement, according to a message relatives here received from the hospital this morning. Mrs. Foll spent yesterday in Charlotte with Mr. Foll and went over again today to be with him.

Everything is in readiness for the grand opera to be given here tomorrow evening by artists of national reputation. The concert will be given in Central Graded School and the artists who will take part are expected to arrive in Concord tomorrow morning. The entertainment promises to be one of the most interesting ever held in Concord.

The Parks-Bell Company is making plans now for a big toy department. The new department will be located in the large basement of the store, which is now being fitted up to take care of the thousands of toys which will be purchased by the company. The toy department in the store under plans made by the management.

Mrs. F. W. Starnes died at her home here yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. She was 19 years of age and is survived by her husband, mother, Mrs. Nancy Lamb, two brothers, John Lamb, of Brooklyn, and Jesse Lamb, of Mt. Airy; and three sisters, Mrs. Beale Means, of Concord, and Mrs. Rufus New and Mrs. Wiley Davis, of Virginia. No funeral arrangements have yet been made.

Miss Laney Miller, daughter of Mrs. Floy Miller, of this city, and stenographer in the office of the Wiscasset Mills at Albemarle, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Concord Hospital last night at 6 o'clock. Miss Miller has been ill for about a week and as her condition did not show improvement she entered the hospital here late yesterday afternoon. Her condition today is reported as favorable.

Truck Driver Killed When Trucks Collide

Newton, Nov. 14.—Two big White trucks of the Harris Construction Company, building the hard surface road from Newton to Lincolnton, had a head-on collision this afternoon and Oscar Sherrill, a young white man of Hickory, driving one of the trucks, was instantly killed. His head was crushed by striking the hard road surface. The accident occurred at the curve on the hill east of the creek near Matthews' camp ground, three miles below Maiden.

Patience, and the mulberry tent becomes a silk gown.

Tom Sims Says

A white crow captured in Denver is causing much comment. Perhaps it is a 1924 model.

Autos cost the U. S. over five billion dollars a year, which is even more than a movie star makes.

The low value of German marks will build a strong race. It takes about two men to carry a dollar.

Some people seem to have money to burn. In Atlantic City, a man lit cigarettes with $10 bills.

Cougars are killing deer in Washington state. As they have no hunting license something may be done.

News from South Africa. They have started playing golf. This is real golf, not African golf.

Phil Sheffall has retired. Phil was a Pullman porter 14 years, which is a lot of arguing.

While a Boston boy of 13 has entered college, we'll bet he is behind with his enjoying life.

Jonathan Folk, of Los Angeles, is 100 and goes visiting, so Jonathan is not the old folk at home.

A Lincoln (Nebr.) man, probably fisherman or gaffer, claims his cane is a million years old.

About 20 men robbed two banks in Spencer, Ind., without waiting to become cashiers.

A hen in Amherst, Mass., laid 302 eggs in one year, probably laying off Sundays and 11 holidays.

Rockefeller's grand-nephew has become a bank clerk. Well, he should know all about counting money.

News from Hawaii. Milkmen are delivering in airplanes. Strikes us as being a fine way to churn.

Seattle man had his dog's teeth filled with gold, so he probably hates to bite a cat with them.

VENETIAN HAND CREAM

Is splendid for the hands as they require protection as well as the face, being constantly in contact with roughening or irritating substances. Venetian Hand Cream used after each washing with June Geranium Soap overcomes the harmful effects of germs and other impurities. Hand Cream used in conjunction with Bleachine Cream keeps the hands smooth, plump and white. Hand Cream is also recommended for men as it is found delightfully soothing after shaving. Price $1.00.
