

IF DEMOCRATS PICK FORD, WALL STREET BETS HE WILL DEFEAT COOLIDGE

BY ALEXANDER HERMAN
NEA Service Staff Writer.

New York, Nov. 17.—This is what the big betters of Wall Street think of the forthcoming Presidential election:

1. President Coolidge is an odds-on favorite, not only for the Republican nomination, but for election—1 to 3 on the nomination, and 1 to 2 on the election.

2. Ford is the only man who is believed to have a chance of defeating Coolidge—but he must get the democratic nomination to do it.

3. The odds against Ford's getting the Democratic nomination are 4 to 1.

4. But if Ford is the Democratic nominee, he will become the odds-on favorite against Coolidge at 2 to 3.

5. If, however, Ford runs on a third ticket, Ford and Coolidge will be at even money; with the odds in each case at 2 to 3 against the field, and the Democratic nominee running 5 to 1.

These views do not necessarily reflect the political sentiment of Wall Street, but they do reflect its betting judgment as voiced by Jean De Chadenes, a Wall Street broker who, together with his brother Guy, have handled some of the largest political bets made during the past ten years.

Many big wagers have already been made, the largest being a bet of $400,000 that Henry Ford will not be the next president. Lloyds of London has taken the long end of the bet, by issuing two $200,000 insuring his defeat; and a big western operator who has won millions in his time, is covering the short end by paying the premium of $38,000.

Other heavy wagers are underway. And Wall Street, which believes itself to be the pulse not only of Big Business, but of National Politics, is beginning to perk up interest in the election.

"As the stock market forecasts future business conditions," said De Chadenes in an exclusive interview with NEA Service for The Tribune, "just so does Wall Street predict the political situa-

"WORSE THAN PAIN"

Louisiana Lady Says She Has "Never Found Anything Better Than Cardui for a Run-Down Condition."

Morgan City, La.—"It would be hard for me to tell how much benefit I have derived from the use of Cardui," said Mrs. I. G. Bowman, of 1319 Front Street, this city.

"I was so run-down in health I could hardly go. I was thin. I had no appetite. Could not rest or sleep well. I was so weak, and so very nervous, I was no pleasure to myself.

"I suffered some pain, but the worst of my trouble was from being so weak and easy to get tired and out of heart.

"This nervous condition was worse than pain.

"Some one told me of Cardui, and I decided to use it.

"After using a few bottles, I regained my strength. I wasn't so nervous, and began to eat and sleep, and grew stronger and was soon well.

"I have never found anything better for a run-down condition."

If you suffer as this Louisiana lady did, you, too, should find Cardui helpful for your troubles.

Clean Kidneys By Drinking Lots of Water

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers or Back Hurts

Eating too much rich food may produce kidney trouble in some form, says a well-known authority, because the acids created excite the kidneys. Then they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, begin drinking lots of good water and also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to neutralize the acids in the system so that they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts can not injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

WHY NOT LISTEN TO SOUTH AMERICA?

Schubert Family Quartet.

Schubert enjoyed the privilege of having a string quartet in his own family, in which he played viola, his brother Ferdinand first violin, Ignaz the second violin, the father the cello. Schubert's father was none too accurate in his playing in the family quartet. When he made a blunder the son would carefully examine the manuscript and say "Dear father, there must be a mistake in the music somewhere."

Chinese Are Everywhere.

Wherever one goes, one finds a Chinese. In Chile, in South America, he labors in the copper mines; in Russia he acts as executioner for the Bolsheviks; in London he is a tea merchant; in Paris, New York, Chicago, San Francisco he has an opium joint; in the Philippine islands he is a merchant prince, and all over the world he is a laundryman.

Even in Society.

Yes, even society folk learn the gentle art of self-protection. Donald McLean Wylie, son of Edward A. Gill Wylie of Lawrence, L. I., is shown throwing his instructor Carl R. Temple in an exhibition wrestling match.
