How to Put Dollars in the Milk Pail

"It's a Good Feed But I Can't Afford to Feed It"

Because Cow Chow is fed on the farms of so many prosperous dairymen, some people feel that it is a "rich man's feed" and not for the man who has to make his cows support him.

You don't run across many well-to-do or wealthy men who aren't good business men and don't get the very most of every dollar. The big idea all over the Purina Mills from laboratory to mixer is "lower the cost of production."

Feed Purina Cow Chow in the checkerboard bags, and watch the extra dollars in the milk pail. Call for Mr. Davis for demonstration at the.

Mr. Jackson Hathecock, whose home was formerly in this section, died Friday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jno. Little, near Brief, where he had been for the past several years. His wife preceded him just three years ago. Mr. Hathecock was past his three score and ten and not far from the century line. In his day he had been very industrious and economical. He is served by two sons, A. M. and D. M. Hathecock, and three daughters, Mrs. Hettie Little, Mrs. M. A. Herrin and Mrs. John Little. Burial service took place Saturday morning at Meadow Creek church cemetery.

In the death last Monday of Mr. Jas. S. Teeter the community lost one of its best citizens and the Baptist Church one of its most loyal members. He always showed the true Christian spirit, living it daily. He was a little past 64 years of age and is survived by his wife, two daughters, one brother and three sisters. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon from the Baptist Church by Revs. W. J. Russell and C. C. Honeycutt. The final offerings attested the esteem in which he was held, the mound being several by lovely designs.

GOVERNOR DISCUSSING SANATORIUM SITUATION

Held Conference During Day With Dr. T. M. W. Long and Senator Harrison.

Raleigh N. C., Nov. 26.—Governor Cameron Morrison was in consultation early this afternoon with Dr. T. M. W. Long, chairman of the board of directors of State Sanatorium, and Senator Ed. Harrison, of Richmond County, a member of the board, the conference being relative to the situation at the Sanatorium brought by the conviction of Dr. L. B. McBrayer, superintendent, on a charge of trading with himself. Dr. McBrayer was removed from his position by Judge N. A. Sinclair, in Superior Court and Governor Morrison wrote Dr. Long that in his opinion the directors should take immediate action.
