BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

CURSING OR BLESSING.—Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the Lord.

THE PRESIDENT SPEAKS

At last the political enemies of President Coolidge have secured a declaration of policy from him.

When Mr. Harding died Mr. Coolidge stated that as far as possible he was going to follow the Harding policies in his administration.

Four important matters were discussed by the President in his address, along with many others of not so great importance.

There are those who believe the President will not be nominated by the Republicans, so great is sentiment in many quarters for the bonus.

On the other hand there are many persons who declare reduction of taxes is more important than the bonus.

President Coolidge has spoken now, and regardless of the merits of his policies his address will bring forth comments from all parts of the country.

The real strength of the Legion and other veterans' organizations which favor the bonus will be brought out now.

TAX CUTS NOT MADE AT SCHOOL EXPENSE

Education Week Credited For the Victory. Washington, Dec. 6 (Capital News Service).—With the cry for tax reduction and retrenchment of expenditures heard from end to end of the nation, it was expected that as new town and county budgets were made up, schools would suffer, for it is most often in the school house that the first cut is felt.

Dr. John J. Tigert, United States Commissioner of Education, says: "The worst is over and the schools have won. The move for drastic retrenchment, which included school budgets, is growing less and the agricultural sections of the West and South are recovering slowly from financial depression."

"I am getting reports from all sections of the country that bond issues are being voted to improve the schools and efforts are being made to increase teachers' salaries. For example, Rapides Parish, in Louisiana, which I visited recently has voted a bond issue of $1,250,000 for its schools. This is a good record for a rural district of the South."

"The South has made comparatively greater progress in its schools than any other section of the country in the past two or three years. It is rapidly catching up with other sections. The interests of southern states have been thoroughly aroused, and they are setting about to solve problems of administration and financing which formerly were ignored."

"The Western states have adopted, to a great extent, the desirable plan of large state appropriations; for example, $30 for each school child. This is an excellent way of reducing the differential in educational opportunity between the country and the city child. It means advantages for rural schools which the local population are unable to furnish, through lack of funds."

Express Safe and $8,000 Are Taken. Norfolk, Dec. 6. A lone bandit tonight robbed the express car of the Norfolk and Western Cannon Ball train, operating between Norfolk and Richmond, of a safe said to contain $8,000 in currency. The robbery occurred as the train was pulling out of Waverly, Virginia, about dusk. The bandit boarded the train at Waverly and proceeded immediately to the express car.

PRESIDENT OF A. A. U. W. BACKS EDUCATION BILL

The University Women Are a Unit Behind the Measure. Washington, Dec. 6 (Capital News Service).—The newly elected president of the American Association of University Women stands squarely behind the Education bill, as do all the members of the great organizations which she heads.

"The problem of college women is to justify their training by applying it in a practical way to national questions. This problem has two aspects—one faces the home, the center of national life, the other the national program, economic and political. Efficient home management leads inevitably to thoughtful consideration of the second aspect."

"Education will, of course, remain always the first interest of the association. Just now its members are particularly interested in the study of the elementary school child. We have taken a firm stand for the creation of a separate department of education, with a cabinet officer at its head. We do not want to see education submerged in any other department. We are not in favor of including it as a subordinate bureau of the proposed department of public welfare, and we will oppose such a move when it comes before Congress."

At the time of the recent eclipse of the sun, September 10, along the southern coast of California, there were on the State Highway 140 miles of automobiles, packed closely together. The occupants were journeying from Los Angeles to San Diego and Tia Juana, Mexico, to see the total eclipse. Traffic moved at six miles an hour and 1,000 arrests were made for cutting out of line and endangering others on the Torrey Pines Grade, just out of San Diego. Gasoline stations were drained early in the day and fuel was sold for forty cents a gallon instead of fifteen cents.

DINNER STORIES

A drummer said to a waitress bald: "My dear young lady, my cocoa is cold."

She artfully replied: "I can't help that. If the blamed thing is cold, put on your hat."

Lazy Mike: "I have a new position with the railroad company." Weary Rhodes: "What is it?" Lazy Mike: "You know the fellow that goes alongside the train and taps the axles to see if everything's all right? Well, I help him listen."

A fiver had broken down on the road. It's irate owner approached an onlooker on the sidewalk and said: "Hey, you! Do you know anything about this car?"

The onlooker replied: "Only a lot of bum jokes!"—The Come Back.

"Don't all those papers make you tired?" asked a kindly citizen of a newsboy who was struggling along under a tremendous bundle of dailies just off the press. "Nah," replied the youth, "I ain't got to read 'em."

A girl of eight entered a store in a small town and said: "I want some cloth to make my doll's dress."

The merchant selected some and handed the child the package. "How much is it?" she asked. "Just one kiss," was the reply. "All right," said the child, as she turned to go. "Grandma said to tell you she would pay you when she came in tomorrow."

Little Jack Cooper had been hearing his father, Legionnaire Herbert Cooper, boast of his automobile and its ability to climb the steepest hills. At supper a few nights ago Jack astonished his father by saying: "Papa, does the Lord own an automobile too?" "Great Scott, no son, whatever put that into your head?" "Well," answered Jack, "in Sunday school we had a hymn that went: 'If I love Him, when I die He will take me home on high.'"

Little Hans had been kept from school for a few days, and when he went back the teacher told him to go home and get an excuse for having been away. Here is what his mother wrote to the teacher: "Please excuse me for keeping Hans home, because I had twins a few days ago, but it shan't happen again."
