Judge Lane asserted that he intended to punish such violations with jail or road sentences and that when he goes to Guilford, Davidson and States counties after the first of the year to hold court, he expects to follow out this policy. Judge Lane referred particularly to the class of automobiles designated as jitneys which operate on the roads between several North Carolina cities.

"GREEN STOCKINGS" PLAYED TO DELIGHTED AUDIENCE

Play Given Under Auspices of the Library Association Pleas Large Audience. "Green Stockings," a clever play cleverly presented by Concord people, takes rank with the best of the home-talents Concord people have seen in recent years. The play was presented Friday evening at Central Grade School under the auspices of the Concord Library Association and officers of the association stated this morning that $151.90 was taken in. The money will be spent by the association in its work for the Concord library.

Several stars appeared in the cast of "Green Stockings" and while they received the greater applause each of the persons in the show was well received and the entire cast was as good as any seen here in years. To Miss Ruth Dey, who directed the play, belongs much credit for the success of the show.

Mrs. Gale Pickard, favorite with all Concord audiences, was never better than in the role of Mrs. Chesholm Paraday which "Green Stockings" offered her. The role suited Mrs. Pickard and it is hard to picture a professional playing it better. Miss Margaret Bell and Miss Dorothy Wolf also received much applause, as did Hinton McLeod, Ben White, L. T. Hartsell, Jr., Miss Helen Marsh, Miss Ruth Crowell and others who had important parts in the play.

The program follows: Admiral Grice, a testy old gentleman with the manner of a sea dog—Mr. Hinton McLeod. William Faraday, fashionable, superficial and thoroughly selfish—Ben White. Colonel Smith—a dignified, dryly humorous man of military bearing—Luther T. Hartsell, Jr. Robert Tarver, an empty headed young man—Wallace Moore. Henry Steele, James Raleigh, friends of the family—Clarence Ridenhour and Joe Barrier. Martin, a dignified family servant—William Barahardt. Olla Faraday, an unaffected young girl of 29 with a sense of humor—Margaret Bell.

Madge (Mrs. Rockingham) and Evelyn (Lady Trinchard), handsome, well dressed, fashionable women of 25 and 27 respectively—Ruth Crowell, Helen Marsh. Phyllis, the youngest sister, a charming and pretty, but thoughtlessly selfish girl of 20—Dorothy Wolf. Mrs. Chesholm Faraday (Aunt Ida), a florid, quick tempered, warm-hearted woman—Mrs. Nan Pickard.

An Hour of Music, Sunday Afternoon.

The addition to the organ of St. James Lutheran Church has been completed and will be formally opened with musical Sunday afternoon at 3:30. Mr. Samuel Goodman, who will preside at the organ, will be assisted by Mrs. Lila Rozzell Kneebel, and Mrs. H. G. Gibson. Mrs. Kneebel, who is the possessor of a remarkable soprano voice, has recently completed a year's engagement at the Criterion Theatre, New York. Her appearance in Concord will be a feature in the musical life of Concord.

Mrs. Gibson, who is a well known soprano, of Concord, needs no introduction to Concord audiences. The following program will be given:

- Prelude—Wagner. Aria—Wagner. Romance—Thomas. Dies Irae—Goodman-Verdi. a. Lord Have Mercy b. Day of Anger. Hark the Trumpet. Soprano Solo: The Awakening—Kramer. Duet: I Waited For the Lord—Mendelssohn. Solo: Come Unto Me—Handel. Souvenir—Dria. Grand March—Wagner.

Way of the Transgressor Is Hard.

The Stanley News-Herald. Fred Long, a young married man, is no doubt, convinced that "the way of the transgressor is hard." He was convicted for violating the law against immorality, and was sentenced to serve four months on the county chain gang. Long, it seems, persuaded a very young girl to leave home last Sunday. The couple were located in Thomasville Monday, arrested and brought back to Albemarle where they were given a hearing Wednesday morning before Judge Ingram. The punishment accorded Long goes to show that our courts, as well as public sentiment, have decided to do their part to stamp out the too prevalent practice of immorality now going on. In the past the public seems to have been satisfied in such cases to let the woman bear her shame through life while the man in the case got away without punishment. But the thinking people have opened their eyes to the seriousness of the situation, and mature men who, in the future, influence young girls into ways of immorality, are going to learn that they are engaged in a dangerous business.

Letter From Mr. John R. Elkins. St. Petersburg, Fla., Dec. 12, 1923. 597 11th Avenue, South.

Friend Sherrill: Eternal sunshine and citrus fruits and flowers galore. I have been home four weeks. Many thousands of tourists are here and they keep on coming. They come on trains, autos, etc. But the peak of the season will not be reached before the 15th of February. I have never travelled extensively but will say there is not and could not be a prettier and more lovely city than St. Petersburg, Fla. Respectfully, JNO. R. ELKINS.

At the Theatres.

Dustin Farnum is being offered again today at the Piedmont in the big western feature, "Kentucky Days." The Star today is offering a drama, a serial and a comedy. "The Steel Trail and "Stolen Gold," two unusually good pictures, are being offered today at the Pastime.

Report of Prindle's Arrest as Error. Stanley News-Herald.

"Prof." Alan Prindle, late a vice teacher with offices in Albemarle and Concord, and who married a Statesville lady, he already having had a multiplicity of wives, is reported as having been arrested. Must have been very humiliating to see "the" a gentleman.

MT. PLEASANT NEWS

Many Holiday Activities.—Christian Pageant on the 18th.—Annual Debate.

Mt. Pleasant, Dec. 14.—Again we desire to let our Charlotte and other friends know that we are very much "on the map," as we are still wide awake and full of activities in advance of the Christmas holidays. These latter will begin at noon on Thursday, the 20th, and end at noon on January 3rd, 1924, when nearly 300 students of Mount Amoena Seminary and Mt. Pleasant Collegiate Institute will be privileged to enjoy two full weeks of pleasant intercourse with dear ones at home and their friends. During this holiday season Rev. Prof. and Mrs. C. I. T. Fisher will have with them, at the Seminary, their daughter, Miss Pauline Fisher, dean of the girls' department of the Lynchburg, Va., High School, and their son, Mr. Homer Fisher, a rising young lawyer of Jacksonville Fla. Rev. Prof. and Mrs. J. H. C. Fisher will also have as their guests over the holidays in the role of Mrs. Chesholm Paraday which "Green Stockings" offered her. A member of the Senior Class of Marion Female College, Marion Va., and the Misses Ethel and Bettie Williams, the former a teacher in a Concord school, and the latter a student at the North Carolina College for Women, in Greensboro.

The beautiful operetta, "The Love Pirates of Hawaii," was splendidly rendered Thursday night by the chorus class of the Seminary and the Glee Club of the M. P. C. I. at the auditorium, which was comfortably filled with an appreciative audience. The music was very attractive and tuneful and its rendition showed careful training. The acting of some of the characters evinced real dramatic talent, especially the fierce pirate captain and his execrating funny crew, who were dressed entirely in true pirate fashion, captured several prisoners, and were themselves captured by the maiden lady teacher, Miss Primer, and sent into her kitchen to act as cooks, having donned cook aprons and caps. Quite a nice sum was realized for the athletic association of the Seminary.

Friday night, the 14th, the students of the music department of the Seminary rendered their mid-winter recital, under the supervision of the Director, Miss Helen Misenbauer, of Winston-Salem. Without particularizing, all the number were ably presented and highly appreciated by the audience.

On Tuesday evening, the 18th, members of the senior class at the Seminary will give a Christmas pageant in the chapel of the Institution, to which all friends are cordially invited. This will be under the able direction of Miss Amy Louise Fisher. All during the day the teachers and students will pack a Christmas box for the children at the Lutheran Orphan Home at Salem, Va. This is an annual custom with us, each teacher and student taking one orphan as her particular beneficiary.

Wednesday evening, the 19th, the Ludvig Literary Society will give their annual debate in the auditorium. This is an event greatly looked forward to by the student body, their relatives and friends.

The operetta, "Love Pirates of Hawaii," will be repeated some time after Christmas, on a date to be announced later, after the presentation of the annual senior drama, which will be rendered early in January. All friends are cordially invited and we are confident the pleasure will amply repay for the trip.

FUNERAL OF MOREHEAD IS HELD AT CHARLOTTE

Funeral Service One of Largest Attended in Charlotte in Many Years. Charlotte, Dec. 14.—The funeral of John Mortley Morehead was held at 12:30 today at his late residence on Ransom Place, the services being conducted by Rev. Albert Sidney Johnson, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, which Mr. Morehead attended, his father and mother both having been life-long members of that church.

The funeral was one of the largest held in Charlotte in years, people of all faiths, religious and political, and of many social grades, being present. The service was simple but most impressive. There was no music, only the reading of scripture with a beautiful prayer by Dr. Johnson, and the benediction.

The service at the cemetery was also largely attended. The floral tributes covered the plot, many from other cities in Carolina and Washington and other points outside the state.

The funeral service of Miss Sally Young, sister of Mrs. Arthur Lillington Smith, who also died Wednesday, was held this afternoon at her home and that of Mrs. Smith, on North Teyon.

Miss Young and Mr. Morehead were in the same family connection, the Phifer connection, Miss Young being related by inter-marriages, and Mr. Morehead by blood.

Dun's Trade Review.

New York, Dec. 14.—Dun's tomorrow will say: It is not the season now for increased operations in other than retail channels, nor for definite indications of the probable future trend of business generally. Activities have centered on meeting holiday demands which reflect the large public buying power, and some calls have come to wholesale markets. Yet distribution of heavyweight apparel has been checked in many places by absence of low temperatures, with lack of normal snowfall, and more is heard of accumulations of such merchandise. The moderate weather, however, has made possible a continuation of outdoor work for a longer time than usual, giving employment to labor which might otherwise be idle, and the November building statistics show that much additional construction has been planned. This is one of the strong points of the general situation, but elsewhere in the industrial field a slowing down process is visible.

THE OLD HOME TOWN BY ALLMAN

SUNRISE DAIRY

I have recently bought the T. J. Smith farm just above the corporate limits of the city and will open a dairy on December 15th, 1923. Am fully prepared to furnish milk and cream to a number of customers on short notice, and will give to the patrons a service equal to the best. All my cows are tubercular tested, and principally Jersey stock. The premises will at all times be kept in a strictly sanitary manner, and the public is invited at any time to make a visit to the dairy. Your patronage is solicited, and will be appreciated.
