LOCAL MENTION

Rev. T. W. Smith left this afternoon for Winstboro, S. C., where he will remain with his daughter, Mrs. U. G. Desportes, until after Christmas.

Advertisers will kindly remember that copy for change of ads must be in the Tribune office not later than 10 o'clock a. m.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bartlett, of Carthage, December 15th, a son, Mrs. Bartlett is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Hooks, and Mr. Bartlett is spending several days here with his wife and son.

The second game of the basketball season at the Y will be played tonight when the local Y team meets the five from M. P. C. L. The cadets are said to have a fast team this year and the game should be a good one. Play will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

Mary Elizabeth Measmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Measmer, died Thursday night at her home in No. 2 township. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Fairview and interment was made in the cemetery there.

The Mission Study Class of Central Methodist Church will meet Monday afternoon at three o'clock with Mrs. A. J. Dayvault, on Franklin avenue. Messdames A. H. Probst, J. E. Smoot and A. S. Dayvault will be hostesses for the occasion.

City and county taxes are coming in at a rapid rate now, City Tax Collector Fields and Sheriff Caldwell report. The books for both the city and county have been open for several weeks and thousands of dollars have been collected so far.

Stanny News-Herald: Mr. J. F. Cannon, of Concord, has made a donation of $50 to the Confederate monument fund. If residents of other counties are interested enough in the monument of Stanny to erect a monument to its Confederate veterans, surely homefolks ought to be stimulated to greater efforts along the same line.

Brick masons are rapidly completing their part of the work on the outside walls of the new Cabarrus Savings Bank home. The four walls of the building have been completed except for extra designs that will be placed at several places on the walls and masons are now erecting the short wall that will extend around the top of the building.

Friday night was the coldest night of the present winter. Friday morning broke clear and cold and the dropping temperature continued throughout the day. Heavy ice was reported in practically every part of the city and many householders are reporting broken pipes as a result of the freezing weather. Rising temperatures are promised for tonight and Sunday, with continued clear weather.

The aldermen held a special meeting at the city hall Friday night to discuss the matter of condemning property of the Cabarrus Motor Company on Church Street. There has been some agitation here for action on this matter by the aldermen, but they took no definite action at the meeting. They will meet again Monday night, at which time they are expected to take definite action on the matter.

The cold snap has brought to the attention of city officials a number of needy families. Coal has been sent to several of the families and civic organizations in the city have been asked to help others. Next week a list of needy families to be designated as "opportunities," will be announced and the public asked to help them so they can enjoy the Christmas season as it should be enjoyed.

Dr. Richard Hobbittel, for two years manager of the Charlotte team in the South Atlantic League, has been signed by the Hornet owners as manager for next year. Dr. Hobbittel has given Charlotte a good team during the past two years and last year his team won the pennant in the South Atlantic and then defeated Wilson for the championship of the South Atlantic and Virginia leagues.

Five cases were tried in recorder's court Friday and two others scheduled for trial were continued. One defendant was fined $5 for operating a car with one light; another paid a fine of $7.50 for operating a truck with one light; and probable cause was found in the case where rape was charged. The defendant was bound over without bond. A youth of this city was sent to the Jackson Training School when he plead guilty to being intoxicated and resisting an officer.

The cold snap has increased buying in the stores of this city. A number of merchants here declared early in the week that little winter buying had been done because there had been no winter weather, but today the stores are filled with customers, many of whom are buying winter necessities as well as Christmas presents. Business from now until after Christmas promises to be so good that most of the business houses will remain open at night until after Christmas Day.

The so-called "red snow" of the Arctic regions is in reality, ordinary white snow upon which a minute, vegetable growth. The ruddy tint is imparted by the red coloring matter secreted in the vegetable cells.

Arrangements are being made for holding a congress of chambers of commerce of the British Empire in London next year in connection with the great British Empire Exhibition.

Tom Sims Says

Dear Santa: "Please bring me a few political issues. My old ones are all worn out." Any Party.

Lower sugar prices are being predicted by several leading optimists. Drink wood alcohol this Christmas and you will never see another.

Dear Santa: "If you bring my wife a pistol I'll shoot you."

Dear Santa: "Please send us some prohibition Christmas. We want to see what it looks like." Any Town.

Christmas story: "Mama, I wish I had some states, so I could skate."

Texas aviator was arrested for flying while intoxicated. A few drinks and he went up in the air.

California University has built a $1,000,000 stadium. They say it looks like a million dollars.

Dear Santa: "Please send us a new collar. We had a collar but papa left the corps in the home brew."

Now they say there are about 1,000 fake dentists at large. This number will seem very small.

News from London. Women will seek 40 seats in Parliament. Must be members of the tea party.

Sailors wrecked off the Alaskan coast lived a month on porcupines, so were stuck up when rescued.

Joe Hall of New Jersey, thought he could keep $9,184 at his home, but he learned he couldn't.

Christmas story: "If you kids lay your hands on one of these bundles I'll spank you."

Dear Santa: "Don't come down our chimney. Drop some coal down it."

The United States spends $40,000,000 a year for prohibition enforcement, but gets little for it.

MR. AND MRS. SPENCER OF GASTONIA BURNED

Mrs. Spencer May Die From Burns Sustained While Trying to Save Her Husband.

Gastonia, Dec. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Spencer were painfully burned this afternoon at their home when their clothing caught fire from an open grate. Mrs. Spencer is perhaps fatally burned. Mr. Spencer will recover. Mr. Spencer's clothes in some manner caught fire and in trying to save her husband Mrs. Spencer's clothes became ignited. She rushed into the yard, and before help could reach her, her clothes were burned off, only a spread remaining.

Mr. Spencer is a prominent contractor of the city. Their home is outside the city within a few hundred feet of the North Carolina Orthopaedic hospital. Physicians and nurses from there were first to reach the scene.

At a late hour tonight, Mrs. Spencer's condition was said to be serious.
