Dance Last Evening.

Ushering in the Christmas holiday season, the dance given at the Elks' Home last evening by the young men of the city, proved a social event of unusual interest to a large number of dancers.

Dancing began at 9 o'clock and continued until one o'clock this morning and during the evening about 50 couples were on the floor. In addition to the young people of this city who were present, a number of dancers from nearby cities were also present for the dance.

Music was furnished by the Mark Goff Orchestra and the latest dance music was interpreted by the musicians and proved one of the features of the occasion.

A number of other dances will be given by various organizations in the city during the holidays.

Black-Griffin.

A marriage that will be of much interest to friends of the contracting parties took place last evening in the office of Dr. John A. Patterson when Miss Ethel Griffin, of this city, became the bride of Mr. John P. Black, of Greensboro. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. Hollins, pastor of McGill Street Baptist Church, and was witnessed by only a few friends.

Mrs. Black is popular with a wide circle of friends in this city, where she has made her home for many years. Mr. Black made his home here for a short time last year, being connected with a mattress factory. He is a prominent business man of Greensboro now.

Mr. and Mrs. Black left Concord last night and will make their home in Greensboro.

Moves to Concord.

Mr. Howard Collic, of Danville, Va., has become associated with the Kidd-Frix Music & Stationery Company and will become secretary and treasurer of the concern according to announcement by Mr. Paris Kidd, who has been in charge of the store since it was started here several years ago. Mr. Collic is a well known young business man and formerly lived in New Bern. While there he was a member of the Shrine and Kiwanis Club and otherwise active in the civic affairs of the town. He begins his new duties here this week.

Special Movie Program at "Y"

A special movie program will be offered the public at the Y. M. C. A. Friday night at 8 o'clock in the gymnasium. This is in connection with the Pet and Hobby show which opens to the public at 7 o'clock and remains open until 10 o'clock, when all exhibitors will be able to remove their exhibits. Spacious coupes are being moved from the fair grounds to the Y in order to properly take care of the exhibits. All persons having relics, collection of any kind, are asked to place them on exhibit. They will be shown under glass and be perfectly safe. Dennis' clowns will do stunts for the crowd and it is hoped that every one in Concord will avail themselves of the opportunity of visiting some of the show. No admission will be charged and you will miss one of the best things of its kind if you fail to be present.

The judges, Rev. Mr. Scovill, of All Saints Church, Mrs. H. S. Williams, and Mrs. George B. Means, will place the ribbons at 6 p. m. The Y will be closed from 6 until 7 o'clock. All exhibits will be brought to the Y. M. C. A. at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon at which time they will be assigned to their respective coupes.

At Theatres.

"The Virginians," the screen version of the famous Wister story, is being offered today at the Star. Special music tonight.

"A Friendly Husband," and a Hal Roach comedy make up the program at the Piedmont today.

"Crooked Alley" and "Western Skies" two dramas, are being shown today at the Pastime.

WILLIE MARION PRESLAR DIED THIS MORNING

Death Due to Complication of Diseases After Child Was Accidentally Burned.

Willie Marion Preslar, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Preslar, died at her home here this morning at 7 o'clock, following an illness of three weeks. The child was severely burned three weeks ago while playing some coal on a fire and death was due to a complication of maladies that set in following the accident.

Funeral services will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Preslar on Bell Avenue, tomorrow morning, the hour to be decided later. The services will be conducted by Rev. G. A. Martin, pastor of the First Baptist Church, of which the parents of the deceased are members.

Surviving are Mr. and Mrs. Preslar and two children.

The announcement of the death of the little girl was received with sincere regret in all quarters of the city. While her burns were not regarded as fatal at the time of the accident, it soon developed that the child was more seriously injured than at first thought, and the public generally had followed the changes in her condition with unusual interest. Pneumonia set in about ten days ago and for several days little hope was entertained. Last week there was a decided change for the better, however, and it was not generally known that the child had suffered another relapse.

KANNAPOLIS DEPARTMENT

Kannapolis, N. C., Dec. 19.—The A. R. P. Christmas exercises will be rendered on Monday evening, December 24, at 7:30 o'clock. Everybody is invited.

Mrs. C. E. Robinson spent Monday in Charlotte.

Master Rayon Lisk, eight years old son of Mr. W. E. Lisk returned Monday from the Concord Hospital, where he had been rushed Saturday after being run over near his home on North Main street by a car, driven by Mr. Moser, son of the Methodist minister here. Little Rayon was running across the street and did not see the car. He sustained a broken limb. Mr. Moser quickly applied the brakes when he saw the boy start across the street, but to no avail as it was impossible to avoid the accident. The boy is getting along nicely.

Mr. William E. Maunden spent Monday in Charlotte.

Mr. Sam Harmon, who is in the government hospital at Knoxville, Tenn., is spending the Christmas holidays with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Harley will leave Christmas eve for Orangeburg, S. C., where Mrs. Harley will spend about ten days with home folks. Mr. Harley will return after a stay of a few days.

Mrs. R. G. McGuirt and two daughters, Misses Alma and Nell, will leave Friday for Richmond, where they will visit Mrs. McGuirt's sister.

Mr. James Winecoff will return Saturday, the 21st, from Wake Forest to spend the Christmas holidays with home folks.

Mr. Fred Nance returned Monday to the Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, after spending a few days here with home folks. Mr. Nance has been in service at this hospital for about two months.

Mr. J. T. Nance Jr., of A. and E. College, is expected home Thursday to spend the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lomax are now rooming at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts.

Mr. Leck Willett, of Lexington, spent the week-end at home.

Mrs. J. H. Helms has returned from a Charlotte Hospital, where she underwent an operation. Mrs. Helms' friends will be glad to know that she is getting along fine.

Mr. Mike Koontz, who is boarding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Propst, will spend the holidays with home folks at Tyro, and with college chums in Hickory.

Mr. Willie Fairly will spend Christmas in Tyro with home folks.

Miss Laura Chandler, one of the teachers, will leave Friday for her home in Maxton, where she will spend the holidays. Miss Hazel Faircloth will go to her home in Wilmington, Miss Ruth Kittrell, to Bailey, and Miss Grace Smithfield to Advance.

Christmas exercises and a treat for the Sunday school at Mt. Olivet, will be given Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

Juniors Orphanage Decision Saturday.

Hickory, Dec. 19.—North Carolina Juniors will know sometime Saturday where the branch orphanage will be located. The national committee, which left here last night for Washington after inspecting half a dozen sites, has promised to be ready with the information before the end of the week. Hickory people generally are confident either this city or Lexington will be chosen, for it is realized here that the Davidson county people made an attractive offer.

Juniors feel that Hickory has more than an equal chance. For one thing this is a stronghold of the order and for another it is a community of diversified manufactures, probably to a larger extent than any town or city of near its size in the entire state.

ANOTHER FLOGGING IS REPORTED IN THE EAST

J. Y. Barnes, Nashville Citizen, Taken From His Store and Flogged By a Band.

Rocky Mount, Dec. 19.—The third flogging to be administered to persons in and around Nashville, occurred last night, reports reaching this city today indicate, when J. Y. Barnes, Nashville citizen, was taken from his store, carried in an automobile to a point in the woods which he claims to be near Wilson and flogged.

Reports indicate that the flogging took place early in the evening as several men, it is stated, came for Barnes at his store shortly after 6 o'clock. He is quoted as saying that there were seven or eight unmasked men in the party which carried him some distance and then administered a flogging. He is understood to have been brought back to the county seat shortly after midnight and to have said that he did not recognize any member of the band.

Advices from Nashville say that Barnes claims that approximately $200 was taken from him by the band. Whether or not he was lectured to or given a warning could not be learned.

this morning. Barnes is the father of the young woman with whom association is alleged to have been the cause of the first whipping administered at Nashville several weeks ago to a young married man employed in highway construction work.

At that time a warning is reported to have been left at the home by the band. The second flogging activity occurred about a week after the first when another young man was caught at the home of a woman some distance from Nashville and given a lashing in the presence of the woman in the case, and last night's affair brings the total known floggings up to three.
