IN AND ABOUT THE CITY

Primary Parent-Teacher Association.
On Tuesday afternoon, the children of the first grades entertained the mothers with a number of delightful little songs. All of them were so sweet it was hard to say which were best, but "Playing Soldier" was given with true martial spirit and "A Surprise" and "Betty and Billy" were particularly full of melody. Miss Mary King's grade then gave a cunning little play based on Mother Goose. The children did their parts well, especially so as most of them have been in school only since the last of January, which hardly seems long enough for them to get used to the routine of school.

After the entertainment the regular business of the day was taken up, with the report of the treasurer engaging attention first. With a milk bill of $57.34 due, we learned that we had only about $32 on hand. Funds are badly needed, if we are to keep the milk up through April, and it looks as if we must put on a publicity campaign to let people know about it. Last year with the help of our Washington Party and contributions from friends in the city we met our bills with greatest ease, but this year we've had uphill work to meet our obligations. We hope some generous friends, who are interested in our work for the undernourished children, will help us on our milk fund.

Ways and means for making money were discussed and it was decided to ask all our members to make some donation which will be gladly received, whether small or large.
Miss Klutz was introduced and she came as president of the newly organized Cabarrus County Parent-Teacher Council, to ask us to reconsider and join them in their work—their first aim and object being to organize a Parent-Teacher association at every school in the county.

Mrs. M. M. King was chosen to represent us at Friday's meeting and our chapter finally voted to join the County Council.
Our president read a most interesting and practical article entitled "Know Your Own School" from the State Bulletin, after which the mothers of the first grade children were counted. Miss King's room won the picture with ten mothers present and this closed our interesting session.

Forest Hill to Have Unique Debate.

Langley, of Chicago, Ill., will debate the affirmative side and Mr. Paul P. Kesler, of Ohio, will uphold the negative. Revivalist Invades Bootlegging Fraternity.
Raleigh, April 10.—The Ham-Ramsey revival campaign has invaded the fraternity of the bootleggers. Two converts of recent meetings have gone into court to plead guilty to their own lack of obedience to the Volstead law and to the aims of their companions. Lignell Hood appeared in court today as a state's witness against two of his former "buddies" in bootlegging, after pleading guilty himself to three liquor charges. As a result of his testimony one defendant got a two-year sentence while the other skipped a $500 bond.

A few days ago another convert of the meetings gave officers a tip that resulted in the capture of 85 quarts of booze.
One convert announced during the revival meeting that he proposed to "turn up" every fellow of his acquaintance who had been selling whiskey unless he quit the business.
"I know you fellows," he called out, "and unless you let liquor alone and lead a clean life I am going to turn you up."

At the Theatre.
Thomas Meighan in "Woman Proof," and the feature picture, "Sunshine Harbor," are on the program today at the Star Theatre.
The Piedmont Theatre is showing Shirley Mason today in the leading role of the feature picture, "Love Letters." "Sporting Youth" with Reginald Denry in the leading role, is being shown at the Pastime Theatre today.
