LOCAL MENTION

Mrs. George Day and little Joe Day are improving from their recent illness slowly.

P. F. Stallings, who has been ill at his home near Harrisburg for several months, was taken to the Charlotte Sanatorium Tuesday for treatment.

R. M. Cook, who had been a patient in the Concord Hospital, returned to his home Thursday afternoon. His condition continues to improve.

Mrs. Albert Johnson is confined to her home on Meadow Street on account of illness. Reports from the home state that her condition is improving.

According to a deed filed with the register of deeds Thursday E. L. Morrison has sold to E. L. Morrison, Jr., property in Aurora Highlands, Ward 5 of this city, for $19.

J. P. Cook, who appeared before the Rutherford county commissioners relative to the building of a cottage at the Jackson Training School, reports that they decided to construct one immediately at the Training School.

Dan Forney, 80-year-old negro, died Wednesday at the home of relatives in No. 2 township. Forney had made his home in Concord for many years and was well known throughout the city, being especially well known and respected by the older citizens of the city.

The photographs of the Y activities have been made showing the work of that organization in the local schools, in the county schools, in the mills and in the Y building. These pictures will be printed later in the special edition of the Y paper.

Arrangements have been made with the Superior Motion Picture Company to take 1,000 feet of films at the May Day festival, to be shown later in the city. The production is under the direction of Tom May, who is said to be a well known and experienced director.

The condition of Mrs. H. W. Blanks' father, H. H. Buie, who has been desperately ill at his home in Monroe, La., is unchanged. Physicians are of the opinion that he cannot recover from his present illness. Mrs. Blanks has been with her father for some time.

Funeral services for Mrs. Harriette Thompson, who died Thursday in a Charlotte hospital, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at her late home, conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. C. Wainwright, of the Second Presbyterian Church. Interment was made in Oakwood cemetery.

Marie, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McDonald, died Tuesday at the home of her parents, death being caused by pneumonia. Funeral services were held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Cold Water Baptist Church an interment was made in the cemetery of the church.

Part of the brick taken from the old St. Cloud Hotel building are being used to fill in Spring Street just to the rear of the First Presbyterian Church. The bricks are being placed on the street by the city and enough will be used to entirely change the street, it being planned to make the road very substantial with these bricks.

Local Pythians are looking forward with unusual interest to the district meeting to be held here tonight at 7:30 o'clock. An unusually interesting program has been arranged, it is said by members of the local lodge, and a number of visitors are expected to be in attendance. All Pythians are invited to the meeting.

Eight cases are scheduled to be tried in recorder's court this afternoon. Four of the defendants are charged with assault with a deadly weapon, one is charged with assault on a female, two are charged with affrays and the other is charged with speeding. No session of the court was held Wednesday.

Those persons who subscribed to stock in the new hotel and who are paying for the stock on the installment plan, have been notified during the past two days that the second payment on the stock will be due April 1st. The first payment was made January 1st, and the first calls for payment of the entire amount in five equal installments.

Al Johnson, golf professional at the local country club, will go to Pinehurst next week to take part in the North and South championship which is staged each year at Pinehurst. Johnson has been playing the best golf of his career recently and his friends here expect him to give a fine account of himself at Pinehurst. Walter Hagen and other national stars will enter the tournament.

Teapot Dome Case Ends.
Cheyenne, Wyo., March 26.—The Teapot Dome trial which consumed 14 days, ended here today in United States district court and Federal Judge T. Blake Kennedy will await the filing of briefs both by the government and the defense before he decides whether Harry F. Sinclair shall retain the Teapot Dome lease, or the United States shall regain the big Wyoming naval oil reserve.

Insurance Office Raided By Bandits.
New York, March 26.—Four bandits with pistols today held up the manager and four girl employees of a Brooklyn branch of the Prudential Life Insurance company and escaped with $8,200. A fifth man stood guard outside. Telephone wires into the office had been cut. One girl saved $1,500 for the company by throwing it into a waste basket, which the robbers missed.

Consider the busy flea and how he jumps around. And doesn't he go to the dogs?

Traffic regulations for the air are being discussed. Now all we need is hot air regulations.

Another sure sign of spring is when you wonder if you hear a saw mill or a mosquito.

We still maintain almost any man can make a success if he has enough chances to practice on.

Recent discoveries indicate the Indians built up a great civilization before realizing it wasn't much use.

A foreigner admits he paid $500 to be smuggled into America. We admit he got a good bargain.

In the future we will be careful about what we want. We are so likely to get it.

But perhaps the best sign of spring is a coal dealer frowning.

Men drown their sorrow. A woman shoots him.

Sometimes you see a thin man who is thick headed.

All this water in flooded rivers comes from the spring.

Never let a seed store cheat you. If you are buying wheat, there are 556,000 seeds in a bushel.

Why don't some of these chronic up-lifters get jobs as elevator boys and be quiet for a while?

Modern girls may not get red when they kiss, but the men do.

A woman tells us her husband won't buy a washing machine because he thinks he married one.

Oysters are famed for their silence. And you seldom see one in the soup.

If, as fashion says, shoe tops are lower, then bottoms are higher.

Our income tax argument is, we certainly are glad they don't tax us on what we think we are worth.

You can't tell if money makes fools or if fools make money.

Actors do as well as they do in the movies because they can't hear the music.

One of these thrifty men tells us steady men are kept that way by bank balances.

Wouldn't it be nice of bad weather didn't work on Sunday?

Time for the neighbor to bring home your coal scuttle and borrow your lawnmower.

Modernizing "Pa."
Up to this time Pa has been absolutely against the modern styles—bobbed hair, short dresses, etc. After a heated discussion last night Ma ended the argument by appearing in an outfit she wore during her honeymoon, and saying to Pa: "I just put this on to please you, dear; let's go out to the theater."

WOMAN PAYS $2,627,500 TAXES ON FORD STOCK
Payment, Only One Made So Far, Given Under Protest.

Detroit, March 27.—Mrs. Alice Gray Kales gave her check for $2,627,500 to the Internal Revenue Bureau office here yesterday, in payment of her supplementary income tax on the sale of minority shares of Ford Motor Company stock in 1919, it became known today. The payment was made by Hal H. Smith, her attorney, under protest.

Senator James Couzens and others who, with Mrs. Kales, recently were assessed an additional total of approximately $17,000,000 on the 1919 sale, have filed bonds in lieu of payment. Mrs. Kales alone paying the tax. The bonds are now on file are in the neighborhood of $25,000,000.

Gladys—He's so romantic. Whenever he speaks to me he always says: "Fair Lady."

Edward—Oh, that's a force of habit. He used to be a street car conductor.

IS GREEN NO MORE
"My experience with your medicine has been wonderful. My stomach and liver trouble of five years standing took a new turn two years ago when I took on an olive green complexion. I spent $1,200 with doctors and specialists only to prove that I was still as green as ever. A friend advised me to take Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and I am green no more. My stomach and liver trouble has all disappeared." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Gibson Drug Store and druggists everywhere.

K. OF P. NOTICE
