IN AND ABOUT THE CITY

CALEB ARCHIBALD IS ARRESTED IN RICHMOND
Negro Wanted Here For Alleged Murder of Negro Woman About Two Years Ago
Chief L. A. Talbirt, of the local police department, was notified Friday by Richmond police officers that Caleb Archibald was under arrest there, and he immediately communicated with Sheriff R. V. Caldwell, Jr., who has asked the Richmond officers to hold Archibald.
Archibald, middle aged negro, is alleged to have shot and killed Hatie McClure, negro woman, near this city about two years ago. While officers have been on the watch for him since and have received various tips as to his whereabouts, nothing definite was heard from him until the letter from the Richmond officers was received Friday by Chief Talbirt.
The Richmond officers stated that Archibald was arrested there on suspicion when he was seen walking around for some time. He told the officers, they stated in their letter, that his name was Blunt Archibald, and that he knew many people in Concord. He told the officers further, they said, that he had been in trouble here a good many years ago but had settled it all up.
With their letters the Richmond officers sent two recent photos of Archibald and he was easily recognized by these. Sheriff Caldwell wired the officers Friday night about the charge against Archibald and asked them to hold him until a deputy could be sent for him.
An effort will be made to return Archibald to North Carolina without question papers. However, if he demands the papers local officers are prepared to ask Governor McLean to forward the necessary papers to Governor Byrd of Virginia. Due to the seriousness of the charge, it is felt by the officers, that the requisition papers will be recognized by Governor Byrd without delay.

FUNERAL SERVICE FOR K. L. CRAVEN HELD HERE
Services Conducted at Central Methodist Church and Interment Made in Oakwood Cemetery.
Funeral services for Kindred L. Craven, prominent and aged citizen of Concord who died Wednesday of pneumonia, were held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Central Methodist Church.
Rev. R. M. Courtney, pastor of the deceased, conducted the services, assisted by Dr. J. C. Rowan, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and Rev. C. Herman Trueblood, pastor of the First Baptist Church.
During the service Mr. Courtney made a short talk, speaking particularly on Mr. Craven's religious experience and his long service to the church. Music was rendered by a quartette composed of Mrs. H. G. Gibson, Mrs. Gales Pickard, R. E. Ridenhour, Jr., and Price Doyle.
Many floral offerings, sent as tokens of love and respect by friends, completely covered the burial plot.
The following were the honorary pall bearers: Dr. J. E. Smoot, E. E. Coltrane, Dr. H. C. Herring, W. R. Odell, D. B. Morrison, F. A. Brower, M. J. Carl, J. Lee Crowell, Sr., Jno. K. Patterson, Dr. G. B. Sturgeon, A. S. Dayvault.
The active pall-bearers were: J. B. Sherrill, J. F. Dayvault, Dr. W. C. Houston, R. E. Ridenhour, C. B. Wagoner, A. J. Dayvault.

Funeral of Mrs. Mary Jane Tucker.
Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Jane Tucker, who died Monday night, were held from her late home Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. W. C. Jamison, assisted by Dr. J. F. Moser. Burial was made in Oakwood cemetery here.
Two weeks ago Mrs. Tucker was stricken with pneumonia from which she died Monday. She was born December 21, 1861, in Stanly county and was the daughter of the late Edmund and Elizabeth Blackwelder, one of the oldest families in the South. In 1882 she married Jacob Tucker and came to live in Cabarrus county, where she resided until her death. She was beloved by a large circle of friends and relatives.
In addition to her husband, Mrs. Tucker is survived by five sons and two daughters. They are: James R., of Bridgeport, Conn.; Daniel E., of Detroit; Charles R., of Providence, R. I.; Paul and Floyd, of Concord; Mrs. Ellis Rhinehardt and Mrs. Glenn Ledbetter, of Concord.

Things Hotel Should Be Called "Coltrane Hotel."
Mr. Editor:
As no one from the country has suggested a name for the hotel, let me ask the directors to call it "Coltrane Hotel." Could you meet a nicer trio anywhere than, namely, D. B., L. D., and L. D. Jr.
Who has given Cabarrus and Rowan county a good telephone system, one that we could not do without? And what would Concord be today if it were not for the Coltranes?
I think we should give them flowers while they are living. And would not that be a grand memorial for the Coltranes?
You see, then when a drummer gets off a train he won't have to ask anyone anything about a hotel. Everybody knows a (cold train) Coltrane and will remember it.
J. A. BRANTLEY.

Sentenced to Chain Gang For Stealing Bicycle.
Albert, Caldwell, negro, was sentenced to serve four months on the chain gang when convicted in recorder's court Friday on a charge of stealing a bicycle.
According to testimony at the trial, Caldwell stole the bicycle from John B. Smith, who operates here a bicycle repair shop. Officers when advised of the theft, followed Caldwell from the city overtaking him, they reported, near Salisbury. He was riding the bicycle at the time of the arrest, it is said.

"But It Is Just Like Cabarrus County"

Under the above caption the North Carolina Sunday School Observer for November-December, 1925, said:
And you would all say so if you knew Miss Rosa Mund, the county secretary, and Mr. J. J. Barnhardt, the county vice president! They never do a thing by halves—it is always a whole number when they finish! How is this? "I am pleased to be able to report that on Sunday, November 22nd, we held our last Township Institute for the county, except the Concord Institute, which is usually held after Christmas. We feel quite sure that we will be able to make 100 per cent. of the County Aims again this year. The Township Institutes were well attended and much interest was manifested. The departmental superintendents attended all these institutes and presented their lines of work splendidly." This paragraph is from a recent letter from the county secretary. Because of the illness of the county president, Mr. R. P. Benson, for several months the work has fallen entirely on Miss Mund and Mr. Barnhardt.
Mrs. W. H. Stewart Drops Dead.
Mrs. Sarah S. Stewart, wife of Mr. William H. Stewart, was Friday morning found dead in her bed at her home, 54 East Hill Street, Salisbury, death having taken place sometime during the night Mrs. Stewart had been suffering from heart trouble for some time and this is thought to have been the cause of her death. She was 41 years of age.

ATE TOO FAST
South Carolinian Took Black-Draught For Indigestion, and Says He Could Soon Eat Anything.
Ballentine, S. C.—Mr. W. B. Bouknight, of this place, gave the following account of his use of Theodor's Black-Draught.
"Just after I married I had indigestion. Working out, I got in the habit of eating fast, for which I soon paid by having a tight, bloated feeling after meals. This made me very uncomfortable. I would feel stupid and drowsy, didn't feel like working. I was told it was indigestion. Some one recommended Black-Draught and I took it after meals. I soon could eat anything any time.
"I use it for colds and biliousness and it will knock out a cold and carry away the bile better and quicker than any liver medicine I have ever found.
"Eating too fast, too much, or faulty chewing of your food, often causes discomfort after meals. A pinch of Black-Draught, washed down with a swallow of water, will help to bring prompt relief. Bloating, sensations, eructations, bad breath and other common symptoms of indigestion have disappeared after Black-Draught has been taken for several days."
