IN AND ABOUT THE CITY

CALEB ARCHIBALD IS RETURNED TO CONCORD

Negro Arrested in Richmond Wanted Here For Alleged Murder of Negro Woman.

Deputy Sheriff Honeycutt returned Monday from Richmond, Va., with Caleb Archibald, negro, wanted here for the alleged murder of Hattie McClure, a negro woman.

Archibald has been identified by several persons who have seen him since his return. It is reported that he confessed to Deputy Sheriff Honeycutt while en route to Concord that he is the negro wanted here.

When first arrested in Richmond, according to information received here, Archibald told officers his name was Blunt Archibald. He had not been in recent trouble in Concord; he told the officers. His story did not ring true to the Richmond police, however, and for that reason they communicated with local officers, sending two photos of the negro.

Archibald was recognized from the pictures and local officers with the Richmond authorities to hold the negro. He returned to Concord without requisitions papers.

The negro probably will be tried at the April term of Cabarrus court. At the February term only civil cases will be tried, so Archibald's case will go over to the April term.

WOMEN WILL BE HEARD BY HOTEL OWNERS HERE

Will Be Given Opportunity to Suggest Names For New Hostelry Here.

Women of the city who want to offer suggestions as to naming the new hotel here will be heard this evening by stockholders of the hotel company at a public meeting at the Merchants and Manufacturers Club.

Various women's organizations of the city have asked for permission to appear before the owners of the hotel and offer suggestions or protests, so the public meeting has been arranged for this evening, when all of the suggestions will be heard.

Various names for the hotel have been suggested, those receiving more favorable criticism being "The Stephen Cabarrus," "Hotel Concord," "Hotel Cannon," "Hotel Coltrane," "Hotel Patton," "The Pioneer" and "The Craighead."

Most of the names suggested by women so far are those of historic characters, it being their contention that the hotel should be used to perpetuate the name of some distinguished citizen for conspicuous service to the county.

The meeting tonight is expected to attract a large audience.

BOARD OF EDUCATION IN MEETING MONDAY

Several Matters Presented to Board. Most Important Dealing With Proposed New Schools.

Members of the county board of education met Monday in the offices of Prof. J. B. Robertson, county superintendent of schools and secretary to the board.

After the meeting it was announced that consideration had been given to several items. The most important of these dealt with the high school building program of the county. The hope of the board at the present time is that by the time spring weather comes all plans will be ready for the breaking of ground for two or three of the projects.

The board members were unofficially told at the meeting that the loan asked from the State had been approved most in the sum asked. The board expects to get definite information on this point within the next several days.

WRIGHT WALLER KILLED WHILE AT WORK IN MILL

Came in Contact With Motor and Was Instantly Killed in Landis Mill.

Wright Waller, about 50 years of age, was instantly killed Monday when his arm came in contact with a motor in the Linn Mill at Landis.

Mr. Waller was engaged in oiling the motor when he was electrocuted, the full shock of the motor's strength passing through his body. He had lived in Landis about a year, having moved there from China Grove. He was a member of the China Grove Baptist Church.

Surviving are his wife and several children. Funeral services were held this afternoon.

The Late J. Lafayette Stafford.

Referring to the death of J. Lafayette Stafford at the home of his son, Zeb Stafford, at Harrisburg Monday morning, the Charlotte Observer says:

"Mr. Stafford made a notable record as a Confederate soldier, having entered the war at the beginning and serving throughout. He was wounded in battle under circumstances he was fond of relating.

"He carried a Testament in his breast-pocket. The bullet that wounded him struck this Testament and was deflected from a direct course to his heart into an arm which he carried in crippled condition the balance of his life.

"Mr. Stafford came of distinguished ancestry. In colonial days an attorney for Lord Selwyn came to this country and formed an intimate acquaintanceship with the Stafford family, and through the influence of this attorney the family received from the king a royal grant of land, which is yet in possession of the existing generation of Staffords, along with the ancestral home in Rocky River township.

"Mr. Stafford was in times past active in county affairs and was universally regarded as a man of sterling character. His death is regarded as a loss to the citizenship of Cabarrus."

HOW SKINNY KIDS GAIN WEIGHT AND STRENGTH

Everyone knows that Cod Liver Oil is full of vitamins, is a flesh builder supreme. In children where rickets are suspected it even helps to build up the bones and strengthens the body.

But let us all be glad! The poor under-weight, sickly, puny kid doesn't have to take the vile, nasty, oil itself any more for thanks to science McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets has taken its place.

Sugar coated they are and as easy to take as candy and if you will give them to your sickly child for thirty days, you'll be very happy indeed.

If you are not, the East Drug Co. or the druggist from whom you bought them is authorized to return your money. 60 tablets 60 cents—but be sure and get McCoy's, the original and genuine.

COMMISSIONERS HOLD VERY LENGTHY SESSION

Morning and Afternoon Sessions Necessary to Dispose of Business Before the Board.

County commissioners of Cabarrus were in session for several hours Monday, holding morning and afternoon sessions.

Routine matters claimed the board's attention during much of the morning session. Bills were presented and ordered paid.

Dr. S. E. Buchanan, county health officer, appeared before the board and asked an appropriation of $25 per month for clinic expenses. The board granted his request, being informed that Dr. Alonzo Myers, of Charlotte, would continue the free clinic here once each month for this amount. Dr. Myers has been coming without cost to this county to examine crippled children and his work is so important that the board agreed to pay his actual expenses in the future.

The board also appropriated $100 to be spent in advertising Concord and Cabarrus county in the Florida edition of The Charlotte Observer.

A delegation from Mr. Pleasant appeared before the board and asked that a retaining wall be erected by the county for the Methodist Church property in that town. A wall was torn down when the hard-surfaced road was built, the board was told, and the delegation asked that it be replaced. This probably will be done.

HEALTH FILMS SHOWN AT CARTERSVILLE MEET

Dr. Buchanan Shows Health Pictures in Part of Campaign to Cover the County.

Dr. S. E. Buchanan, county health officer, Monday night carried his health films to the Cartersville neighborhood, showing them to a good sized audience which had gathered at his request.

As has been his custom in the past, Dr. Buchanan explained some of the features of the disease shown in the pictures, and also stressed the importance of some of the preventative measures suggested.

Dr. Buchanan plans to show the pictures in other parts of the county so long as he can retain the generator which has been borrowed from Rowan county.

Asks a Tribute to the Late J. W. Cannon.

Mr. Editor:

I read with real pleasure the article suggesting that Concord's new hotel be named in honor of the late Mr. J. W. Cannon.

The memory of Stephen Cabarrus is honored in the name of one of Concord's new banks and in that of our county, so now let us place a few laurels to crown the memory of one of our sons who was indeed "A man among men."

Was it not Mrs. J. W. Cannon, the widow of this truly wonderful man, who first came forward with a helping hand when one of our public institutions was scourged by fire?
