WASHINGTON · LETTER AUGA

By CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service Writer
Washington, Feb. 2.—Alexander D.
Moore, just back from Spain, where he spent several years as American ambassador to King Alfonso's court, speaks extremely well of Gen. Primo de Rivera, who ran the country, as dictator, during most of Moore's stay in the land of the dons.
Spain suffered from three dreadful complaints:

Post and Flagg's Cotton Letter.

Post- and Flagg's Cotton Letter.

New York, Feb. 2.—Although plenty of bearish talk is in circulation and sentiment in trading circles continues against talk market, on the average demand and offerings appear well balanced for the time being.

An easier basis for better grades is reported in some centers but as yet that has not gone far enough to open the way for shipping for delivery such cotton as could confidently be relied upon to meet requirements.

The period is passing during which bearish comparisons with the figures of last year were expected, and although there is no chamorous demand for cotton, the movement to the tradecontinues in fair volume and promises to remain so. Port and interior stocks are in excess of last year, but with prices four to five cents lower, that fact is not so impressively bearish as it might otherwise be. In fact the situation seems pretty well covered by the price, especially as the excess is obviously not weighing on the market sufficiently to wear down the near month premiums appreciably. That may change later as predicted in some quarters if the next crop makes a favorable start on an acreage equal to the last, or greater, but that remains to be seen and many hold the opinion that within a cent or two of this price the world would take all the merchantable ogton the south has or expects to raise plus what speculators, might be willing to sell.

POST AND FLAGG.

Wider Streets.
Winston-Salem Sentinel.
There is no question but that there is a strong feeling in Winston-Salem to the effect that anything possible looking to the widening of city streets should be done.
And, of course, the longer definite determination of the matter is delayed, the more difficult the proposition will become.

the more united to become.

This matter of widening streets in a city the size of Winston-Salem is not an easy one.

There will be difficulties in connection with the matter, but it does seen that there is enough determination and public spirit and civic enthusiams in Winston-Salem to "put across" the proposition.

All civic forces should work to gether to that end until something definite is accomplished.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS.

New York Mirror.

One morning my employer telephoned that he wouldn't be in. I thought it would be a good opportunity for me to look over his check hook and ascertain the salary which his former secretary was paid. I was engrossed in the work when the door opened and my boss walked into the office, and asked me. 'Is there anything particular in the desk which I wanted to see."

Beer Drinking Increases in Mexico. Mexico City, Feb. 2.—(P)—Tax reports indicate increased beer drinking in Mexico.

Breweries paid almost 2,500,000 pesos in federal income taxes for 1925, according to recently announced figures. This exceeds former records. All Mexican breweries are conducting elaborate advertising campaigns. Some urge the fairsty to substitute malt for hard liquors in order to prevent the possibility of prohibition.
