LOCAL MENTION

Mary Louise Means is sick at her home on North Spring street.

Members of the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. will meet at the Y tomorrow for an important business meeting.

Mrs. D. L. Bost will be hostess at a regular meeting of the Study Club tomorrow afternoon at 3 P. M. at her South Union Street home.

Mrs. J. S. Lafferty spent Tuesday in Charlotte with Dr. Lafferty, who is undergoing treatment in a hospital there. She reports some improvement in Dr. Lafferty's condition.

Members of the Woman's Club will meet at the Merchants and Manufacturers here tomorrow afternoon at 3:30. Important business matters will come before the meeting.

The business men's volleyball team of the local Y is scheduled to go to Salisbury tonight for a game. However, the game will be cancelled unless there is a change in the weather before late this afternoon.

The Harrisburg Community Club will meet Thursday night, February 4th, at 7:30 o'clock at the Harrisburg school house. An interesting program has been arranged by the teachers of the school. The public is invited to attend.

No session of the city recorder's court will be held this afternoon. Only a few cases, none of them of an aggravated nature, were scheduled to be tried and they have been continued until Friday afternoon's session of the court.

The February meeting of the board of aldermen at the city hall tomorrow night probably will be featured by the introduction of various street matters. Several reports called for at the January meeting also are to be discussed and acted upon at the meeting tomorrow night.

Tuesday was an unusually busy day for Register of Deeds Elliott. During the day 29 papers were filed at his office, nine of them deeds. Most of the papers were mortgages, Mr. Elliott reported. The day was one of the busiest during the time Mr. Elliott has been in office.

Copy is being prepared now for a page ad. to be carried in the Charlotte Observer's Florida edition by the City of Concord, Cabarrus County and the Chamber of Commerce. The special edition will be printed on February 15th and many extra copies will be secured and distributed in Concord.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Ridenhour were advised Tuesday that their grandson, Jack Songer, of Miami, Fla., had seriously injured one of his eyes with a knife. It is probable the child will have to be carried to a Baltimore hospital for treatment and if he is, Mrs. Ridenhour will accompany him and his mother.

Dr. S. E. Buchanan, county health officer, has been asked to show his health pictures at the Harrisburg Community meeting tomorrow night. In addition to showing the films, Dr. Buchanan will speak briefly at the meeting, stressing the importance of healthy living conditions and disease prevention.

H. W. Blanks, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has been asked by a number of older boys of the city to organize an Older "Brotherhood" for boys between the ages of 18 and 20 inclusive. The organization would be modeled along plans perfected for Our Sunday Gang. Mr. Blanks states that he probably will comply with the request in the near future.

Rain fell in torrents in the city during the night. Beginning some time about midnight the rain fell during the remainder of the night, temporarily halting about 7 o'clock. High winds sprung up early this morning but after threatening to drive away the clouds, the winds died down, leaving the city overcast with murky skies.

Those persons who believe the myth about the ground hog's power as a weather prophet, are shouting "I told you so" this morning. The rain of the night and morning was just a forerunner of other inclement weather, they predict, all because Mr. Hog came from his winter bed Tuesday, saw his shadow and sped back into his underground bed.

Death of Mrs. Margaret Beaver. Mrs. Margaret Ann Beaver, aged 71, died Tuesday at 12:20 p. m., in the Concord Hospital, death being due to blood poisoning. She had been ill about ten days.

Mrs. Beaver was born in Rowan county, a daughter of the late Lee Pethel and was the wife of David Beaver, of Kannapolis. She had made her home in Kannapolis for a number of years.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon in the Lutheran Chapel, of which she had been a member, and interment will be made in Green Lawn cemetery at China Grove.

Surviving are the husband, one son, S. O. Beaver, of Kannapolis, and two daughters, Mrs. Fannie West, of Rowan county, and Mrs. Stella Upwright, of Iredell county. Also surviving are one brother, Calvin Pethel, 21 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Wants Share

Mrs. George Sloane of Long Island, formerly Isabel Dodge, one of the five children of the late Job F. Dodge, motor king, has filed suit at Detroit for a share of the $12,000,000 estate of her half sister, Anna Margaret Dodge.

NAVY OF CONFEDERACY PAID $3 FOR ITS BEEF

Old Official Records Show Bread Soared to $1 a Pound From 1861 to 1864.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Two chests of official records of the Confederate navy, which probably were brought to Washington from Richmond, Va., in 1865, recently were found among other old records long in the possession of the navy department. These were stored in the attic of the state war, and navy building and were moved from there to the navy department building at 18th and B. streets, N.W., several years ago. As most of the Confederate papers pertained to financial matters, it was thought they were not of much naval interest and they have been put away awaiting their turn to be examined, inspected and filed.

The office of naval records is archiving all the old manuscripts so they may be available for historical purposes, and, in searching through the material these records were brought to light. They will be filed and placed so as to be available for ready reference on questions pertaining to the history of the Confederate navy.

In going through these papers, which are financial accounts such as authorizations for the purchase of supplies and materials for the Confederate navy, orders for travel, pay rolls of their ships and stations, much new information has been gained as to the activities and personnel of their navy as many records have been lost.

Names Added to Rolls. A register of officers of the Confederate navy was made by the navy department about 25 years ago. These newly found papers have indicated numerous additions to the register as a great number of names of officers were found either in lists of ships' crews, or attached to vouchers and travel orders. A revision of the register will be necessary to include the names now available.

Long lists of enlisted men and the employees at the ship yards and other industrial plants are also among the papers.

As many of the southern states have granted pensions to the widows of the men who served in the Confederate forces, the United States navy department has had many requests for information concerning personnel of the Confederate navy. In a great number of cases it has been forced to reply no information concerning the officers and men was available. These newly found lists will enable the navy department to give information about a much larger number of officers and men. In every case where a name is found, either in a payroll, on a travel order or on authorization for supplies, a record is made of the name and all information concerning the man that can be obtained from the documents is noted, and these will be kept in a separate file for reference.

Authorizations for the purchase of building materials to be used in the construction of ships have been found. From these papers, as well as from the lists showing supplies purchased in the outfitting of the ships, the list of known ships of the Confederate navy is being enlarged. These papers, income cases, throw new light on movements and activities of their ships, as much of this information has never been compiled.

Original orders and letters, some of them signed by the Secretary of the Navy, S. R. Mallory, were found in the chests. These give information on the regulations of the naval service and the rates of pay, etc. The list of supplies bought for the ships and the prices of clothing purchased for the men show the difference in price paid by the Confederate navy during the four years of the war and the steady increase of cost from 1861 to 1865.

One list of supplies, dated 1861, shows bread cost 5 cents a loaf, but the price increased until, in July, 1864, bread cost $1 a loaf. The bills for the purchase of beef shows a greater increase. Beef cost 10 cents a pound in 1861, but by July 1, 1864, was costing $3. The same price was paid for a pound of pork and lard. These were for large quantities of supplies and were wholesale prices.

Another bill listed cabbage at 75 cents a head, a lock for $20, and a team of mules, with wagon and harness at $1,000. Meal at $7 a bushel, corn at $45 a barrel, wheat at $15 a bushel, a can of condensed milk accepted for in 1864. Apple brandy at $50 a gallon was among the supplies bought. Salt cost 40 cents a pound in 1864, soap $2 a pound and bills dated July 1864, show flour cost the Navy $150 a sack.

The cost of clothing, shoes especially, is shown steadily increasing during the war. In 1861, a coat was signed for shoes at $1.70 a pair. In June, 1864, "cotton shoes" were listed at $6 a pair and in 1864 "English shoes" were purchased at $5 a pair and a later bill shows that the price rose to $38 in August, 1864.

One officer's bill of expenses incurred while traveling from Henderson to Oxford, which was paid by an officer at Halifax, N. C., contained the item "board one day at Henderson, $30." Similar expense lists show approximately the same amount was paid for a day's board in other cities.

Among the items listed was one for tomato seeds for the marines to plant which cost fifty cents for a small package. Wood in 1864 cost $70 a cord.

There are records of the building of the gunboats at New Orleans, the construction of vessels at Mobile, Columbus and Augusta. Industrial records are included too, as well as records showing the ordinance manufacturing activities about Richmond, Atlanta, Montgomery, Selma and other cities.

Many of the papers contain information about the Confederate marine corps. Rolls of men in barracks and on ships are included, also bills for supplies purchased for them. Very little information about this branch of the service has been available heretofore, as many records were lost.

Special Prayer Service.

The Second Presbyterian Church will hold a special prayer service this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the interest of home and foreign missions. It is urged all our members who can be present.

The choir will hold their weekly practice immediately after the prayer service.

SOUR STOMACH AND TIRED FEELING OVERCOME

Well-Known and Popular Lee Street Lady Finds Relief From Stomach Trouble Through the Use of HERB JUICE.

"I was in such a nervous condition as a result of constant suffering from nervous indigestion that I couldn't rest day or night. I just barely existed on nervous energy for a while, but this condition was making terrible inroads on my system and had it not been for the precious HERB JUICE medicine I would have given up completely," said Mrs. C. O. Riley, of South Lee Street, Salisbury, N. C., when telling the HERB JUICE man of her condition and so many benefits derived from use of HERB JUICE. Mrs. Riley continued as follows: "Any one can appreciate my condition who has suffered with gas pains, sour, flatulent stomach as much as I have. I was never entirely free from pain. Everything I ate would hurt me. My digestive organs were completely out of order and it just seemed that nothing I could do would get in the natural way. A friend told me about HERB JUICE helping her so much and urged me to try it, but I was a little skeptical at first, for I had tried so many remedies without getting any real relief. But finally my suffering got so bad that I decided as a last resort to try HERB JUICE, and I must candidly admit that this medicine has done more toward giving me real genuine relief than anything I have ever used. Today I feel 100 per cent. improved in every way. I have no more of those awful indigestion pains or gas attacks and now I eat most anything, enjoy my meals and digest my food. This I could not do before I took HERB JUICE. I have also found that HERB JUICE is a wonder when it comes to gulating the bowels and stirring up a lazy liver. HERB JUICE is a great system cleanser and regulator, for it has certainly toned up my entire system and put me in better condition than I have been in many a day. I can not recommend HERB JUICE too highly for all it has done in restoring me to good health, and I trust that every sufferer may hear about it, take it and be benefited."

Another Name for the Hotel.

Mr. Editor: As there is quite a controversy on for a suitable name for the new hotel and as there is much difference of opinion as to the characteristics of names suggested, I would therefore, suggest another one, a name in memory of one who sacrificed his life for world peace, a name that is "pat" and readily liped by all peoples of every clime and habitation, of one whom the world never produced his equal, and last, but not least, one who stands first and foremost in the hearts of his countrymen.

The best sympathy

IT is only human for a funeral director to feel sympathetic in the presence of bereaved patrons. But it is real sympathy when he recognizes an obligation to see to it that the highest character of burial equipment is furnished at honest prices. Such a policy has been responsible for the success of this concern.

Typical of the burial equipment furnished by us is the Clark Grave Vault, recognized as a leader in the vault industry, because it gives positive and permanent protection.
