

SOCIETY

Matches

The fur garter should match the gown or the hose. These are of summer wearing, with a rosette of ribbon flowers in soft tones. They also may be had in moleskin dyed bottle green or one of the browns.

Send in Society Items for Tribune.

Friends and patrons of The Daily Tribune are asked to mail or phone in personal and other social items. During the afternoon and evening such items should be 'phoned to Mrs. W. M. Sherrill, phone 186, and during the morning to The Tribune office, phone 78.

Miss Whitlock to Wed James O. Cobb.

The following announcement taken from the Charlotte News, will be of interest here, where Miss Whitlock has often visited, as the guest of Miss Adelaide Harris:

An announcement of wide interest to friends in the Carolinas and Virginia was that Saturday afternoon of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Virginia LeGrand Whitlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cameron Whitlock, of Myers Park, to James Orr Cobb, of Durham.

The marriage will take place in April.

Miss Whitlock is one of Charlotte's best-known and attractive young women of the college set. She was educated at Sweetbriar, Va. She was a member of the class of 1924 and was popular with members of the student body and faculty.

Of the blond type and exceptionally attractive, she also is known among her friends for her mental poise and her talents and accomplishments. Miss Whitlock is related to several of the families of Eastern North Carolina that have been distinguished in the history of the State. She is related to the family of Leonard Everett, of Rockingham, present illustrious potentate of Oasis Temple of the Mystic Shrine, and W. N. Everett, Secretary of State of North Carolina.

Mr. Cobb, the groom-to-be, is widely known and popular in this section of the State. He is a recent graduate of Davidson College.

Mrs. Bell in Concord Hospital.

Many friends of Mrs. Leslie Bell will regret to learn that she was operated on for appendicitis at the Concord Hospital on Sunday. Reports from the hospital state that Mrs. Bell stood the operation well.

American Legion Auxiliary Party.

A social event of much interest will be the sewing and card party given by the members of the American Legion Auxiliary at the Merchants and Manufacturers Club Tuesday at 8 o'clock in the afternoon and 8 o'clock in the evening.

American Legion Auxiliary to Meet.

The regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. E. Jones, on North Union street.

Has Tonsils Removed.

Jean Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Cook, underwent an operation here today for the removal of her tonsils.

BRONCHITIS

Apply Vicks VapoRub at bedtime, rubbing it well in. Then spread on thickly and cover with hot flannel. Arrange bed-clothes so vapors will be inhaled.

Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

BEAUTIFUL BLUE WHITE DIAMONDS

Sparkling With Fire and Splendor

All carefully selected for their perfect cutting, rich color, and wonderful brilliancy. The mountings are of 18k solid white gold, also yellow gold, very latest designs, artistically engraved and pierced. Easy terms.

S. W. Preslar JEWELER

Ask us about the "Lucky Two-hundredth"

PERSONAL

Charlotte Observer: Misses Louise and Alice Gibbon and Miss Adelaide Harris, the latter of Concord, are attending the hops at the University of Virginia. En route to Charlottesville they spent several days visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ivey, Jr., at Lynchburg, Va. Mrs. Ivey was formerly Miss Eugenia Goodall, of Staunton, Va.

Misses Besse and Louise Webb were the guests of friends in Greensboro Sunday.

Mrs. A. R. Howard has been called to Asheville by the illness of her brother.

Dr. R. Matt Patterson, who has been confined to the Concord Hospital with influenza, is able to go out again.

Misses Eleanor and Lucy Crowell who spent the week-end in Concord, with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crowell, returned today to Queens College, in Charlotte.

H. P. Deaton, editor of the Mooreville Enterprise, spent Sunday here with his sister, Miss Jessie Deaton.

Mrs. W. D. Pemberton and Misses Mary Phifer and Adele Pemberton spent Saturday afternoon in Monroe. They were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Pemberton, Jr., of Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sherrill and daughter, Ellen Lewis, and Miss Lucy Richmond Lentz spent Sunday in Rock Hill with Miss Nancy Lentz, who is a student at Winthrop.

Miles H. Wolf, of Charlotte, spent Sunday in Concord with home folks.

Friends of E. F. White will be glad to learn that he is able to go out riding after an illness of several months.

Sterling Brown and Clarence Simpson spent Sunday in Dillon, S. C.

Miss Louise Austin, who has been confined to her room by illness, is able to be out.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Blanks and Mrs. Lillie Blanks were guests of friends in Monroe Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. J. W. Cannon leaves tonight for New York, where she will spend several days.

James Lneberger and Joe Barrier were visitors in Rock Hill Sunday.

E. C. Barnhardt, Jr., is able to be up, after an illness of several days. No decided change is reported in the condition of his son, E. C. Barnhardt 3rd, who has been sick since Saturday with influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Fink, of Mooreville, spent Sunday in Concord with relatives.

Mr. Cobb, the groom-to-be, is widely known and popular in this section of the State. He is a recent graduate of Davidson College.

Mrs. H. G. Black and children, of Charlotte, spent Sunday in Concord with relatives.

Rev. and Mrs. Shtford Peeler and Mrs. L. P. Davis, of Catawba College, Salisbury, were guests yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Barrier.

Ralph Lentz, of the State Highway department, spent the week-end in the city with his mother, Mrs. L. H. Lentz.

Joe Post and Joe Barrier will leave Tuesday for a week's trip to Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stepp, of Cherryville, N. C., spent the week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Rimer.

Miss Louise Morris, who is a student at Converse College, is spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Morris.

William Flove, who is attending school at Davidson College, spent Sunday with home folks.

The Christian Reid Book Club.

The Christian Reid Book Club held a most interesting meeting Saturday afternoon with Mrs. E. A. Brower as hostess.

Mrs. Y. A. Means being in charge of the program, had Florida as the afternoon's subject. Mrs. Means read an article on "Florida, the American Riviera," by Townsend. Mrs. D. G. Caldwell and Miss Betty Leslie gave sketches of Florida's flowers and fruits as well as the historic points-of-the-booming state.

Current events were given by the club members in response to the roll call.

Mrs. Brower served a delicious salad course to her guests.

Julia Magruder Book Club to Meet.

Mrs. R. P. Gibson will entertain the Julia Magruder Book Club Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at her home on South Union street, in honor of Mrs. Neils Gron, of New York, and Mrs. R. S. Young, of Cleveland, Ohio.

USE PENNY COLUMN—IT PAYS

JUNIOR COUNTY COUNCIL WILL BE ORGANIZED SOON

Members of Girls' Clubs to Perfect Organization at Their Meeting in March.

Members of girls' clubs from all parts of the county met here Saturday in the office of Miss Cooley, county home demonstration agent, and voted to organize a Junior County Council.

The organization was not perfected at the meeting due to the fact that the girls were not well acquainted with one another. A nominating committee was appointed and its report will be made at the next meeting, following which officers will be elected.

The Junior Council will meet in Miss Cooley's office on the second Saturday in each month. At the next meeting they hope they hear an address by Miss Martha Creighton, dietetic agent, who will be asked to attend the meeting and address the members on the purposes and work of their organization.

Miss Katherine Wolf Wins Distinction

The high honor of having received no grade lower than that of 1—, the highest rating in the system of grading used at North Carolina College at Greensboro—came to five students of that institution last semester, according to Miss Mary Taylor Moore, registrar, who recently completed a tabulation of the records of students with a view to determining the character of the work done in the several classes. One of the young ladies was Miss Katherine Wolf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Wolf, of Concord, and a graduate of the Concord high school. Concord city and Concord high school are justly proud of Miss Wolf's record.

Condition of Miss Bruton Not So Favorable

The condition of Miss Lela Bruton, who recently underwent an operation in a Charlotte hospital, was reported as not so favorable yesterday.

Miss Bruton planned to go to the home of her brother, Jesse Bruton, in Charlotte, yesterday but her condition would not permit her to leave the hospital.

Frances Carolyn McClellan Entertains

Frances Carolyn McClellan, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken McClellan, of Charlotte, entertained a number of little friends Thursday in honor of her third birthday anniversary. About twenty little ones present wished her many more happy birthdays.

Parents of Daughter.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith, 20 South Bowder street, February 13th, a daughter, Evon Bert. Mrs. Smith before marriage was Miss Jessie Rogers.

P. T. A. Meeting.

All members of the Parent-Teachers Association of the high school are urged to attend the meeting to be held Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the school building.

Health Club to Meet.

The White Hall Health Club will meet Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock at the home of Mrs. T. J. White.

The Central School Parent-Teachers Association.

The Central School Parent-Teachers Association will meet tomorrow (Tuesday) afternoon at 3:30 in the grammar school building.

Birth Announcement.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Duncan, announce the birth of a son, Jason Duncan, at their home on the Kannapolis road.

The Van Arnam Minstrels.

A man can learn to be a good mechanic, study until he becomes a great scholar or engage in business until he is rich, but a good comedian is just born that way and the best comedians are known as natural comedians. Van Arnam has secured for his Minstrel Show this season all "natural" comedians and as he gives the show his own personal attention, each one of the several fun-makers appearing in the First Part or Olio was selected on the merits of his own particular brand of humor. Mr. Van Arnam gives the same careful attention to every detail of his show and maintains the same high standard throughout the entire season which he sets at the beginning. Van Arnam and his minstrel company will be at the Concord Theatre one night only, Wednesday, February 17th.

No. 2 School Honor Roll.

First grade—Lilly Belle Johnston, Carleen Spang, Evelyn Cartwright, Laura Beaver, Mary Belle Hows, Howard Helms, Helen Weaver, Robert Green, Johnnie Jones, F. M. Sizemore, J. G. Coner, Jr., Helen Talbirt, Dorothy Honeycutt, Juanita Smith, Sarah Little, R. L. Cress, Fay Cook, Marshal Hughes, Zella Bratton, Ruth Cleaver.

Second grade—Elizabeth Ketter, Alice Little, Martha Penninger, Ruby Lee Herrin, Estella Allred, Juellie Brown, Paul Widenhouse, Dorothy Leifer.

Third grade—Fronnie Bratton, Ruth Gray, Janie Sloop.

Fourth grade—Lillian Ratte, Willie Furr, Walter Eury, Louise Helderman.

Fifth grade—Faye Calloway, Catherine Rowland, Beulah Williams.

Sixth grade—Rachel Williams, Edith Hughes, Eugene McLaurin, Margaret Bost, Fay Misenheimer, Nora Lee Misenheimer, Louise Hunter, Mildred Waddell, W. R. Murr, Rayfield Dunn.

Seventh grade—Margaret Hall, Craig Stratford.

The first accounting was done by cutting notches in a stick. Then came two sticks called "rally" for both creditor and debtor. When the day of settlement came both sticks had to have the same number of notches. Tellers in banks were first known as tally officers.

URGES FARMERS TO ATTEND DEMONSTRATIONS

R. D. Goodman Wants Farmers to Take Advantage of Opportunities Offered to Them.

R. D. Goodman, county farm agent, announces several demonstrations for the county during the week, and urges farmers to attend these demonstrations.

R. W. Graeber, extension forester, will give a demonstration in forestry management on the farm of J. C. Deaton, near Enochville, Rowan county, on Wednesday, beginning at 10 a. m. This will afford an opportunity for those living in the northwest part of the county to get valuable information on this important subject," Mr. Goodman stated.

Tomorrow morning Mr. Goodman will give a pruning demonstration at the home of W. L. H. Baker near Midland and in the afternoon he will be at the orchard of J. L. Jenkins, of Stanfield, Route No. 2.

Thursday the poultryhouse started last week at the home of P. W. L. Klutz will be finished. Only the frame was erected last week due to inclement weather. This demonstration will be given Thursday afternoon.

Death of Mrs. W. T. Davis, of Goldsboro.

J. E. and A. B. Davis returned on Sunday from Goldsboro, where they were called by the illness and death of their mother, Mrs. W. T. Davis.

Mrs. Davis, who was 69 years of age, was ill about three weeks, death being caused by heart trouble. She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Thigpen, early Friday morning and funeral services were held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the home. Interment was made in the Dean burial grounds near the late home of the deceased.

Mrs. Davis is survived by thirteen children, as follows: Mesdames J. H. Thigpen and N. O. Edgerston, and Messrs. W. F. R. A., N. W. C. L., W. L., and G. C. Davis, of Goldsboro; Mrs. Oscar Crumpler, of Swansboro; Mrs. Grover Mills, of Cape Charles, Va.; and Messrs. J. E. and A. B. Davis, of Concord, and E. C. Davis, of Newark, Del.

Mrs. J. E. Davis and children, also went to Goldsboro for the funeral.

Bird Day Postponed.

Observance of Bird Day, sponsored here by the Woman's Club, has been postponed from Friday of this week until Friday of next week.

Members of the club are anxious for every boy in the city to build a bird house before that date and they have been advised that numbers already have been erected. Six prizes are to be offered, three to go to boys under twelve years of age and three to boys more than 12 years old.

Attractive prizes also are to be given to girls making the best bird posters. The houses and posters are to be exhibited on Bird Day.

Plans For 1926 Garden Campaign.

Miss Cooley, county home demonstration agent, has received from Raleigh data concerning the 1926 Statewide "Better Year-Round Farm Home Garden Contest."

The contest will begin March first and Miss Cooley expects a number of Cabarrus farmers and farm women to enter it. Rules and regulations for the contest will be announced later.

Y. M. C. A. Theatre KANNAPOLIS

3 NIGHTS STARTING MON. FEB. 15

New Plays and Vaudeville

Opening Play Monday Night

"The Girl From Childs"

Story of a spite bride, love, laughter and tears. A story that grips the heart one minute and tickles the funny bone the next. A play with 387 laughs by actual count.

NOTE—Best Play Shannons ever played.

Prices reduced for this engagement—25c and 50c

SKINNY MEN GLAD

Doctors and good pharmacists know that Cod Liver Oil is full of vitamins that make flesh, create appetite, builds up the power to resist disease and puts good solid flesh on skinny men and women.

But it's horrible tasting stuff and every day fewer people are taking it, for doctors are prescribing and people are fast learning that they can get better results with McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets, which the Pearl Drug Co. and druggists all over the country are having a tremendous demand for.

One woman gained 10 pounds in 22 days and if any skinny man or woman can't put on 5 pounds in 30 days, your druggist is authorized to refund the purchase price.

Be sure and get McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—60 tablets—60 cents.

WELL KNOWN FARMER OF COUNTY DIED AT HOME

A. J. Shinn Died at 5 O'clock This Morning After An Illness of Two Weeks.

A. J. Shinn, well known farmer of No. 5 township, this county, died at his home this morning after an illness of two weeks. Death was due to heart trouble.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at Mt. Carmel Methodist Church and interment will be made in the Church cemetery.

Mr. Shinn was 77 years of age and was born and reared in Cabarrus county. He was a member of the Methodist Church and was widely known throughout the county.

He is survived by his wife and the following children: Mrs. Kelly Lyles and Mrs. C. D. Foil, of Concord; and M. J. and T. S. Shinn, of No. 5 township. Twelve grand-children and four great-grand-children also survive.

AGREE ON PLANS FOR NEW HIGH SCHOOLS

Plans Will Be Incorporated in Specifications of Architect.—Will Start Work Soon.

The county board of education, meeting here Saturday afternoon, agreed upon details for the new county high school buildings and these details will be incorporated in the plans and specifications being drawn by the architect, M. R. Marsh. It is hoped to have the plans drawn by the middle of the week.

In this connection the official report received from the State superintendent of public instruction, telling of finances allotted to the county for building purposes, was read.

It was reported after the meeting that wells are being dug on the sites for two of the new buildings and active work of breaking ground for the structures is expected to begin within the next few weeks.

Speaks to Monroe Women.

H. W. Blanks spoke Saturday afternoon before members of a book club in Monroe, being invited to make the address by Miss Ethel Boyder, of Charlotte.

Mr. Blanks spoke on "Travel," and was heard with much interest. He was accompanied to Monroe by Mrs. Blanks and daughter, Lorraine, and Mrs. Lilly F. Blanks.

In A. D. 1000 the Norsemen established a republic in Greenland. The remains of their churches are to be seen today. This colony was the first to be established by white people anywhere in the western hemisphere.

Good nature is good business.

For Your Family's Future

Your prudence and business judgment can be perpetuated by the service and experience of our Trust Department.

Let us explain how you can arrange to have us serve as your executor or trustee.

Citizens Bank and Trust Company

CONCORD, N. C.

A. F. GOODMAN Trust Officer.

J.C. Penney Co. A NATION-WIDE INSTITUTION DEPARTMENT STORES

80-84 South Union Street, Concord, N. C.

All Set for Spring!

Suits for Young Men That Fairly Breathe Value—

$29.75

The English Two-Button model has the call, the season's most popular, easy-fitting style.

- Single breasted, notch or peak lapel;
- Semi-Straight Back;
- Straight-Fitting Trousers;
- Unfinished Woreds;
- Long-Wearing Cassimeres;
- Mixtures, Herringbones, Stripes.

Others at $19.75, $24.75, $34.75

K. L. CRAVEN & SONS

PHONE 74

COAL

Wood
Lime
Cement
Plaster
Mortar Colors

WAYS GET RESULTS OUR PENNY ADS. ALL

Save the surface and you save all Paint & Varnish

Moore's Paint Moore's Paint

Moore's Semi-paste Paint is made from the very best and most lasting pigments, combined with pure linseed oil and high grade liquid drier. We feel confident in saying that Moore's Semi-paste Paint is not only cheaper. But when properly applied, will last and hold its color longer, and give better satisfaction than any other paint on the market.

IF YOU HAVEN'T GOT THE READY CASH COME IN AND LET US EXPLAIN OUR EASY PAYMENT PROPOSITION TO YOU.

DON'T PUT IT OFF—PUT IT ON.

We now have a Big Complete Stock of Moore's Paints, Stains, Enamels, Varnishes, Brushes—in fact anything to do your paint job. You will certainly save by seeing us before doing that spring painting.

YORKE & WADSWORTH CO.

The Old Reliable Hardware Store

Phone 30 Concord, N. C. Phone 30