Venus receives so many nice letters on different subjects it would be interesting if we could put them all in our items. Here is one we just received:

Kannapolis, N. C., Feb. 3, 1926.
Dear Venus: I observe from reading your items in the papers that you are very much interested in old relics or things in general pertaining to old age. My neighbor, Mr. A. L. Balding, has in his possession a hen fifteen years old. She is in good condition and still producing eggs. Mr. Balding prizes this hen to the extent that at her death he will no doubt erect a monument in memory of her which will probably bear an inscription similar to the following: Here lies a hen beneath the clay, that helped to keep the wolf away; by laying eggs the whole year through, to pay the bills as they came due. We felt sad and could have cried when this old hen lay down and died. She's dead and gone, but you can bet that this old hen we won't forget.
Now, Mr. Venus if you can beat this for an old hen trot her out. Mr. Balding asked me to write you about the hen but he doesn't know just what I have written. Should he see this in your items and get sore, we will purchase a jar of your eczema salve and give him a good greasing all over. Yours very truly,

C. L. STURRETT.

If anybody can beat that for an old hen trot out your hen.
Mr. L. F. Ward, of Kannapolis, who died at the Salisbury Hospital from injuries received in an automobile wreck, was brought to Faith to the home of his son, C. A. Ward, Tuesday. The burial took place from the Reformed Church Wednesday, February 10th. The funeral was conducted by Rev. J. D. Andrews, of the Reformed Church, to one of the largest congregations that we have seen in the new church. The church was crowded with friends and relatives. Mr. Ward was a mighty good man and everybody liked him. He formerly lived in Faith for several years, but had moved to Kannapolis some years ago. Pall bearers were: L. M. Peeler, Charley Shrive, T. R. Lingle, Henry Hess, John L. Peeler and Will Stirewalt. Flower girls were: Omelia Stirewalt, Gladys Peeler, Catherine Deal, Juanita Gardner, Mildred Gardner and Leola Gardner. The most beautiful flowers were placed on the grave by loving friends. His brother, G. A. Ward, from Valdeese, N. C., and his brother, Samuel Ward, of Morgan township, Salisbury Route 4, were present, besides a host of other relatives and friends.

GEORGEVILLE.

The Community Club was given a real treat on last Tuesday night when the club was entertained by the health pictures shown by our County health physician, Dr. S. E. Buchanan. A very large number was present and enjoyed the pictures and also at the same time finding them very interesting and educational. At this meeting a committee of nine was appointed to make plans for entering a booth at the coming fair.

Miss Allie Teeter is spending a while with her parents here.

Mr. A. Eudy is confined to his room on account of sickness.

Rev. Mr. Scott preached a very interesting sermon at Center Grove Methodist Church on last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. W. W. Harrington spent the week-end with his sister in Alexis. Miss Elma Eudy, Mr. J. F. Eudy and children spent Sunday in Denton with Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Eudy.

Misses Inez and Laura Mae Shin spent Saturday in Concord.

Georgeville was victorious Friday afternoon when they played High Point in a game of basketball. The game was very interesting throughout.

Mrs. S. A. Eudy and daughter, Mary Louise, of Concord.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Eudy, of Albemarle, spent Sunday with Mr. A. Eudy.

The condition of A. F. Furr, who has been confined to his room most all winter, is now improving.

Harry Barrier, who is attending school at M. P. C. I., spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. M. F. Barrier.

The seats ordered for the school arrived last week and have been put up. These add very much to the appearance of the room. TULIP.

We attended the sale of L. A. Peeler, near St. Paul's Church Thursday and bought a few old things. T. E. Webb was crier of the sale. S. H. Goodman cashier, J. T. Webb, clerk. Some things sold high, some cheap. J. F. Coon got the walnut fall leaf table for $3.25. Mr. Stiller got the sewing machine for $2.75. J. L. Shoaf got the old time concert roller organ for $3.50. J. T. Webb got the old time fine walnut beam for $7.50. Large washpot L. H. Coon got for $3.65; Mr. Stiller got the scales for $2.30.

Adolphus Brown got all the wheat at $1.75 per bushel. Corn brought $1.45 per bushel. A lot of straw brought $5. Mr. Troutman got a lot of hay for $0. Mr. Troutman got 80 bundles of fodder for 2-4 cents per bundle. J. R. Stiller got the old time grain cradle. Tops brought 7-12 cents a bundle. L. H. Coon got the horse for $76.50. One cow brought $36, one $32 and a calf brought $15. Mr. J. L. Shoaf got them all. W. A. Ritchie got the big barrel of apple vinegar for $6.50. A lot of stove wood brought $8. Mr. Shoaf got it. Rev. Mr. Ridenhour, who was one that was bidding on the old time ricket racket bug, got it knocked off to him for 65 cents. Of course he didn't want it and he was trying to get rid of it. J. R. Stiller got the Ford car for $276. It was nearly new.

We met Mr. and Mrs. Everett Glover in his fine car and took a little trip with them. He has the prettiest girl you ever saw for his wife.

One of the clerks at the postoffice in Salisbury is getting 100 per cent eggs from his flock of hens. We will have to get some of that breed of chickens. It beats us.

J. R. Stiller is going to haul sand to be used in Salisbury. He is a fine young man and does about. That's the way to do.

R. A. Raney went to Salisbury today after a load of goods for his store here in Faith.

Peeler and Fraley are selling and installing radio sets to beat the band.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Peeler's little baby is one year old today and he is walking alone. On Feb. 12, he got nine dollars in cash from people for a birthday present.

We visited our old friend, Mr. J. M. Miller, at Miller's Store 22 E. Council street, Salisbury. He is one of the cleverest merchants in Salisbury. He showed us his pretty store. It was a treat to see how nice things were arranged.

A lady of South Richmond, Va., R. P. D. 8 sends for Eucema Salve for her mother, who has it on her hands.

Venus wants to get a rattlesnake. If some little boy or girl will write and tell us where we can get one, we will give them 25 cents provided we get it, dead or alive. Prefer a dead one recently killed. We want to stuff the skin for our collection and render the oil out of its body. We found a use for the oil and will tell you what we want it for if you send stamps to cover reply. If anyone has any pure rattlesnake oil, 5 or 10 drops, write to Venus, Salisbury, N. C., R. 3, box 10. VENUS.

A native magistrate in the Chinese province of Chihli, who is a Christian follower of Marabai Feng, has set about to abolish the centuries-old custom of foot-binding among women. His decree orders that the older women shall unbind partially and the younger ones wholly. It is further provided that the women's feet shall be subject to an official inspection every ten days, and heavy fines are to be imposed on those who have disobeyed the order.

MARY WASHINGTON MONUMENT

The Mary Washington Monument at Fredericksburg, Virginia, the shaft is unique, for it is the only monument ever erected by women to a woman and honors the mother of George Washington, the "Father" of his country.

Not far from the shaft stands, beautifully preserved, the home of Washington's sister, "Kenmore" and the house where Mary Washington lived until she died. The present owners have carefully preserved the historic garden where the mother of Washington spent many of her days amid the quaint old-fashioned flowers of the South. Here it was that Washington, enroute to his inaugural as president of the United States, stopped and said good-bye to his remaining parent.

Afflicted by an incurable malady in its advanced stages Washington knew when he took her in his arms and said farewell, that he would never see her again. She died a few weeks later after living to see her son the first president of the United States.

JERRY M. BROWN, OF SALISBURY, IS DEAD

Well Known Business Man Succumbs After Illness of Week—Funeral This Afternoon.

Salisbury, Feb. 15.—Jerry M. Brown, well known and loved citizen, died today at his home on South Main street. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 4 o'clock from the First Presbyterian church, of which Mr. Brown had been a member for many years.

Mr. Brown had been ill for a week or more but it was not thought to be a serious ailment until he took a turn for the worse Sunday.

He was 75 years old and was a native of Salisbury. In his youth he clerked and later entered business for himself, his store being one of the best known in this section. In recent years he had been connected with tax collecting offices of the city and county. He was twice married and is survived by his wife and four children. One son Kenneth Brown, is with the Southern railway in Washington, D. C., one daughter, Mrs. E. B. Denny, lives at Gastonia, and two daughters, Mrs. Stable Linn and Mrs. Walter Goodman, live in Salisbury.

YOUTH SENTENCED TO GO TO SUNDAY SCHOOL YEAR

Guy Northcutt, of High Point, Convicted of Stealing, Must Be Good Henceforth.

High Point, Feb. 15.—Guy Northcutt, 17, was convicted of breaking, entering and stealing, was sentenced to serve a year in Sunday school by Judge D. C. MacRae. In case Northcutt refuses to go to Sunday school each Sunday morning, he will be imprisoned and sent to the county roads for two years.

Edwin Dicken, 18, convicted of a similar charge, was given a suspended sentence providing he would return to Roanoke, a., to live with his father and mother and not come back to High Point for a period of two years.

Four boys, including Northcutt and Dicken, were arraigned for breaking into a wholesale grocery store here last week, and stealing a quantity of cigarettes, and a small amount of cash. Two of them were referred to the juvenile court.

When it's your birthday—and celebrating friends flock in for the glad event—when happy thoughts and laughter fill all the house—have a Camel!

WHEN your own birthday again has come. And well-wishing friends troop in with gay congratulation. When your festive halls resound with laughter and happy praise—then how fitting are those words, "Have a Camel!"

For no man has ever lived long enough to find a better, more friendly cigarette than Camel. Camel goodness grows more mellow, more joyous with every passing year. There's not a tired taste, not a cigaretty after-taste in a whole lifetime of Camels. Camels are rolled from the choicest tobaccos grown in all the world. Millions of experienced smokers have found in Camels such lasting contentment as they never hoped to find in a cigarette.

So this night as at your birthday festivities you revel in the sheerest joy this old world affords—taste then the fragrance, the goodness of the primest cigarette ever made. On this day of days you and your friends deserve the best.

Have a Camel!

Our highest wish, if you do not yet know Camel quality, is that you try them. We invite you to compare Camels with any cigarette made at any price.

R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

Camels contain the very choicest tobaccos grown in all the world. Camels are blended by the world's most expert blenders. Nothing is too good for Camels. In the making of this one brand we concentrate the tobacco knowledge and skill of the largest organization of tobacco experts in the world. No other cigarette made is like Camels. They are the overwhelming choice of experienced smokers.
