

SOCIETY

Enslaved

The very newest thing in jewelry, just in on a steamer, is Babylonian, of the type worn by slaves. It is rich yellow gold, and usually large and cumbersome. These three bracelets are copies of the originals.

Mrs. Jones Entertains Study Club. The Study Club held an interesting meeting Thursday with Mrs. R. E. Jones as hostess.

During the business session, the club decided to publish certain papers, written by club members, on Concord and Cabarrus, and left the matter in charge of the committee.

Mrs. Jones read Elbert Hubbard's entertaining history of George Washington, while Mrs. D. L. Bost gave excerpts from Lincoln's speech on Washington. Miss Jenn Coltrane read Washington's prayer for his country.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Jones invited her guests into the dining room, where a salad course was served. Yellow candles and jonquils were the table decorations, with bunches of cherries marking the place of each guest.

Those present were: Mesdames D. L. Bost, W. W. Flowe, C. R. Wagoner, I. I. Davis, E. Sauvain, and W. M. Sherrill, and Mesdames Mary King and Jenn Winslow Coltrane.

Miss Gladstone to Address Teachers.

Miss Grace Gladstone, head of the normal department of the Farm Life School at China Grove, will lead the discussion at the meeting of the primary teachers of the county here tomorrow.

The teachers will hold their conference in the court house beginning at 10:30 in the morning. Prof. J. B. Robertson, superintendent of the county schools, will be general supervisor of the meeting.

Teachers present will discuss the lesson mapped out for them in their reading course, with Miss Gladstone acting as instructor.

Wincoff Community Club to Meet on Monday Night.

A regular meeting of the Wincoff Community Club will be held Monday night at 7:30 at the high school building near Cook's Crossing.

Dr. S. E. Buchanan will be a guest at the meeting and will show a series of health pictures.

Mrs. Lore Hostess to Sewing Club.

Mrs. George M. Lore entertained the Sewing Club at a delightful meeting on Thursday afternoon at her home on West Depot street.

After a pleasant hour spent in sewing, Mrs. Lore invited the guests into the dining room, where a delicious salad course was served.

The members of the club who were present were: Mesdames M. L. Marsh, A. M. Brown, R. E. Ridenhour, J. F. Goodson, W. S. Birmingham, C. F. Ritchie, W. D. Pemberton and W. L. Bell.

Child Is Improving.

Improvement is reported in the condition of Jean Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Cook, who recently underwent an operation here for the removal of her tonsils and adenoids.

BRONCHITIS

Apply Vicks at bedtime, rubbing it well in. Then spread on thickly and cover with hot flannel. Arrange bed-clothes so vapors will be inhaled.

Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

BEAUTIFUL BLUE WHITE DIAMONDS Sparkling With Fire and Splendor.

All carefully selected for their perfect cutting, rich color, and wonderful brilliancy. The mountings are of 18k solid white gold, also yellow gold, very latest designs, artistically engraved and pierced. Easy terms.

S. W. Prealar JEWELER Ask us about the "Lucky Two-hundredth"

PERSONAL

Miss Penelope Cannon, who is attending school in Washington, D. C., will arrive today to spend several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cannon.

Mrs. Ernest Robinson left this afternoon for Winston-Salem, where she will visit friends in the city, and Salem College.

Mrs. I. I. Davis, and Mrs. G. L. Patterson were in Charlotte Thursday morning.

Mrs. C. W. Byrd, Mrs. J. A. Hartwell and Mrs. S. L. Brown were visitors in Charlotte Thursday.

R. E. Proctor, of Denver, was a recent visitor in Concord.

Miss Jenn Coltrane is the guest of Mrs. E. C. Gregory in Salisbury today.

Mrs. J. E. Smoot left this morning for High Point, where she will visit here sister, Mrs. T. Wingate Andrews for several days.

Miss Lela Bruton returned home Wednesday night, after undergoing treatment in a Charlotte hospital.

Miss Edith Guffy will arrive tonight from Duke University to visit her sister, Mrs. L. L. Mauldin. Miss Guffy is recovering from a recent nervous breakdown.

Emery Todd and daughter, Miss Fay Todd, and Blain Meins, of Alleghany county, spent Thursday night and Friday morning here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Todd, on Moore street.

G. B. Lewis, Jr., arrived this morning from the Episcopal high school, Alexandria, Va., to spend some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Lewis, on South Union street. Mr. Lewis is recovering from influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kennett returned Thursday from Greensboro, where they attended the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bergman, the latter a sister of Mr. Kennett.

Mrs. W. D. Pemberton, Mrs. R. E. Ridenhour, and Mrs. John K. Patterson, officers of the Concord War Mothers, are meeting in Charlotte this afternoon with officers of the Charlotte and Gastonia War Mothers.

Miss Virginia Batte will arrive tomorrow to spend the week-end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bate. Miss Margaret Beam and Miss Merle Harvey, classmates of Miss Batte at N. C. C. W., will be her guests for the week-end.

Mrs. A. E. Harris and daughter, Leany, have returned from a visit to the former's father, J. E. Efrid, in Anson county.

Mr. Craven, auditor for the Bell stores, was a business visitor in Concord Thursday.

Miss Lottie Boyd was called to Asheville today on account of the illness of her sister, Mrs. W. B. Schorr. Mrs. Schorr on Wednesday night sustained injuries from a fall at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bergman Hosts in Honor of Their Children.

The following of interest in Concord appeared in this morning's Greensboro News:

Wednesday at their home on the Winston-Salem road Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bergman entertained their children and grandchildren at their luncheon and Wednesday night from 7 to 9 o'clock gave an informal reception in celebration of their fiftieth anniversary.

Receiving at the front door were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Boren, Jr. In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bergman, Mrs. Sarah Baxter, N. F. Slack, Jackson.

Presiding over the guest book and gift tables were Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bergman, and directing the guests into the dining room were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bergman.

The dining room was attractively arranged with quantities of pink roses, palms and fern, while pink tapers in gilt holders were used effectively. Mrs. Berta Bergman and W. K. Bergman received in this room, and serving refreshments were Mrs. Cecil Boren, F. B. Abernathy, J. L. Sink and Miss Helen Slack.

About 100 guests called during the evening.

Out-of-town guests here for the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bergman, Miss Elizabeth Bergman, Mrs. Lonnie Gilliland, all of Winston-Salem; Mrs. F. B. Abernathy, of Mooresville; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kennett, of Concord; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kennett, of Mooresville, and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sink, of Lexington.

Mrs. Pemberton Class Meets. The Ellen Pemberton Sunday School class of Central Methodist Church held its regular monthly meeting Thursday evening at the home of Miss Helen Suther on North Church street, the hostesses being Miss Suther, Miss Mary Propst and Mrs. A. G. Smith.

The class president, Miss Ruth Crowell, presided and sixteen members were present. Aside from the regular business program it was decided that the class hold a silver tea at the church on Saturday, March 6th. Particulars are to be announced later. The business session was followed by an enjoyable social period during which delightful refreshments were served.

Mr. Troutman Back at Work. Frank Troutman is back at work with the Gibson Drug Store after being confined to his home on North Spring street for several days by illness.

BOOK CLUB MEMBERS ENTERTAIN HUSBANDS

Delightful Social Event Thursday Evening at Mrs. W. M. Linker's Home. A delightful social event of Thursday evening was a buffet supper which was given at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Linker by the members of the Friday Afternoon Book Club in honor of their husbands. An elaborate and delicious supper was served in buffet style.

Just after the first course, Mrs. J. F. Dayvault, who was the graceful toastmistress of the occasion called on Mrs. Frank Armfield, who gave a witty toast, "To the Husbands." The response was made by H. S. Williams in a bright and appropriate speech. Little Frances Robertson, of Charlotte sang several catchy songs with accompaniment on the ukelele, and then later, gave a very skillful exhibition of the Charleston. After the completion of the supper, Mrs. H. S. Williams gave a reading, a parody on Kipling's "If", which made quite a hit. Then Mrs. J. G. Parks gave a delightful reading called "Me and Mary" which was much enjoyed.

A little one-act play entitled "Woman Will Talk" was then presented by Mesdames Williams, Craven, Blanks, Dayvault, Youngblood, Niblock, Davis and Goodman. This was well rendered and created great amusement for the audience. Good impromptu speeches were made by Mrs. Lillia Blanks and Messrs. Niblock, Blanks and Armfield.

The guests were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Youngblood, Dr. and Mrs. F. R. MacFadyen, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Niblock, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Parks, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Blanks, Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dayvault, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Craven, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Armfield, Mrs. Lillie Blanks, Francis Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Linker.

After a peep into the nursery where the six beautiful little Linkers were sleeping the sleep of innocence, the guests reluctantly said "good-night" to their charming host and hostess.

Mrs. Armfield's toast follows: Ladies of the Friday Afternoon Book Club—and husbands! "You would scarce expect one of my age

To speak in public on the stage." I do not understand why I was chosen for the important task of giving a toast to the husbands upon this interesting occasion. There's Mrs. Williams. I feel sure that she was born making a speech. And there's Mrs. Dayvault. Anybody can look at Jim Dayvault and see that that man has been talked nearly to death. And there's Mrs. Linker. She talks so much sometimes I am afraid that she will be like that man in mythology who just talked and talked till he dwindled away and there was nothing left of him but his voice.

The only speech of importance that I ever made in a crowd was made long years ago, when the preacher said: "Do you take this man?" I glibly said: "I do," and I have not recovered from the consequences of that speech to this day. That may be the reason I am shy about speaking in public.

As for the party of the second part I do not recall that he uttered a word. Although he is a speaker by profession, his tongue clove to the roof of his mouth. Yet he suffered the same consequences that I did. But he is a pretty good sport. And he has told me in confidence that that verse of Scripture which has been the greatest consolation to him in all these long years is that verse which says: "Grim and bear it."

A long time ago my grandmother, who was a woman of fine common sense, said to me one day very earnestly: "Every girl ought to get married." I said: "But Grandma, suppose that she gets a bad husband?" Then my grand-mother replied: "Don't you know, child, that a bad husband is better than no husband at all?"

Those words made a profound impression on my mind. I think that they were the cause of my marriage. I have never found any other good and sufficient reason for it. And as I look around at this bunch of husbands assembled here I cannot see any good and sufficient reason why these other ladies took the same step.

However, we are all married and we can learn much from our husbands. First of all, punctuality. I have never seen anybody as punctual as a husband, especially at meal-time. One of these days when the cook has gone "glimmering among the dreams of things that were," when confusion reigns upstairs and downstairs and in midday's chamber, ain't it a grand and glorious feeling to see the manly form of Friend Husband looming up the front walk about 11:30. That is running punctuality into the ground.

As I close my gambling, foolish remarks I can leave no better words with you than these of the immortal Shakespeare: "Thy husband is thy lord, thy life, thy keeper, Thy head, thy sovereign, one that cares for thee, And for thy maintenance commits his body

To powerful labor, both by sea and land; To watch the night in storms, the day in cold, Whilst thou stayest warm at home, secure and safe.

As we wives pilot our boats over the sea of matrimony we should toss an occasional bouquet to the stoker down in the hold, who feeds the furnace and keeps the good ship going. And so I ask you to join me tonight in a toast to the health of our husbands—our best friends, our interesting companions and our wonderful lovers!

X.

Send in Society Items for Tribune. Friends and patrons of The Daily Tribune are asked to mail or phone in personals and other social items.

During the afternoon and evening such items should be phoned to Mrs. W. M. Sherrill, phone 180, and during the morning to The Tribune office, phone 78.

Beginning Monday

Daily Thereafter

TOM SIMS SAYS

When a dog belongs to anyone else it hasn't much sense.

A bachelor is a man who was foolish for being too sensible to marry. Blue blood comes from some ancestor who worked himself blue in the face.

Making a fortune is easy. It just seems hard because you need three or four of them for living purposes. Spaghetti is nothing more than macaroni with a defective thyroid gland. The largest fish are caught on a line of conversation.

(Copyright 1925, NEA Service, Inc.)

Appropriately Named.

Winston-Salem Sentinel. Salisbury's new half-million-dollar high school has been named very appropriately the Boyden high school, in honor of Col. A. H. Boyden, who has done so much for education and other worth-while public causes in Salisbury. Col. Boyden, who is the father of Mrs. Burton Craige, of this city, is a man who has a high conception of the obligations of citizenship and in honoring him while he still lives the people of the Rowan capital have done well indeed. The plan they are carrying out in this instance might well be followed more often.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown Move to Concord.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brown are making their home at present in Concord. Mr. Brown being an engineer engaged on the Mt. Pleasant-Albemarle road. They are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hill, on Loan street.

Before her marriage Mrs. Brown was Miss Catherine Littlejohn, of Gaffney, S. C., and often visited here as the guest of Mrs. Hill.

The last six-master on the seven seas, the Edward J. Lawrence, went to her death in a crackling roar of flames while lying at anchor in Portland harbor, Maine.

Dancing Lessons

Each Saturday Afternoon From 2:00 to 4:00 O'clock Merchants and Manufacturers Club Classes Will Start on Saturday, February 20th

MISS DOROTHY MAL-LARDY Charlotte, N. C.

JOANNA

The intimate story of a beautiful girl of today.

With a mysterious million to spend.

A Princess in A Kingdom of Love and Money

A fascinating, breath-taking romance that will thrill you to the very last word.

The Most Fascinating Irresistible Story of the Day

Joanna with her million wants to see everything and know everything, yet she doesn't want to "have to make good."

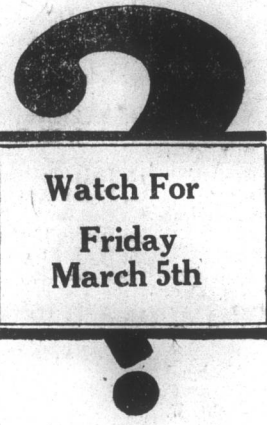

Beginning Monday

Daily Thereafter

Also Wild West No. 4 and Comedy Here Saturday

LAST TIME TODAY "Lady Windemere's Fan" Concord Theatre

Watch For Friday March 5th

J.C. Penney Co. DEPARTMENT STORES

80-84 South Union Street, Concord, N. C.

Little Fellows' Suits With Long Pants and Vests $7.90

Boys feel like big brother or Dad in these smart little long-pants suits. Well-made and tailored to our high standards. Newest mixtures in durable cassimeres. Sizes 3 to 8 years.

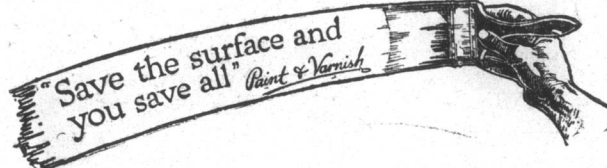

Juvenile Knee-Pants Suits—Coat and knee pants, in cassimeres; Spring colors and mixtures; 3 to 8 yrs.—$5.90 & $7.90. Juvenile Topcoats—$4.95 to $7.90.

K. L. CRAVEN & SONS

PHONE 74 COAL Wood Lime Cement Plaster Mortar Colors

OUR PENNY ADS. ALWAYS GET RESULTS WAYS GET RESULTSOUR PENNY ADS. AL

Moore's Paint Moore's Paint

Moore's Semi-paste Paint is made from the very best and most lasting pigments, combined with pure linseed oil and high grade liquid drier. We feel confident in saying that Moore's Semi-paste Paint is not only cheaper. But when properly applied, will last and hold its color longer, and give better satisfaction than any other paint on the market.

IF YOU HAVEN'T GOT THE READY CASH COME IN AND LET US EXPLAIN OUR EASY PAYMENT PROPOSITION TO YOU. DON'T PUT IT OFF—PUT IT ON.

We now have a Big Complete Stock of Moore's Paints, Stains, Enamels, Varnishes, Brushes—in fact anything to do your paint job. You will certainly save by seeing us before doing that spring painting.

YORKE & WADSWORTH CO.

The Old Reliable Hardware Store Phone 30 Concord, N. C. Phone 30