The initials immediately following the number of the case represent the attorney or attorneys in the case. Divorce cases not docketed by agreement of the Bar, will be called at the convenience of the Court. Witnesses need not attend until day set for trial. All cases not reached on day set will take precedence over cases of next day. This February 18, 1926.

J. B. McALLISTER, Clerk Superior Court.

The March number of Sportlife, a Macfadden publication, is filled with stories that will appeal to the sportsman whatever his hobby. There is "Across the Continent in a Motor Boat," the most unusual trans-continental journey yet to be chronicled, with John Edwin Hoag and Frank B. Wilson as the principals. "Spain's 'Red Grange'" is the account of Juan Belmonte, the sport hero of Spain and who is as popular in his own land as "Red Grange" and "Babe Ruth" are in this country. "Behind the Scenes in an Auto-Racing Pit" shows what happens off stage away from the eyes of the spectators. These are but a few of the features in this issue. The American Women's Club of London, which reaches its silver jubilee this year, has a membership of more than 1,100 women.

T. Estridge. Lloyd Gray, of Wake Forest, has been visiting his father, L. W. Gray. Lloyd Gray preached at Howells

Church Sunday evening. Mr. Gray is a young man and has been at Wake Forest for a year and a half. He is a fine young man and we wish him well. The wedding bells have been ringing again. Miss Wilson and Mr. Stancill were married last week. I think that all of the boys and girls are going to get married or it looks that way. It is mighty good to get help as it is coming worktime. A READER.

EASTERN NO. ELEVEN.

The farmers are sowing oats and making preparations for early vegetables. Mrs. Mary Biggers, who has been right sick for a week, does not improve much, we are sorry to say. Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Faggart and Miss Lucile Bost spent a while Monday evening in Kannapolis with Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Suther. Mrs. D. G. Bost returned home with them, having spent several days there on account of the serious illness of little Evelyn Suther. She was improving very slowly from an attack of influenza. Mrs. Haynes Platt, of No. 9, visited relatives here recently. Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Whitley, Messdames E. A. Platt, W. M. Faggart and James Pless spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Whitley. Miss Virginia Oline, of Mont Amonea Seminary, and Miss Ophelia Litaker, of Kannapolis, spent the week-end at their respective homes. X.

LOCUST.

A visit from the stork on last Friday, February 12th, resulted in a present to Mr. and Mrs. Fetzner Hartsell of a son. Miss Ethel Crayton, of Albemarle, was a week-end visitor at P. E. Tucker's. Adrian Simpson, of Apex, spent Saturday and Sunday here with his parents. Miss Vera Smith was confined to her room all of last week as the result of having a tooth extracted. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tucker are moving this week to Troy, where Mr. Tucker has employment. Miss Mary Furr, who works in Kannapolis, is spending the week here at her home. Aunt Martha Furr, of Union county, is visiting relatives and friends in this section. Heavy thunder clouds passed over and around early Sunday morning and also in the evening and at night becoming still heavier, pouring out a shower of hail—a real summertime hail storm. The kitchen campaign which has been on in this county for several months reached its climax Saturday when an all-day meeting was held in Albemarle. The members with a number of men who were interested assembled in the court house where enthusiastic speeches were made after which the dozens of prizes were delivered. An unusually attractive and appetizing dinner was served picnic style in the Community building which every one enjoyed immensely. Following this all were taken on a tour to visit the pretty kitchens in the county. P.

FURR NO. TWO.

The small grain is looking fine through this section since the recent cold snaps. Grier Whitley had a fine mule to die a few weeks ago. On last Sunday we had a very severe hail and electric storm but no serious damage was done. The cotton seed grader has been busy through this neighborhood all this week grading seed for planting. James Love and Miss Grace Love made a business trip to Monroe Tuesday. Most of the farmers are preparing their summer's stovewood and getting in shape for farming. And the farmers' wives are sowing seeds and making ready to plant gardens. We are having some fine weather for the past few days. The birds are singing, the frogs are howling, the mosquitoes are biting, the owls are hooting. The people all seem to be very well pleased with the wartime prices on provisions for money is hard to get with most of the farmers. But nevertheless they are trying to pull through. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Honeycutt spent Sunday with Paul Rinehardt, Zeb and Bryant Kennedy, of Concord, were visitors in this section Saturday. OLD GREY.

CENTER VIEW.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barnhardt and little grand-daughter, Agnes Pethel, of this place, returned from West Palm Beach, Fla., Saturday. They visited Mrs. Barnhardt's brother, Mr. Charles Winscott. They report a nice time, saying Florida is a real summer land, and wish we could have all been with them. Mrs. J. N. Seamons is visiting Mrs. B. H. Cook. Mr. H. M. Fink and family visited Mr. J. A. Wentz, of Midway Sunday. Mrs. Elmer Shinn has returned from the Charlotte Sanatorium, where she has been taking treatment. We are glad to note improvement in her condition. Miss Sarah Carthern, of Kannapolis, spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Margaret Custer. Mr. and Mrs. John Kincaid visited Mrs. B. H. Cook Sunday afternoon. We are glad to know that the little children of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Winscott are better. Miss Lavena and Master J. W. Cook visited Master Robert and Ruby Linn Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Peeler visited Mr. C. M. Linn Sunday. Mr. B. H. Cook and daughter visited Mr. J. A. Brantley's in No. 5 Sunday. We are glad to note that Mrs. B. H. Cook is improving. We all miss the presence of Mr. Lewis Troutman and family. They have moved to No. 10 township. BROWN BIRD.
