Better Rural Sanitary Conditions. Winston-Salem, Feb. 22.—(AP)—The transformation of the rural sections of Forsyth county to sanitary conditions within a period of two years is the program mapped out here by the county health department, which is under the direction of Dr. LeRoy Hegg.

The department has been doing considerable work along this line during the past year, but that work is considered largely in the nature of an educational campaign, and the scope of the work is to be greatly enlarged during the next two years, it is announced.

The rural citizenship is becoming aroused to the fact that sanitation is just as important as the improvement of farm methods, beautification of the home, and observing health precautions.

GILES MORGAN SHOT BY HORACE FURR NEAR CITY

Morgan Told Officers Shooting Was Accident—Furr Has Not Been Found.

Giles Morgan, Concord man, is in the Concord hospital suffering from a pistol wound inflicted this morning by Horace Furr, also of Concord. The shooting occurred at the farm of H. A. Goodman, near Concord.

Sheriff R. V. Caldwell, Jr., quotes Morgan as saying the shooting was an accident, the officer being told that Furr picked up the gun, which was lying on a table, and pulled the trigger, thinking it was not loaded.

Furr has not been located, the officers reported after a search at his home and other places where he is accustomed to spend his time.

Morgan was shot through the lungs, the bullet passing out of the lower part of his back. He was rushed to the Concord Hospital, where it is seriously wounded.

According to information gathered by the officers, the shooting occurred about 9 o'clock. Morgan told the officers that he and Furr went to the Goodman farm to see some chickens. Later they walked into the house where Furr picked up the gun. There was a man from Kannapolis in the room at the time, Morgan said, but the wounded man did not know him, he told the officers. Persons living at the farm told the officers they did not see the shooting, and they did not know the name of the third man in the room at the time of the shooting.

Sheriff Caldwell stated that he would continue the search for Furr.

REYNOLDS ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR SENATE

Asheville Man Thinks Appeal Favor of Democratic Voters May Cause Grief.

Formal announcement of candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the United States senate was received yesterday from Robert R. Reynolds, of Asheville. The announcement was not a shock, for

Mr. Reynolds had let it be known informally but generally, for some time, that he would aspire to the toga of Senator Lee S. Overman, of Salisbury. The two will fight it out in the Democratic primaries.

Senator Overman, while not yet having made a formal announcement, has said that he was not too old to make the race and it is generally expected that he will be a candidate for renomination.

Mr. Reynolds is an attorney. In the 1924 campaign he was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor.

Couple Found Dead Day After Wedding

New York, Feb. 21.—Surrounded by half-opened packages containing dozens of wedding presents, Pablo Rodriguez, 25, and his bride, Nadavido, 23, were found dead in bed from illuminating gas in their East-side home when friends called to congratulate them today on their marriage last night. The belief is that while the couple were opening packages after the guests had gone, a string caught and opened the burner of a gas stove. The string was found today, caught round the open burner.

COME TO VINCINGTON'S

I started so to see sadly I had changed since twenty years ago. It's just twenty years since I and my father opened up on Depot street. Considerable change in me and you and the stores. Mostly branches now of New York, Charlotte and other business houses who put the lure of buying power into their advertising and the power of prestige into their business and sell everything but love and liekey. All to the good and everybody dresses better, lives better and works less and has more fun. Very good. As to myself, I want to fuss less and work more from now on. Come to See PAT COVINGTON

Does higher education pay? Red Grange, college football star, made only $125,000 this season.

Yes, higher education pays. Woman in knee dresses can bum more ice cream sodas than ones in long dresses.

And higher education costs. Admiral Moffett wants 250 millions to build a gang of airplanes.
