Birthday Celebration.

Members of the Lutheran Brotherhood of Calvary E. L. Church were entertained by G. W. Petrea in honor of his 70th birthday anniversary Monday evening from 7:30 till 10 o'clock.

Fourteen brothers were present and they all joined in and sang some good old hymns played by Miss Dorothy Roberts.

B. A. Miller read the 23rd Psalm and offered prayer. Mr. Miller also made a talk on the Lutheran Church and its Brotherhood.

The pastor, Rev. M. L. Kester, in behalf of the members, presented Mr. Petrea with a handsome bath robe that he appreciated very much. Miss Myrtle Petrea played the victrola until Miss Carrie Petrea called us into the dining room that was beautifully decorated.

On the table was a large white cake with 25 candles forming the figures "70" which Mr. Petrea blew out. We were then served ice cream, cake, oranges and bananas.

We all returned to the reception room and Mr. Kester made a short talk. We all sang another good old hymn. Having had a good time we departed, wishing Mr. Petrea many more such birthdays.

ONE PRESENT.

ALEXANDER HELD FOR DEATH OF A. N. BOGER

Coroner's Jury Holds Raleigh Man Responsible For Death of Former Concord Citizen.

D. H. Alexander, of Raleigh, was ordered held Monday by a coroner's jury in Charlotte for the death of A. N. Boger, former resident of Concord, who died in a Charlotte Hospital last week of injuries alleged to have been received when struck by an auto driven by Alexander.

The Charlotte Observer of February 23rd has the following to say of the case: Acting on testimony presented by Alex West, city detective, a coroner's jury yesterday ruled that A. N. Boger, Mecklenburg hotel coffee shop manager, met death as the result of being struck by an automobile driven by D. H. Alexander in a drunken condition. Alexander was bound over to the grand jury under a $5,000 bond.

The inquest followed the death of Mr. Boger on Thursday from complications developing in a fracture of the skull and other injuries sustained in the accident Saturday night.

Alexander, who was at the wheel at the time, was charged with manslaughter and has been held under a $5,000 bond.

Mr. West testified that he and La E. Moser, another member of the city detective force, had arrested Mr. Alexander at the Charlotte sanatorium shortly after his arrival at that institution in the custody of two unknown men and that he had been too drunk to realize the gravity of conditions. The prisoner insisted on referring the matter to his insurance company, Mr. West said.

Other witnesses included Willie Flanagan, porter at the Mecklenburg hotel, and Mrs. J. C. Casker. Both were submitted to brief examinations relative to general conditions and appearances.

Members of the jury empaneled by Coroner Hovie included John M. Wilson, W. H. Miller, C. R. McGuinn, B. C. Levi, W. C. Boyd and George M. Phifer.

Alexander is a resident of Raleigh and is employed as traveling representative of an Ohio firm with headquarters at Greensboro.

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS

Attendance Monday Night Much Larger Than at First Session Sunday Afternoon.

Increased interest is being manifested in the standard training school for Sunday School Workers now being conducted at Central Methodist Church by the Methodist and Presbyterian denominations.

This was demonstrated Monday night when between 185 and 200 persons attended the first night session of the school, the attendance being much larger than it was Sunday afternoon for the opening session.

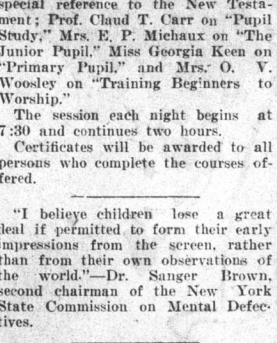

The courses in the school are being conducted by Rev. C. M. Pickens, who teaches "The Bible" with special reference to the New Testament; Prof. Claud T. Carr on "Pupil Study"; Mrs. E. P. Michaux on "The Junior Pupil"; and Mrs. O. Y. Woosley on "Training Beginners to Worship."

The session each night begins at 7:30 and continues two hours. Certificates will be awarded to all persons who complete the courses offered.

DREADFUL PAINS

Georgia Lady, Who Had Lost Too Much Weight, Was Advised to Take Cardui and Is Now Well.

Columbus, Ga.—Mrs. George S. Hunter, of this city, writes: "After I married, thirteen months ago, I suffered with dreadful pains in my sides during... My side hurt so bad it nearly killed me. I had to go to bed and stay sometimes two weeks at a time. I could not work and I just dragged around the house."

"I got very thin—I went from 126 pounds down to less than 100. My mother had long been a user of Cardui and she knew what a good medicine it was for this trouble, so she told me to get some and take it. I sent to the store after it and before I had taken the first bottle I began to improve."

"My side hurt less and I began to improve in health... The Cardui acted as a fine tonic and I do not feel like the same person. I am so much better. I am well now. I have gained ten pounds and am still gaining. My sides do not trouble me at all."

"I wish every suffering woman knew about Cardui." NC-160

THINKS GASTONIA FOLKS LOVE MONEY RIGHT WELL.

Gastonia Gazette.

Some one has disagreed with the editor in his statement that we are prone to worship money too much.

It would be interesting to estimate how badly behind the several churches of the city are in their annual budgets for their various benevolent causes this year—the Centenary, the 75 Million Campaign, the Progressive Program, Forward Movement, etc. It might be found that the love of money on the one hand had something to do with the lack of it on the other.

One might ask why there is no library in Gastonia. Or, why we have no Y. M. C. A. Z. Or why there is no war memorial? The answer might be found in the fact that Gastonians love their money better than they do these other things.

It might also explain why there is no hospital for the tuberculosis patients of the county, of whom a goodly number die every year for lack of treatment. The small amount of tax might be too much.

The lack of a public general hospital for the treatment of those who can not afford to pay the price in a private institution might be well laid at the door of Old Man Love of Money.

The worship of and greed for, money might also explain the countless number of bootleggers who come up to our courts every month. So are the bank defaulters and swindlers who rob many a poor man or widow of all their hard earned savings by a simple stroke of the pen, and then get off with a year or two in the pen. Note Salisbury, Wilmington, High Point, for instance.

It might also explain the several tragedies which have occurred in Gastonia the past few years. Whiskey figured in all of them—bootleg liquor made and sold for the money. Love of money again.

It might account for some of the wrecked homes and blasted lives—too fast a life, trying to keep up with those who had money, too rapid a gait, loose living, hard times, poverty, failure, separation—all because of a love of money and the things it will purchase.

It might also explain the presence on the roster of church officials, deacons, stewards, elders, in many a community, of names that are not so appropriate.

Their money put them there—a sad commentary on the state of the church.

It might explain also why the man with a million is exalted in the public eye even if he have not a scintilla of moral principle of character; why the biggest man in a community is not the statesman, scientist, scholar, the preacher, poet, but the man with a million or two.

There are many things which can be laid at the door of this love of money, and these enumerated are only a few.

March True Romances, a Macfadden publication, reveals a heart-stirring tale of a girl's struggle in "The Beauty Peddler." "When Romance Came" is Marjorie's own romance, while "Whispering Tongues" as its name implies depicts a boy's struggle against terrifying odds and the flaming romance of youth.

Professor Joseph Baroff who remained a week in a glass chamber, while all the air was pumped out except the minimum necessary to sustain life, gained a Cambridge University post.

The twenty-fourth annual North and South championship golf tournament for women is to be held at Pinehurst, N. C., March 25-30.
