Cathartics do not Stimulate the Liver

It has been supposed for generations that drugs could stimulate the liver. Now science knows they don't. That's why millions suffer from torpid liver, despite all laxatives.

That's why bile is scant. That's why poisons form in the intestines with no outlet. In all results, some of which are these:

- Indigestion, Constipation, High Blood Pressure, Now medical science finds that a gland secretion—ox-gall—does stimulate the liver. It has stood every clinical test. Physicians the world over now prescribe it, and they are getting amazing results.

Now it comes in tablets called Dioxol. Each tablet contains 10 drops of purified ox-gall. Results start in 24 hours. For countless people it is doing what nothing else has done. FAITH.

There is a gold mine in Rowan county where the shaft is sunk down thirty-three feet deep and the vein of gold is as rich as can be and the man who had it leased was so well pleased with it he was fixing to pay for it and work it and he took sick and died, and there has never been anything done to the mine since. The shaft is partly filled with water. It could be cleaned out for about $100.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Shire, at Chestnut Hill, have a baby seven weeks old that had six teeth when it was born and has several more now. Who can beat that?

Venus wants to know if any little girl or boy under ten years of age can tell him the names of all the governors of Virginia and also of Maryland from the beginning up to the present time. Whoever will tell us we will put their name in our items and show how smart they are if they are willing. They can say if they are willing when they write. Address Venus, Faith, N. C., Rowan county.

ENOCHVILLE.

Black-Eyed Susie wants to inform Busy Busy that she is as far off of her nest as far a duck that built in a tree as knowing who Black-Eyed Susie is. Busy Bee sure did back on her neighborhood news. It sure is queer but bees that buzz in the air never hear all. Black-Eyed Susie is not afraid of getting behind for she never was left like poor bees being robbed. Mrs. Triplett, of our town, has been confined to her home on account of illness.

Mr. Walter Belcher and Mr. Oscar Triplett have stopped work at the Cannon Mills and have accepted work at Cabarrus Mills. The many friends of Mr. Manuel Wright will be sorry to learn that his condition shows little improvement. Miss Anna Weddington, Mr. Walter Belcher and Miss Renner Carter and Mr. Walter Weddington all went to the show last Saturday night. Black-Eyed Susie has new onions almost large enough to eat. If you can beat that Busy Bee, trot out your onions.

The weather has begun to look very much like springtime and lots of people are making gardens. Come on, all of you that write items, and help Brown-Eyed Betty, Enochville. It seems like Busy Bee would like to change her name. First it is A Scribbler and then Busy Bee and then to Brown-Eyed Betty. Hurray, we know all of them names for the items all-sound alike to the writer. Mr. and Mrs. Clide Weddington and little son, Luther, were visitors Sunday at the home of Mrs. Elva Wed-

Mr. Paul Jones mashed his foot badly while hauling logs to his father's saw mill Monday morning. P.

WHITE HALL.

The meeting is still in progress at the schoolhouse. We do not know how long it will run. A paragraph appeared in The Tribune the past week about the fun we had here at the schoolhouse Tuesday night. Everyone, even the old folks, enjoyed the pictures. There was a small decrease in crime the past month. Our police must be getting behind the lawbreakers.

Concord is progressing in the building line. If our city keeps progressing as fast as it has been, it will soon be out to the Training School. Basketball seems to be through at White Hall. All the boys are now playing baseball. Company E is progressing in the basketball line this year so far they have not lost a game. Mr. Lloyd Garmon, of White Hall, is playing with the company.

Mrs. C. A. Harrison, of Salisbury, was a Saturday evening visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Christenbury on Route 7. Mr. Robert Christenbury is on the sick list. The story "Satan in Sables," will soon come to a close in The Tribune. But we know and you know that The Tribune will give us another good story of adventure.

The White Hall Literary Society met Friday, February 19, 1926. The program was rendered as follows: Roll called and minutes read. Each member answered by a quotation from some famous author. Below this program you will find three of the best quotations. The rest of the program was as follows: Jokes—Mable Sanders. Recitation—Harold Crooks.

Debate—Query: Resolved that Cabarrus county should adopt the consolidation of schools. The judges decided in favor of the negative, which was upheld by Floyd Garmon and Miss Estell Best. The affirmative was defended by James Auten and Miss Lena Hudson.

EASTERN NUMBER ELEVEN.

Mrs. Mary Hartwell Biggers was born May 2, 1847, and died February 21, 1926, age, 78 years, nine months and 19 days. She was married about the age of 18 to Mack Biggers. To this union five sons were born—J. R., T. D., W. M. and E. J., of this neighborhood, and Luther Biggers, of Spencer. Her husband preceded her to the grave about 24 years ago. Left alone, she remained in the old home in commonly good health until about two weeks prior to her death, when she was taken very critically ill, growing worse until the end came Sunday night at 8:30.

She was a member of St. Paul's Methodist Church, where she was always pleased to go when she had an opportunity. Her pastor, Rev. Mr. Scott, preached her funeral at St. Martin's Church at 3 o'clock Monday and her body was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery there. Mrs. Biggers was a quiet home loving woman greatly devoted to her children and grandchildren, cared little to mingle or intermingle with her neighbors and friends, still she had many friends. If she ever had an enemy the writer does not know it. She leaves to mourn her departure five children, 32 grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren.

Misses Shelle and Lola Biggers have returned to Kannapolis, Miss Beulah Biggers to Mont Amosa Seminary, Miss Gladys Biggers to Concord high school and Miss Autie Biggers to Winecoff school after spending several days here during the sickness and death of their grandmother.
