DEATH CAR PILOT HELD FOR KILLING T. H. DUNN

S. S. Williams of Charlotte, Was Driving Car, It Is Alleged, While Drunk. Charlotte, Feb. 28.—S. S. Williams, said to be a former resident of Charlotte, but who has lived in Marshville for some time, this morning was arrested by rural police in connection with the death of Thomas H. Dunn, who was almost instantly killed last yesterday on the Monroe road in the outskirts of Charlotte.

The warrant charges Williams with driving an automobile while drunk and with being instrumental in the death of Dunn, who was killed when thrown from the machine driven by Williams. The automobile in which Williams and Dunn were riding was said to have struck a bridge over Briar Creek near the city limits. Dunn being hurled from the machine. A passer-by carried him to a hospital where he died within a short time. Dunn was said to have been an organizer for the Mystice Circle, a secret organization, and had lived here about a year, moving to this city from Raleigh. He is survived by his widow and two small daughters, also two brothers, Frank Dunn, of Lumber Bridge, and Clarence Dunn, of Fayetteville, and a sister, Mrs. A. J. Marley, of Lumber Bridge.

Tom Coles, negro, of Newell, was being held in the county jail today without bond pending the outcome of injuries sustained late Saturday afternoon by Jack Donaldson, Jr., five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Donaldson, of North Brevard street, who was perhaps fatally injured when struck by an automobile said to have been driven by Coles. The child was reported today as having a chance of recovery.

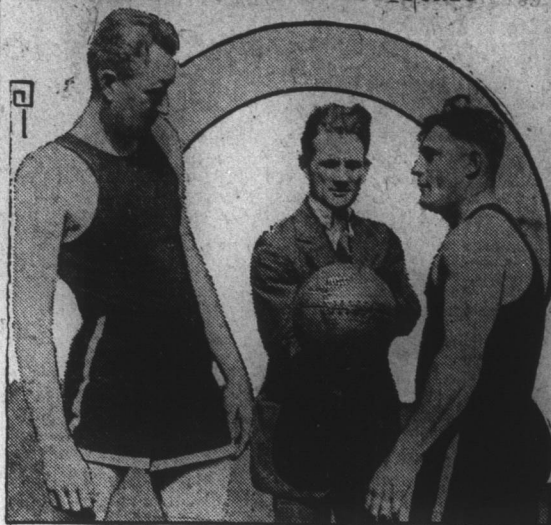

The fate of J. L. James, young white man, and Augustus Odum, negro, charged with the death of Miss Lizzie Lawrence, aged white woman who was run down and killed on South Tryon street on January 26th, will be decided by a jury in superior court tomorrow.

Trial of the case started Friday and owing to the large amount of testimony the case was not completed at the end of the week.

The best sympathy

IT is only human for a funeral director to feel sympathetic in the presence of bereaved patrons. But it is real sympathy when he recognizes an obligation to see to it that the highest character of burial equipment is furnished at honest prices. Such a policy has been responsible for the success of this concern.

Typical of the burial equipment furnished by us is the Clark Grave Vault, recognized as a leader in the vault industry, because it gives positive and permanent protection.
