Tells of His Experience With Chickens.
 Mr. Editor:
 I will tell you something about my experience with chickens. I have been a great chicken lover and fancier and I have raised and kept quite a few different breeds of birds but about nine years ago I finally settled in favor of the Mottled Ancona for eggs beginning with the Sheppard strain and have found them to be as good as the best and better than the rest, and I have raised and sold quite a few and have sold a lot of eggs. I now have a nice pen of Sheppard strain Anconas, and I also have the Jersey Black Giants that I am very proud of, especially of one giant pullet which is making a fine egg record. She began laying very early. She laid through January but I did not notice her egg record until the first of February. She missed only two days in February and hasn't missed a day since, and if any one seems to be skeptical I can furnish the goods. This same pullet with one Jersey Black Giant cockerel are locked up in a pen to themselves and I carry the key, and attend all my birds myself. I want to say if you have anything to beat this pullet, trot her out. Wishing all you poultrymen good luck and lots of eggs.
 Yours sincerely,
 W. P. EDSEL,
 95 Buffalo Street

"And now," thundered counsel, "tell the court what you were doing in the interim."
 "I never went there," retorted the witness, indignantly. "I stayed in the drawing room all the evening."

MOUCHELETTE WILL TAPER OFF TRAINING IN CHARLOTTE

Fighters in Splendid Shape on Eve of Festival—Bleachy Seats Will Accommodate Thousands Expected.
 BY JAZZY MOORE
 Kannapolis, March 5.—In spite of rumors to the contrary, Newsboy Mouchette, undefeated Hartwell, Ga. featherweight who is scheduled to meet Pee Wee Russell in the main event of the Saturday night fighting and grappling show to be staged at the Cabarrus Y. M. C. A., will taper off his training in Charlotte tonight. Local fans who had planned watching Mouchette work out in the Y gym today will learn with regret of this announcement. Messages conveyed to the commission office gleaned the facts that Mouchette will arrive here about three o'clock Saturday afternoon, go directly to his room at a local hall, and make his first ring appearance that evening at eight o'clock. This will be the first and probably only show the localistic flock will get of the Georgian. He has been consistent in his training, it was stated, and is extremely trim and vigorous.
 Hard indoor training, such as rope skipping, bag punching, and sparring, has put Russell in a splendid condition according to dope fever heated from the Russell camp. He has also done a week's road work. Pee Wee is now fighting under the banner of Thorne Russell, a veteran handler. Thorne Russell, it will be remembered, put Jimmy Moore on the right road to success.
 Speedy Tate, of King's Mountain, and Kid Elliott, Salisbury, are down for four rounds in the semi-final. Bleachy seats are being built to accommodate the attendance expected to throng the building for these bouts.

METHODIST BODIES DECIDE FOR UNION

Sunday School Conference and Bible Class Federation Effect Merger.
 Charlotte, March 4.—The Methodist Sunday school conference and the federation of Wesley Bible Classes of Western North Carolina will function as one organization in the future, according to a decision reached by the former in a conference that closed today.
 The plan of the merger, however, allows for certain individualities that will maintain the names of both organizations.
 Mrs. E. O. Chandley, Asheville, was elected superintendent of the Wesley Bible class division while O. V. Woodley, of Lexington, was elected superintendent of the conference.

ALBEMARLE LUTHERANS EXTEND CALL TO DR. RHODES

At a congregational meeting of the members of First Lutheran Church held Sunday morning, a call was extended to Rev. G. H. Rhodes, D. D., of Roanoke, Va., to the pastorate of that church. The call will go forward and it is expected that the local congregation will receive Dr. Rhodes' answer within a few days. And, too, it is generally believed by members of that congregation that the Roanoke minister will consider the call favorably.
 Dr. Rhodes is a native of Pennsylvania. He is comparatively a young man being around 45 years old. He is married and has two children, one boy 16 years old, and a girl 13. He is at present Superintendent of the Virginia Lutheran Synod, and is said to be a very able preacher and a great scholar. His coming to our city would be a decided advantage, not only to the religious life of the community, but to the social and educational life as well.

Past and Flag's Cotton Letter.

New York, March 4.—The cotton market has shown a good tone today as strength in the stock market for the first time in days encouraged buying from both trade and speculative sources, and some fairly large short lines were taken in. Worth street reported a fair demand for narrow goods, but the general goods market was dull, with an easy undertone. Reports of some large spots transactions in the south and predictions of a wet spell in the belt has a stimulating effect.
 There undoubtedly is a large short interest that remains to be covered, and whether the advance can be continued long enough to force a covering movement is a matter of speculation.
