

SOCIETY

Feathery

Very new is the use of feather trimming as applied to the circular cuff of this glove. Natural pheasant and peacock feathers are used, with a beige fabric sleeve.

Dinner For G. W. Baker.
On Sunday, March 7th, at her home in City View, Mrs. Gertrude Baker entertained at dinner the following family connections: Three children, Mrs. Gertrude Baker, Mrs. Joyce Yost and Mrs. G. D. Baker; thirteen grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and several friends.

This dinner was given in honor of her aged father, G. W. Baker, who celebrated his 84th birthday on March 6th.

After the blessing was invoked by Mr. Pastor, Grandpa Baker invited all the guests to help him eat the bountiful dinner.

The table was beautiful with the large birthday cake occupying the center bearing the inscription 1842-1926.

After several hours of sociable talk the guests departed, wishing the honoree many more happy birthdays. ONE PRESENT.

Mrs. Cannon to Entertain.
Mrs. Joseph F. Cannon will entertain on Friday evening at her home on North Union street in honor of the old and new officers of the Grier Bible class of the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Cannon has been teacher of the class for several years, having been re-elected at a recent meeting of the members. However, several new members were chosen at the meeting and the party has been arranged for them and the new ones chosen to succeed them.

All members of the class and all who have ever been members of the class, are invited to attend the party to be given by Mrs. Cannon.

Faggert-Goodnight.
James G. Goodnight and Miss Eula Mae Faggert were united in marriage on Sunday evening, March 7th, at Organ Lutheran parsonage. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Paul L. Miller. Only a few friends and relatives witnessed the wedding.

The bride was attired in a beautiful dress of blue satin back crepe with accessories to match. She is a pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Faggert of China Grove, and her charming personality has enabled her to command a wide circle of friends. The groom is a promising son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Goodnight of Kannapolis. He is a young man of sterling character.

After the ceremony the bridal party together with Rev. and Mrs. Paul Miller, left immediately for the home of the bride where a delicious supper was served in courses.

The couple, after their honeymoon, will make their home in Kannapolis.

Parents of Son.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lacy F. Pendleton, March 6th, a son.

Child Conservation League.
The Concord Circle of Child Conservation League will meet with Mrs. F. C. Niblock at her home on White street Thursday afternoon at 3:30.

CHEST COLDS

Redden the skin by the use of hot applications. Then massage briskly with Vicks, spread Vicks on thickly and cover with hot flannel cloths.

Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

FINE GEMS

In obsolete mountings are as inconsistent as young girls dressed in Grandma's clothes. The village gossip has nothing on the wedding ring when it comes to telling your age. Let us modernize your old wedding ring. It doesn't matter the original engraving.

S. W. Preslar
JEWELER
Ask us about the "Lucky Two-hundredth"

PERSONAL

Mrs. R. C. Corbin is confined to her home on North Union street with influenza.

The condition of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Byrd, who have been confined to their home with influenza, is reported today as greatly improved. Mr. Byrd is able to be out again and Mrs. Byrd is able to sit up.

Hugh Broome, of Mt. Airy, Karl Broome, of Hickory, and Marlin Brunley, of Newton, are spending the day here on business.

E. D. Sherrill and R. K. Black were business visitors in Albemarle Tuesday afternoon.

Dr. Paul Means, of Trenton, N. J., will arrive Thursday morning to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Means.

Friends of J. F. Harris, Sr., will regret to hear that he is confined to his home on North Spring street with a sprained back. Reports from Mr. Harris state that he is suffering much pain.

Mrs. J. A. Sims, who has been visiting her daughters, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Sloan in Charlotte, will return to Concord today.

Mrs. R. A. Brewer is spending today in Charlotte.

R. H. Downs, of Baltimore, Md., is spending several days in Concord as the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Harris B. Thomas.

Mrs. W. R. Odell, Mrs. C. J. Harris, Mrs. D. L. Bost and Miss Mary Pifer Pemberton attended the fashion show in Charlotte Tuesday night.

Mrs. M. H. Caldwell is suffering with influenza at her home on Loan street.

Miss Sara Elizabeth Harris is confined to her home on Spring street with influenza.

Mrs. Percy Sloan, of Cumberland, Md., is the guest of relatives in Concord.

Mrs. A. G. Odell and Mrs. G. B. Lewis are spending today in Charlotte.

Mrs. Philip Laugenhour, of Statesville, was the guest Tuesday of Mrs. H. S. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Cline left this morning for Mooresville, where they were called by the illness of Mrs. Cline's sister, Mrs. Cline's sister, Mrs. John Brantley.

Mrs. Cameron McRae and children who have been ill with influenza are showing some improvement.

Series of Bridge Tournaments Planned.
A series of bridge tournaments, to be given jointly by the Cabarrus Country Club and the Merchants and Manufacturers Club, have been arranged, the first probably to be held next week. Play will be at the Merchants and Manufacturers Club and the tournaments will be arranged by the following committees, the first representing the country club and the latter the M. and M. Club:

Mrs. R. S. Young, Mrs. Edward Sauvain, Miss Margaret Virginia Ervin, and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth; and Mrs. C. J. Harris, Mrs. W. M. Sherrill, Mrs. Victor A. Means and Mrs. C. W. Byrd.

Art and Literature Department.
The Art and Literature Department of the Woman's Club will meet on Thursday evening at 7:30 in the Merchants and Manufacturers Club rooms. An interesting evening is planned. Miss Della Herpsberger, well known expression artist, will give a reading, after which this department will present a short and amusing play, "How the Story Grew."

The entire Woman's Club and its friends are especially invited to meet with the art and literature department and enjoy the program with them.

Mrs. Allen Entertains Bridge Club.
Mrs. George Allen entertained the Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon at her home in Kannapolis, at a most delightful meeting.

The home presented a lovely picture, with its decorations of spring flowers. Jonquils were used in profusion. At the end of the game, Mrs. Sam Querr, holder of top score, was presented a prize, while Mrs. Henry Smith won the high score guest prize. Mrs. L. E. Wrenn held low score and was given a prize. A delicious salad course was served the club members, and a few guests.

Miss Gibson Improving.
Miss Elizabeth Gibson, who has been undergoing treatment in a Richmond hospital, is much improved, her friends will be glad to learn. She left the hospital on Saturday for Norfolk, where she will be the guest of Mrs. R. L. Dobie for some time.

Mrs. Brown Ill.
Mrs. A. M. Brown is confined to her home on North Union street by illness. She became ill while attending the War Mothers meeting Tuesday. Her condition today is reported as improved.

Fire at Dr. Pentuff's.
A fire which started from some unknown cause in the pastor's study of the McGill Street Baptist parsonage Monday evening about seven o'clock did considerable damage to the room and between $150 and $300 damage to the pastor's books and manuscripts, and records. There was no insurance on the books and other valuables in the room. The fire department quickly extinguished the flame.

PROGRAM FOR RETAIL MERCHANTS' INSTITUTE

Institute Will Begin Here March 15th and Continue Through the 17th.

Officials of the Concord Merchants' Association, which is sponsoring the Retail Merchants' Institute to be held here next week, announce the completion of the program and all preliminary plans.

The institute will be conducted by J. W. Griest, general manager of the Retail Merchants' Institute, of Chicago, and sessions will be held twice daily.

While the institute is planned primarily as an aid to the merchant, subjects to be discussed by Mr. Griest will prove of interest to the professional man as well as the merchant. The real purpose of the institute, it is explained, is to build up a bigger and better community.

While the company which is headed by Mr. Griest required only eighty guarantors for the institute, officials of the local association report the signing of twenty-five guarantors.

Monday, March 15th—Day Session
Distribution and the Part It Plays in the Development of Cities and Communities.

Night Session
Afternoon Conference by Appointment. The Winning Salesman. Questionnaire.

Tuesday, March 16th—Day Session
Helpful Hints on Advertising. Questionnaire.

Night Session.
Afternoon Conference by Appointment. You and Your Salary. Questionnaire.

Wednesday, March 17—Day Session
Co-operation for Trade Expansion. Questionnaire.

Night Session
Afternoon Conference by Appointment. The Spirit of the Hive. Questionnaire.

It is explained by officials of the association that the sessions probably will be held each day at noon and at 8 p. m. The hours and places of meeting will be announced later.

In addition to addressing the institutes Mr. Griest probably will be heard by civic organizations in the city. He probably will be the speaker at the meeting of the Rotary Club next week.

Death of Mrs. Susan Swanger.

Mrs. Susan Swanger, aged 70, died Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at her home at the Harvest Mill. She had been ill for a week with a complication of diseases brought on by her advanced age.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home, conducted by Rev. Mr. Morris, and interment will be made in Union cemetery.

Mrs. Swanger was born in Virginia on October 10th, 1855. She was the wife of Tom Swanger and had made her home in Concord for a number of years.

Surviving are her husband and two children, James Luther Swanger, of Concord, and Mrs. Semantha Carter, of Belmont.

George W. Means Confined at Home.
No improvement is reported in the condition of George W. Means, who has been ill for some time, at his home on South Union street. Mr. Means is able to see his friends, however.

Carpets of paper yarn are being introduced in this country.

Get out the Christmas gifts and polish them up. You'll need them for wedding presents soon.

Just happened to see the lawn mower in the basement the other day and it made our back start aching.

You can build a house quickly, but homes grow slowly like trees. Food will keep longer if you put a lock on the ice box.

Most of us like to go to bed and hate to get up. Wouldn't it be fun if this was reversed?

Reading maketh a full man. And it also maketh a lazy man. (Copyright, 1926, NEA Service, Inc.)

Charleston Contest at the Concord Theatre.

The Charleston contest, under the auspices of the management of the Concord Theatre, was a roaring success. Last night was the final opportunity for the contestants to "strut their stuff," which they did in professional fashion.

Each night saw the introduction of a spicy little act by each contestant as he performed before capacity houses.

The management was well pleased at the manner in which the city responded to the announcement of a local contest. On both Monday and Tuesday nights the arcade leading to the box office was filled from 6:30 to 8:30 with an almost endless line of patrons.

Almost one thousand persons witnessed the show each night, and it was announced that another contest will be held tonight.

Last night's prize winners were: Buck Howard, first prize, $15; Eugene Hoover, second prize, $10; Joan Brown, Hal Jarratt and Archie Cannon, season passes.

Concord Charleston enthusiasts were given a rare treat in the form of exhibition dancing by Miss Helen Powell, Bill Porter and Bill Powell.

Miss Powell was the feature stepper of the contest. Each night she received half a dozen curtain calls, and responded valiantly to her entreaties. She was accompanied in the double dancing by her brother, Bill Powell. Bill Porter closed the contest with a novelty singing and dancing act. The exhibition dancers were the prize winners of the contest recently held at the Broadway Theatre in Charlotte. Miss Powell will be a leading contender for state laurels at Asheville and Wilmington in the near future, and her Concord audiences wish her luck.

The contest tonight will see an entirely different set of dancers. There will be a complete change of program with Corinne Griffith in "Declasse."

Speaks Before North Carolina Ice Makers.

A. B. Pounds, local ice and coal dealer, and one of the best known men of his vocation in the state, spoke at the meeting of the North Carolina Ice Exchange in Salisbury Tuesday.

Mr. Pounds responded to the address of welcome delivered by Hon. Walter Murray.

Quite a number of ice manufacturers from all parts of the state were in Salisbury for the meeting. Mr. Pounds reports.

Synthetic beefsteaks made from cottonseed are forecast.

BOYS' CLUB ORGANIZED AT MEETING TUESDAY

Rocky River Boys Choose Officers and Plan to Start Active Work Soon.

Meeting at the school house Tuesday afternoon, boys of the Rocky River school decided definitely to organize a Boys' Club, elected officers and voted to begin active work in the near future.

Miss Frances Akerstrom, teacher in the high school department of the school, laid preliminary plans for the club and invited R. D. Goodman, county agent, to be present Tuesday at the formal organization. Mr. Goodman was accompanied to the meet-

TODAY ONLY CONCORD THEATRE

Her Newest Picture
CORINNE GRIFFITH in Declasse
ANOTHER CHARLESTON CONTEST TONIGHT
TOMORROW AND FRIDAY
LON CHANEY
IN HIS NEWEST PICTURE
"THE BLACK BIRD"

ing by O. H. Phillips, farm agent for Stanly county. Officers elected at the meeting were: Vernon Parish, President. Henry Abernethy, Vice President. Clegg McCachren, Secretary. L. M. McCachren, Local Reader. Members decided to meet next on Tuesday, March 23rd, and at that meeting each boy will designate the kind of club work he wants to take up. In the meantime they were advised to confer with their fathers and ask them to co-operate with them in choosing the particular work they want to undertake in the club. The work will be under the supervision of Mr. Goodman.

Keep One Month Ahead
As a safeguard against sickness, unemployment or other emergencies, you should have a reserve fund equal to one month's income.
If you deposit 5% of the amount you earn every week, your balance will equal one month's income in less than five months.
Citizens Bank and Trust Company
CONCORD, N. C.

Telephone Fifty Years Old Today. Telephone people throughout the United States and Canada are celebrating today the fiftieth birthday of the telephone.
The first sentence was spoken over the telephone on March 10, 1876, by Dr. Alexander Graham Bell, its inventor.
Today there are 17,000,000 telephones connected with the Bell system and an army of more than half a million people engaged in building, maintaining, operating and managing the telephone systems throughout our country.
USE PENNY COLUMN—IT PAYS

Real delicacy of aroma, but without loss of natural tobacco taste and character—that's the whole story!
Chesterfield
Chesterfields are made by the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company

J.C. Penney Co.
A NATION-WIDE INSTITUTION
DEPARTMENT STORES
50-54 South Union St., Concord, N. C.
Unexcelled Value In Young Men's Spring Suits
The lines of the Thoroughbred are unmistakable—all the Style there is—fabrics and patterns that spell QUALITY—
$29.75
Suits that are RIGHT—in every hidden stitch and seam! You're sure to like them! And the price is moderate.
—English Two-Button
—Easy, graceful style
—Easy Fitting Back
—Some have broader shoulders
—Notch or Peak Lapel
—Straight-Hanging Trousers
—Unfinished Waxed and Casimere
—Overblends and Stripes
—Greys, blues, tans, browns
Others at $19.75 to $24.75 to $34.75