The street car was crowded, and an old gentleman with a kindly twinkle in his eye took five-year-old Tommy on his lap. "This will be heter than standing, won't 'it my hoy?" he suggested.

"Yes," said Tommy, rather reluctantly, for 'te had enjoyed lurching about in the car.

"But you want to be careful that I don't pick your pecket," the old man said, in a whisper.

"Can't," Tom retorted, his voice somewhat nuffled. "As soon as I saw you lookin, at me I put my penny in my mouth."
